Persons using cellophane in accordance with the above exception shall nevertheless file reports as required in paragraphs (h) and (i).

Rough pine	$7.60
Peeled pine	10.30

Where pulpwood is delivered to a consumer by truck or similar vehicle, by or at the expense of the seller, the maximum price shall be the f. o. b. car price stated above, plus or minus the same dollars and cents differential, if any, which the particular mill paid over or under its highest f. o. b. car price in the months of January and February 1943, for the same type of delivery of the same species and condition of pulpwood. Where pulpwood is banked at a rail siding at the buyer's request and is later loaded at the seller's expense on the railway car, an amount not in excess of 80¢ per cord may be added to the maximum price.

(b) Dealers. In the event that a consumer of pulpwood shall purchase pulpwood through a dealer as defined in section 8 (a) (10) hereof, such consumer may pay such dealer not more than the maximum price hereinbefore established, plus a dealer's allowance not in excess of 75¢ per cord for both rough and peeled wood, except if the pulpwood is produced in the States of Indiana and Missouri, in which case the consumer may pay such dealer not more than the maximum price hereinbefore established, plus a dealer's allowance not in excess of $1.00 per cord for both rough and peeled wood.

(2) The maximum price per cord for pulpwood sold at points other than those mentioned in subparagraph (1), shall be arrived at by deducting from the maximum price established above, f. o. b. cars, an amount equal to the actual cost incurred by the buyer in transporting the wood to and loading the wood on freight cars, or, in the case of wood trucked to the mill by the buyer, by deducting from the maximum price delivered to the mill by the seller, the actual trucking cost incurred by the buyer.

(b) Dealers. In the event that a consumer of pulpwood shall purchase pulpwood through a dealer as defined in section 8 (a) (10) hereof, such consumer may pay such dealer not more than the maximum price hereinbefore established, plus a dealer's allowance not in excess of $1.00 per cord for both rough and peeled wood.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Rent Reg. for Housing,[1] Amdt. 25]

OCCUPANCY BY PURCHASER

Section 6 (b) (2) of the Rent Regulation for Housing is amended to read as follows:

(2) Occupancy by purchaser. A certificate shall be issued authorizing the pursuit of local remedies to remove or evict a tenant of the vendor, for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of regulation (or on or after October 20, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date, or on or after November 6, 1942 for housing accommodations within the Hastings Defense-Rental Area), only as provided in this paragraph (b) (2).

(i) Where the Administrator finds that the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser aggregate twenty per cent or more of the purchase price, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law. Except as hereinafter provided, the certificate shall authorize pursuit of local remedies at the expiration of three months after the date of filing of the petition.

The payment or payments of principal may be made by the purchaser conditionally or in escrow to the end that they shall be returned to the purchaser in the event the Administrator denies a petition for a certificate.

Any payments of principal made from funds borrowed for the purpose of making such payments shall be excluded in determining whether twenty per cent of the purchase price has been paid, unless the Administrator finds that the loan is made in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing or evading the provisions of this paragraph (b) (2).

Where property other than the housing accommodations which are the subject of the purchase is mortgaged or pledged to the vendor to secure any unpaid balance of the purchase price, the payment requirement shall be deemed satisfied if the value of such security, plus any payments of principal made from funds not borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, equal twenty per cent or more of the purchase price.

(ii) Where the Administrator finds (a) that equivalent accommodations are available for rent into which the tenant can move without substantial hardship or loss, or (b) that the vendor has or had a substantial necessity requiring the sale and that a reasonable sale or disposition of the accommodations could not be made without the removal or eviction of the tenant, or (c) that other special hardship would result, a certificate may be issued although less than twenty per cent of the purchase price has been paid and may authorize the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant at a time less than three months after the date of filing of the petition.

This amendment shall become effective June 9, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of June 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

(i) Where the Administrator finds that the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser aggregate twenty percent or more of the purchase price, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law. Except as hereinafter provided, the certificate shall authorize pursuit of local remedies at the expiration of three months after the date of filing of the petition.

Where property other than the housing accommodations which are the subject of the purchase is mortgaged or pledged to the vendor to secure any unpaid balance of the purchase price, the payment required shall be deemed satisfied if the value of such security, plus any payments of principal made from funds not borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, equal twenty percent or more of the purchase price.

(ii) Where the Administrator finds (a) that equivalent accommodations are available for rent into which the tenant can move without substantial hardship or loss, or (b) that the vendor has or had a substantial necessity requiring the sale and that a reasonable sale or disposition of the accommodations could not be made without the removal or eviction of the tenant, or (c) that other special hardship would result, a certificate may be issued although less than twenty per cent of the purchase price has been paid and may authorize the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant at a time less than three months after the date of filing of the petition.

(i) Where the Administrator finds that the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser aggregate twenty per cent or more of the purchase price, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law. Except as hereinafter provided, the certificate shall authorize pursuit of local remedies at the expiration of three months after the date of filing of the petition.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

FUEL OIL

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 11 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.5319 (a) (3) (i) is deleted.

2. Section 1394.5363 (a) is amended by substituting for the last two sentences in the paragraph the following sentence: "However, the ration may not be more than the maximum heating allowance specified in Table IX for the floor area to be heated."

3. A new § 1394.5381 (g) is added as follows:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(g) TABLE IX—Maximum heating allowances for residential space heaters by floor area (pursuant to § 1394.5363 (a)).

Instructions for using Table IX. Floor areas for space heaters are shown in the first column. The maximum heating allowance is shown under the appropriate subzone. The appropriate subzone is determined by reference to Table IC (§1394.5381 (d), or to Table ID (§1394.5381 (a)) for Washington, Oregon and Idaho. For example, assume rooms in Chicago, Illinois, with an allowable floor area of 1,000 square feet to be heated by two portable space heaters. Reference to Table IC shows that the correct subzone for Cook County, Illinois, is 9. Locate 1,000 square feet in the first column of Table IX and find the corresponding figure under the column for Subzone 9, as follows:

1000-1049	Gallons 966

966 gallons is the maximum allowable or "ceiling" ration

Floor area (sq. ft.)	Subzone 1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18 and 19	20	21	22	23 (A, B, C, D)	24 (A, B, C)	25 (A, B, C, D, E)	26 (A, B, C, D, E)	27 (A, B, C, D, E)	28 (A, B, C)

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14 to GMPR, Amdt. 141]

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 4.5 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4.5 Sulfuric acid sold on long term contracts. (a) The maximum prices for sales of sulfuric acid by any manufacturer thereof to any buyer under a contract entered into prior to March 1942, under which the contract price is to be adjusted for fluctuations in the cost of raw materials, labor or both shall be the maximum prices for such sales as determined under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation: Provided, That, the buyer and seller may adjust prices under such a contract on deliveries completed after April 2, 1943 subject to the following limitations:

(1) On deliveries completed after April 2, 1943 and prior to April 1, 1944, the total amount paid for such acid shall not exceed the manufacturing cost thereof.

(2) On deliveries completed after March 31, 1944, payment may be made only at prices not in excess of the maximum prices established under § 1499.2 unless the buyer has filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a written agreement that it will not use the increase in maximum price permitted by this section, directly or indirectly, as a basis for requesting an increase in the maximum price of any commodity or service sold by it.

If the buyer has filed such agreement, payment under the contract may be made at prices in excess of the maximum price established under §1499.2, but in no case at prices higher than those which will make the total amount paid for the acid covered by any payment exceed the manufacturing cost of such acid.

(b) Any manufacturer of sulfuric acid who increases his maximum prices under the provisions of this section shall within thirty days after making a settlement at such increased maximum prices file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. a written report showing:

(1) The number of tons of acid involved in the settlement, the grade thereof, and the maximum price therefor as established under the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation without reference to this section.

(2) The terms of the settlement.

(3) A detailed analysis of the manufacturing cost of the acid involved in the settlement.

Any settlement made under the provisions of this section shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration, and refunds may be required where the amount of the settlement exceeds that permitted by this section.

(c) As used in this section, "manufacturing cost" means all costs directly assignable to the production of sulfuric acid. It includes but is not limited to direct labor, material, and fuel or power costs, together with reasonable allocations of indirect labor, supplies, depreciation at normal rates on plant and equipment actually used in manufacture, maintenance and repairs, insurance, property taxes, and similar items. It does not include expenses incurred in connection with the general administration of the applicant's business, nor selling expenses incurred in connection with the distribution of its products. Specifically excluded are executive and administrative salaries, office expenses, idle plant expenses, commissions, advertising, income and excess profits taxes, charges to war reserves for contingencies, and similar items.

This amendment shall become effective June 13, 1944.

RETOP ICING OF SHIPMENTS OF CABBAGE

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of June, A. D. 1944.

It appearing, that there is a shortage of ice and manpower for icing cars in certain areas and that the excessive retop icing of certain shipments of cabbage is unnecessarily delaying the movement of that traffic and depleting the available supply of ice, thus causing congestion and prolonging the time in transit of such shipments with consequent undue car detention, and that limiting retop icing on shipments of cabbage originating in such areas will result in economy of motive power, manpower, ice, and transportation thereof; the Commission is of the opinion that an emergency exists requiring immediate action; it is ordered, that:

(a) Retop icing on cabbage restricted. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, on any refrigerator car loaded with cabbage, originating in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, or Tennessee, shall accord, allow, or permit retop icing in transit with more than a total of ten thousand (10,000) pounds of retop ice when no initial icing or reicing in bunkers is ordered on the same car; or with more than a total of five thousand (5,000) pounds of retop ice when initial icing or reicing in bunkers is ordered on the same car.

(b) The provisions of this order shall apply to the retop icing on or after the effective date of this order, of all refrigerator cars loaded with cabbage originating in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, or Tennessee which are billed, accepted for transportation, or rolling on or after the effective date of this order.

(c) Tariff provisions suspended. The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, or charges insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended.

(d) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads, or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of any of the provisions therein.

(e) Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Director of the Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 6:00 p. m., June 8, 1944, and shall expire at 12:01 a. m., July 8, 1944; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

ADDITIONAL ISSUE

JUNE 12, 1944.

2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1965-70, dated February 1, 1944, with interest from June 26, 1944, due March 15, 1970. Redeemable at the option of the United States at par and accrued interest on and after March 15, 1965. Interest payable March 15 and September 15.

I. Offering of bonds. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for bonds of the United States, designated 2½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1965-70. The amount of the offering under this circular is not specifically limited.

2. These bonds will not be available for subscription, for their own account, by commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks accepting demand deposits, except as follows: a commercial bank holding savings deposits or issuing time certificates of deposit (as each is defined in Regulation Q of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System) may subscribe to the bonds offered hereunder and to the 2 percent Treasury Bonds of 1952–54 offered simultaneously herewith under Treasury Department Circular No. 741, but the amount of such subscriptions, together with that of any other subscriptions such bank may have entered for its own account for Series F or Series G Savings Bonds since January 1, 1944, and for 2¼ percent Treasury Bonds of 1956–59 or 2½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1965–70 between January 18 and February 15, 1944, shall not exceed, in the aggregate, 20 percent of the combined amount of time certificates of deposit (but only those issued in the names of individuals, and of corporations, associations and other organizations not operated for profit), and of savings deposits, as shown on the bank's books as of the date of the most recent call statement required by the supervising authorities prior to the date of subscription for such bonds, or $400,000, whichever is less. No such bank shall hold more than $100,000 (issue price) of Series F and Series G Savings Bonds (Series 1944), combined.

II Description of bonds. 1. The bonds now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of 2½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1965–70 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 729, dated January 18, 1944, an additional amount of which was issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 734, dated March 2, 1944; after the first interest payment date, September 15, 1944, the bonds now offered will be freely interchangeable with the bonds of this series previously issued, and are identical in all respects therewith except that interest on the bonds to be issued under this circular will accrue from June 26, 1944. The provisions of Section I of Department Circular No. 729 are hereby modified to accord with Section I of this circular and, subject to such modification, and to the provision for accrual of interest from June 26, 1944, on the bonds now offered, the bonds are described in the following quotation from Department Circular No. 729:

> 1. The bonds will be dated February 1, 1944, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on September 15, 1944, and thereafter on March 15 and September 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature March 15, 1970, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after March 15, 1965, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.
> 2. The income derived from the bonds shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The bonds shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.
> 3. The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.
> 4. Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Except as provided in Section I of this circular, these bonds may not, before February 1, 1954, be transferred to or be held by commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks accepting demand deposits; however, the bonds may be pledged as collateral for loans, including loans by commercial banks, but any such bank acquiring such bonds before February 1, 1954, because of the failure of such loans to be paid at maturity will be required to dispose of them in the same manner as they dispose of other assets not eligible to be owned by banks.
> 5. Any bonds issued hereunder which upon the death of the owner constitute part of his estate, will be redeemed at the option of the duly constituted representatives of the deceased owner's estate, at par and accrued interest to date of payment;[1] Provided:
> (a) that the bonds were actually owned by the decedent at the time of his death; and
> (b) that the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to apply the entire proceeds of redemption to the payment of Federal estate taxes. Registered bonds submitted for redemption hereunder must be duly assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption, the proceeds to be paid to the Collector of Internal Revenue at ---------- for credit on Federal estate taxes due from estate of ----------." Owing to the periodic closing of the transfer books and the impossibility of stopping payment of interest to the registered owner during the closed period, registered bonds received after the closing of the books for payment during such closed period will be paid only at par with a deduction of interest from the date of payment to the next interest payment date;[2] bonds received during the closed period for payment at a date after the books reopen will be paid at par plus accrued interest from the reopening of the books to the date of payment. In either case checks for the full six months' interest due on the last day of the closed period will be forwarded to the owner in due course. All bonds submitted must be accompanied by Form PD 1782,[3] properly completed, signed and sworn to, and by a certificate of the appointment of the personal representatives, under seal of the court, dated not more than six months prior to the submission of the bonds, which shall show that at the date thereof the appointment was still in force and effect. Upon payment of the bonds appropriate memorandum receipt will be forwarded to the representatives, which will be followed in due course by formal receipt from the Collector of Internal Revenue.
> 6. Except as provided in the preceding paragraphs, the bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. Subscription and allotment. 1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. It is requested that there be no trading in the securities allotted hereunder and no purchases of such securities other than on direct subscription until after July 8, 1944. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions must be accompanied by payment in full for the amount of bonds applied for.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, and to the limitations on commercial bank subscriptions prescribed in Section I of this circular, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. Payment. 1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted hereunder must be made on or before June 26, 1944, or on later allotment. One day's accrued interest is $0.068 per $1,000. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

Secretary of the Treasury.

Coal Mines Administration.

[Order No. CMA-35]

A&P COAL CO., ET AL.

ORDER TERMINATING GOVERNMENT POSSESSION

On December 17, 1943, a wage agreement was entered into by the United Mine Workers of America and the representatives of the bituminous coal operators who produce the great preponderance of the nation's tonnage. This agreement has been approved by the National War Labor Board and the Director of Economic Stabilization.

I have been advised that the operators listed in Appendix A, attached hereto, have executed or are about to execute contracts and will put them into effect immediately upon termination of Government possession of their mining properties. On the basis of such advice and the available information and evidence, and after consideration of all of the circumstances, I find that Government possession of the mines of such operators is no longer required, and in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order No. 9393 (8 F.R. 14877) and the War Labor Disputes Act (Pub. 89, 78th Cong. 1st Sess.) should be terminated.

Accordingly, I order and direct that the possession by the Government of the mines of the mining companies listed in Appendix A, attached hereto and made a part hereof, including any and all real and personal property, franchises, rights, facilities, funds and other assets used in connection with the operation of such mines, be, and it is hereby terminated, and that there be displayed conspicuously at those mining properties copies of a poster to be supplied by the Coal Mines Administration, and reading as follows:

NOTICE: Government possession and control of the coal mines of this mining company have been terminated by order of the Secretary of the Interior.

In accordance with Section 40 of the Regulations for the Operation of Coal Mines under Government Control, as amended, (8 F.R. 6655, 10712, 11344, 17339), the appointments of the Operating Managers for the United States for all of the aforesaid mines with respect to which the mining companies have on file with the Administrator effective Instruments of Agreement and Certification as provided for in section 25 of the Regulations, as amended, (8 F.R. 6655, 10712, 11344, 17339), are automatically terminated.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to preclude the Government from requiring the submission of information relating to operations during the period of Government possession, for the purpose of ascertaining the existence and amount of any claims against the United States so that the administration of the provisions of Executive Order No. 9393 (8 F.R. 14877) may be concluded in an orderly manner.

Dated: June 8, 1944.

[SEAL] HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

MY DEAR GOVERNOR KELLY: The United States has acquired under the authority of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1931 (46 Stat. 1514), as amended by the Act approved June 20, 1938 (52 Stat. 785), 123,402.04 acres, more or less, of land in Keweenaw County, Michigan for use in connection with the establishment of the Isle Royale National Park. Temporary order adjusting maximum prices for the sale of pasteurized fluid milk at wholesale and retail in specified summer resorts within the State of New York for the period June 3, 1944 through September 15, 1944.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by § 1499.75 (a) (9) of Supplementary Regulation No. 15 to the General Maximum Price Regulation and §§ 1351.807 and 1351.817a of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, as amended, and upon the written authorization of the Price Administrator issued pursuant to a directive from the Director of Office of Economic Stabilization: It is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum price for the sale and delivery in glass or paper containers of Grade A pasteurized fluid milk to subdealers, and at wholesale into store, into rooming house, into restaurant and hotel, and at retail out of store, out of rooming house and to the home, within the summer resort areas in the State of New York described in Appendix A hereof, shall be the applicable adjusted maximum price specified in the appropriate schedule set forth in said Appendix A.

(b) The maximum price for the sale and delivery of Grade A pasteurized fluid milk in other than glass or paper containers at wholesale to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions within the summer resort areas in the State of New York described in Appendix B hereof, shall be the applicable adjusted maximum price specified in the appropriate schedule set forth in said Appendix B.

(c) The maximum price at which a handler, as hereinafter defined, may sell and deliver Grade A pasteurized fluid milk at wholesale in other than glass or paper containers to any purchaser other than a store, hotel, restaurant or institution, and the maximum price at which any purchaser other than a store, hotel, restaurant or institution, in the course of trade or business, may purchase or receive such pasteurized fluid milk in other than glass or paper containers from a handler delivered at a place designated by such purchaser within the summer resort areas in the State of New York described in Appendix C hereof, shall be the applicable adjusted maximum price specified in the appropriate schedule set forth in said Appendix C.

(d) In the event that a handler sells such Grade A pasteurized fluid milk to a purchaser f. o. b. the handler's receiving or processing plant, there shall be deducted from the applicable adjusted maximum price set forth in Appendix C hereof ½¢ per quart.

(e) No further charge of any kind shall be made or added to the applicable adjusted maximum price set forth in Appendices A, B or C hereof for any reason whatsoever.

(f) Special and premium milk. For each type of premium or special milk other than Grade A pasteurized, the adjusted maximum price of any seller for the sale and delivery of such type of special or premium milk, in any of the summer resort areas described in this order, shall be increased by a customary differential, if any, between the price of Grade A pasteurized fluid milk and such special or premium milk for the same type of sale and delivery in the same type and size of container.

(g) Where the adjusted maximum price is a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller must multiply such fractional unit figure by the total number of units in each sale or series of sales for which a single collection is made. Where the resulting amount contains a fraction of a cent, or where only one unit is sold, the seller shall adjust the maximum price to the nearest full cent, except that if the fraction should be a half cent, the seller shall adjust the maximum price to the next higher full cent (for example, a maximum price of 4½¢ for one unit shall be adjusted to 5¢ for one unit, 9¢ for two units, 14¢ for three units, etc.).

(a) What this order does. This order determines the limits of the free delivery zone at the wholesale receiving point of Scott County, Iowa, and Rock Island County, Illinois. It also establishes differentials for non-delivered sales in the free delivery zone and for delivered sales beyond the free delivery zone. The order applies to such fresh fruit and vegetable items as are now or may hereafter be subject to the pricing provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 285 and Appendices H and I of Maximum Price Regulation No. 426. Non-delivered sales:* For sales on a non-delivered basis there shall be deducted from the price for delivered sales in the free delivery zone, 5¢ per container for standard shipping containers weighing under 50 pounds gross weight, and 10¢ per container for standard shipping containers weighing 50 pounds or over gross weight. A deduction of 2¢ or 5¢, respectively, shall be made for non-delivered sales of half standard shipping containers or more, or for bulk sales weighing as much as or more than half a standard container of the item being sold. No deductions need be made for sales in less than half containers and for bulk sales which weigh less than half a standard container of the item being sold.

2. Delivered sales in the free delivery zone. For deliveries in the free delivery zone the maximum delivered price shall be the maximum delivered price computed under Maximum Price Regulation No. 426 for the type of sale being made without any deduction from or addition thereto.

3. Delivered sales beyond the free delivery zone. For deliveries beyond the free delivery zone the amount set out below may be added to the price for delivered sales in the free delivery zone. Mileage beyond the free delivery zone shall be computed via the nearest publicly traveled route.

All containers and in bulk	25 miles or less beyond free delivery zone.	Beyond 25 miles from free delivery zone.
Gross weight..	20¢ per cwt. but not less than 10¢ per stop.	25¢ per cwt. but not less than 15¢ per stop.

(d) Differentials for non-delivered and delivered sales of items under Maximum Price Regulation No. 285—1. Non-delivered sales and delivered sales in the free delivery zone. For non-delivered sales and for deliveries in the free delivery zone the maximum price shall be the maximum delivered price computed under Maximum Price Regulation No. 285 for the type of sale being made. Discounts and price differentials including any differential or discounts for f. o. b. seller or non-delivered sales must be maintained.

2. Delivered sales beyond the free delivery zone. For deliveries beyond the free delivery zone the amount set out below may be added to the price for delivered sales in the free delivery zone. Lower prices than those fixed may, of course, be charged or paid.

(b) To what sales the maximum prices apply. The maximum prices established by this order apply to every person making sales or purchases of fish livers or viscera for which maximum prices are established herein, irrespective of the nature of the seller or buyer and irrespective of whether the fish livers or viscera are sold through an agent of any kind.

(c) Evasion. (1) The price limitations set forth in this order shall not be evaded, either by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to, fish livers or viscera separately or in combination with any other commodity or service, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, container, packaging or other charge, or discount premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other understanding, or otherwise.

(2) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(i) Falsely or incorrectly invoicing fish livers or viscera.

(ii) Offering, selling, or delivering fish livers or viscera on condition that the purchaser is required to purchase some other commodity or service.

(iii) Charging, paying, billing, or receiving any consideration for or in connection with any service for which a specific allowance has not been provided in this order.

(d) Records. Every seller and buyer subject to this order, after June 12, 1944, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price contracted for or received, the quantity and species of fish livers or viscera.

(e) Containers. Where it has been the customary practice at the port of entry for the buyer to supply the producer (fisherman) with the cans or other containers used to transport fish livers or viscera from the grounds to the port of entry, such practice may be continued without a compensating reduction in the ceiling price.

(f) Definitions and explanations. When used in this order the term:

"Fish livers" means the unspoiled liver removed from the fish carcass, free from water, ice, and other foreign material and separately packed as to species.

"Viscera" means the internal organs of the fish other than the liver and stomach, removed from the fish carcass, free from water, ice, and other foreign material and separately packed as to species.

(g) Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. All the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation not inconsistent with this order shall apply to sales covered by this order.

(h) Maximum prices. The prices set forth below are the maximum prices for fish livers and viscera of the designated species landed out of the vessel on the pier or wharf at the port of entry. Customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials for a quality or grade of fish liver or viscera not meeting the definitions in paragraph (f) must be observed. The maximum prices fixed by this order include all brokerage commissions or any other customary selling fees, transportation and any other expenses incurred.

Species	Livers, price per pound	Viscera, price per pound
Halibut [1]	$1.30	$0.25
Sablefish (Black Cod) [1]	1.65	.25
Ling Cod	2.00
Red Cod (Snapper)	.75
Skate [1]	.10
Dogfish [1]	.25
Mudshark [1]	.25

[1] Deduct 2¢ per pound when this species of liver or viscera is landed in a port of entry other than Ketchikan, Wrangell or Petersburg.

(i) This order may be revoked or amended by the Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator through the issuance at any time hereafter of any order, price regulation, or amendment, or supplement thereto.

This order shall become effective June 12, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 101.16 Form. * * *

(b) Every negotiable receipt, issued for cotton stored in a licensed warehouse shall be effective until surrendered for delivery of the cotton, and every non-negotiable receipt shall be effective until surrendered for delivery of the cotton or until all cotton covered by the receipt has been delivered in response to proper delivery orders of the person rightfully entitled to the cotton: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit a warehouseman from legally selling the cotton when his accrued storage and other charges approach the current market value of the cotton (Reg. 4, Sec. 1, Par. 2).

§ 101.21 Return of receipts before delivery of cotton. Except as permitted by law or by these regulations, a warehouseman shall not deliver cotton for which he has issued a negotiable receipt under the act until such receipt has been returned to him and canceled; and shall not deliver cotton for which he has issued a nonnegotiable receipt until such receipt has been returned to him or he has obtained from the person lawfully entitled to such delivery or his authorized agent, a written delivery order, properly signed, specifying by bale or tag number each bale to be delivered from any receipt or receipts. Before delivering, or upon delivery of, all the cotton covered by a nonnegotiable warehouse receipt, the warehouseman may require the surrender of the receipt (Reg. 4, Sec. 6).

§ 101.29 Warehouse charges. A warehouseman shall not make any unreasonable or exorbitant charge for services rendered. Before a license to conduct a warehouse is granted under the act, the warehouseman shall file with the Department a copy of his rules, if any, and a schedule of the charges to be made by him if licensed. A licensed warehouseman may alter his rate of charges for storage and other services effective at the beginning of any new crop year, and such change shall apply during the present war emergency to all cotton, including cotton then in storage: Provided, however, That the Secretary, or his designated representative, may fix the effective date of such change for warehousemen in each state or group of states. Before making any change in such rules or schedule of charges, the warehouseman shall file with the Department a statement showing the proposed change and the reasons therefore: Provided, That such change or changes shall not become effective until the Department has granted approval to the change. At the close of each cotton season or upon the expiration of one year from the date of issuance of a receipt the warehouseman may demand payment of all accrued storage and other charges. Each licensed warehouseman shall keep exposed conspicuously in the place prescribed by § 101.6 (Reg. 2, Sec. 4), and at such other place, accessible to the public, as the Secretary or his designated representative may from time to time designate, a copy of his current rules and schedule of charges (Reg. 5, Sec. 7).

§ 101.32 Arrangement of stored cotton. (a) Each warehouseman shall store each bale of cotton for which a receipt under the Act has been issued so that the tag thereon, required by § 101.31 (Reg. 5, Sec. 9), is visible and readily accessible, except as provided in § 101.32 (b), and shall arrange all other cotton in his licensed warehouse so as to permit an accurate check thereof.

(b) If any licensed warehouseman is tendered for storage cotton of same grade and staple and in such quantity by any one depositor that efficiency of operation dictates that such cotton should be stored in lots without reference to visibility of all tags on all bales within any lot, the warehouseman may store such cotton of same grade and staple belonging to the same depositor in lots of not less than 25 bales nor more than 200 bales, Provided, however, That each bale entering into the lot must bear an individual identification tag, and each lot must be so stored that the number of bales within the lot may be accurately determined.

An identification card or tag shall be attached by the warehouseman to each lot of cotton which shall show the lot number and the number of bales in the lot. The warehouseman shall also maintain an office record showing bale or tag number of each bale in the lot and the location of the lot in the warehouse. Each lot shall be so arranged as to be readily distinguishable from each and every other lot. When requested by a proper representative of the Department of Agriculture engaged in making an examination of the warehouse, the warehouseman shall tear or break down at his own expense such stacks or lots of cotton as the examiner deems necessary to a proper examination. Before any warehouseman undertakes to store in accordance with this section he shall submit a statement setting forth (1) his reasons for desiring to avail himself of this section and (2) the plan of storage he proposes to follow, and he shall secure prior permission from the Secretary or his designated representative to practice such method of storage. (Reg. 5, Sec. 10.)

The foregoing amendments shall become effective at 12:01 a. m. e. w. t. June 12, 1944.

[B. E. P. Q.—Q. 59, Amdt. 1]

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

FLAG SMUT QUARANTINE

Because of a temporary national shortage of feedstuffs and rail transportation, increased importations of feedstuffs have become necessary. Australia being one of the immediate sources of supply for which water transportation is available it is proposed as an emergency measure to modify the existing prohibition against the importation of wheat from Australia contained in 7 CFR 319.59 (Flag Smut Quarantine, No. 59), by permitting the importation of this product by an agency of the Federal Government, under conditions prescribed for the purpose of preventing the danger of flag smut introduction into important wheat areas. Such importation will be limited to six boatloads and to a period not to extend beyond November 30, 1944; the imported wheat will be obtained in southern Australia where, according to available information, flag smut has not been reported since 1941; and entry and distribution will be allowed for feed purposes only, and confined within the area in southern California where wheat is not an important crop.

Pursuant to the authority conferred on the Secretary of Agriculture by the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U.S.C. 160), the subpart entitled "Flag Smut" of Part 319, Chapter III, Title 7, of the Code of Federal Regulations (§ 319.59; B. E. P. Q—Q. 59) is hereby amended, effective immediately, by adding, at the end of said subpart the following:

Provided, That this prohibition shall not apply to a quantity of wheat, not to exceed six boatloads, to be imported from southern Australia, through the port of Los Angeles, Calif., by an agency of the Federal Government on or before November 30, 1944, at a rate not exceeding two boatloads per month, for milling at Los Angeles, Calif., and utilization thereafter for feed purposes within the are of the State of California south of and including the counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, and a line extended eastward through San Bernardino County from the northern borders of Ventura and Los Angeles Counties. Such importation, milling, distribution, and utilization of this Australian wheat shall be carried out in compliance with the regulations promulgated supplemental to this quarantine.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ENTRY OF AUSTRALIAN WHEAT INTO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

§ 319.59–1 Applications for and issuance of permits. Upon receipt of an application, giving the name and address of importer, country and locality of origin, United States port of entry, approximate quantity to be imported and approximate date of arrival, a permit will be issued authorizing the importation of Australian wheat through the port of Los Angeles, Calif., during the period from the effective date hereof until November 30, 1944. Permits will be issued subject to the restrictions and requirements set forth in §§ 319.59–2 to 319.59–7.

§ 319.59–2 Notice of arrival. A notice of arrival shall be submitted with each shipment entered at said port on forms provided for the purpose (Form EQ–368).

§ 319.59–3 Inspection and treatment. Each shipment shall be subject to such inspection as may be necessary to determine its freedom from injurious insects and plant diseases, and to such treatment as may be necessary in connection with pests found present.

§ 319.59–4 Safeguards governing unloading and handling at dock. Unloading and handling at the dock shall be under the supervision of an inspector of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, and shall be subject to such safeguard and cleanliness requirements as he may prescribe.

§ 319.59–5 Wheat may be ground in approved mills only. Wheat shipments shall be moved from the dock only to specified, approved mills within the limits of the port for grinding. Movement from dock to mill shall be under the supervision of an inspector of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine and shall be carried out in such manner and under such safeguards as he may require.

§ 319.59–6 Identity of product to be maintained. The wheat shall be ground to such state of fineness as will fit it for feeding purposes, and the identity of the product shall be maintained after grinding by marking, certification, or otherwise as the inspector may require.

§ 319.59–7 Distribution for consumption safeguarded by permit. Distribution from the mill into consumption within the specified area shall be made under permit issued under such conditions as will insure that the product does not leave the specified consumption area.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

JACKSON UPHOLSTERY CO., INC.

Jackson Upholstery Co., Inc., a New York corporation located at 18 West 18th Street, New York, New York, is engaged in the business of manufacturing furniture. During the period beginning on or about the middle of November, 1942, and ending January 10, 1943, the corporation processed, fabricated, worked on and assembled 339 pieces of new wood upholstered furniture containing steel springs and coils in violation of General Limitation Order L-135. Since the respondent corporation was familiar with the provisions of General Limitation Order L-135, its actions must be deemed to constitute wilful violations of that order.

These violations of General Limitation Order L-135 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.602 Suspension Order No. S-562. (a) Jackson Upholstery Co., Inc., its successors or assigns, during the three months period beginning July 1, 1944, and ending September 30, 1944, shall not use in the production of upholstered furniture more metal upholstery springs than five per cent by weight of the total weight of metal upholstery springs used by it during the year 1941; and during the three months period beginning October 1, 1944, and ending December 31, 1944, shall not use in the production of upholstered furniture more metal upholstery springs than five per cent by weight of the total weight of metal upholstery springs used by it during the year 1941.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Jackson Upholstery Co., Inc., its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 1, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

Issued this 2d day of June 1944.

PRODUCTION QUOTAS FOR DAIRY MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

§ 1226.78 Production quotas for dairy machinery and equipment—(a) The purpose of this schedule. The purpose of this schedule is to fix the production quotas for dairy machinery and equipment, for the year beginning October 1, 1943 and ending September 30, 1944, inclusive. The quotas described in this schedule shall take the place of the quota provisions of paragraph (f) of Order L-292 with respect to those items.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Base period use" means the annual average tonnage of controlled materials used to complete items of dairy machinery and equipment during the years 1939, 1940 and 1941.

(2) "Controlled material" means controlled material as defined in CMP Regulation 1.

(c) Production quotas. During the year beginning October 1, 1943 and ending September 30, 1944, no manufacturer shall use more controlled materials to fabricate or assemble dairy machinery and equipment in any class than the quota percentage of his base period use for each class of machinery and equipment as set forth in the table below.

PRODUCTION QUOTAS

The first column describes each class of machinery covered by this schedule.

The second column describes the various types of machinery and equipment included in each class of machinery.

The third column assigns a code number to each type of machinery and equipment.

The fourth column shows the quota percentage that each manufacturer is allowed. Where an asterisk appears instead of a quota percentage, a manufacturer may build the item opposite the asterisk only upon receipt of an approved order as defined in paragraph (a) (5) of Order L-292. But a manufacturer of such an item may build a minimum production run of the item upon written authorization from the War Production Board. Request for authorization may be made by filing a letter in triplicate with the War Production Board showing the quantity in a minimum production run of the item and containing substantial evidence that the manufacturer will obtain approved orders in that quantity by October 1, 1944. The War Production Board may grant the authorization upon such conditions, if any, as it may prescribe.

[1] The quota for all butter, cheese and fluid milk plant equipment is 110% of the controlled materials used for the Group A items in the base period plus 200% of the controlled materials used for the Group B items in the base period. For example, if a manufacturer used 1,000 tons for the Group A items and 100 tons for the Group B items his quota for all butter, cheese and fluid milk plant equipment would be 1,300 tons. This quota may be used for any product in either group or divided amongst the products in both groups in any way that the manufacturer wishes.

(d) Exceptions. The quota provisions of paragraph (c) above do not restrict the fabrication or assembly of dairy machinery or equipment to fill specific orders actually received by a manufacturer for export outside the United States and Canada, or for direct use by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(e) Increase, decrease and transfer of quotas. The War Production Board may, by specific written directions issued to any manufacturer or class of manufacturers, increase or decrease any quota established by this schedule and may transfer any portions of a quota between manufacturers, taking into consideration the amount of materials to be used, the need for particular items at the time required, the labor and transportation situation in the manufacturing areas involved, the inability of any manufacturer to manufacture his quota, and such other factors as may be relevant.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Limitation Order L-103, as Amended June 10, 1944]

GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION

§ 3270.46 Limitation Order L-103—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Glass container" means any new machine-made bottle, jar, or tumbler which is made of glass and which is suitable for packing any product.

(2) "Closure" means any sealing or covering device affixed or to be affixed to a glass container for the purpose of retaining the contents within the container.

(3) "Finish" of a glass container means the configuration of the neck or opening which serves to engage specific parts of the closure in order to affix it to the glass container.

(4) "Design" of a glass container means the particular shape, weight, size, capacity, and contour of the body of such container (other than the finish), and shall include any lettering or decoration molded thereon, except the container manufacturers' identification marks.

(5) A "design in existence" means a design for which one or more molds have been cast and is further limited to the exact size and capacity of container produced therefrom.

(6) Any specification which refers to or includes the letters "G. C. A." means a specification (including the tolerances recognized with respect to such specification) issued by the Glass Container Association of America and in effect on May 11, 1942.

(7) "Exhibit" refers to the particular specifications set forth opposite an exhibit number (e. g. 10-00; 10-75; 50-23, etc.) as applied to the shape or contour appearing on the drawing, attached to this order, in connection with which such exhibit is listed. Any applicable footnotes appearing on said drawing shall be deemed to be incorporated in such specifications.

(c) Issuance of schedules of simplification of lines. The War Production Board may from time to time issue schedules establishing simplification practices with respect to the designs and/or finishes of glass containers for specific products. From and after the date of issuance of any such schedule no such containers shall be manufactured or used contrary to the provisions of such schedule: Provided, however, That:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (c), nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall prevent the manufacture, sale, delivery or use, for the packaging of any product, of any glass container which differs from any standard glass container established for such product by any schedule solely by reason of:

(i) The location of indented or other label space;

(ii) The degree of curvature of the shoulder and heel of the container;

(iii) The amount and location of any lettering which indicates capacity only;

(iv) A difference in height or weight when such difference does not exceed 5 percent of the height or weight shown for the applicable standard glass container;

(v) The existence or location of stippling or fluting.

(2) No person shall manufacture, sell, deliver or use any glass container pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) unless

(i) Such glass container is manufactured within nine months after the date as of which the product for which it is to be used was first referred to in any schedule of this order. (For reference purposes the "cut off" date applicable to glass containers for each such product in accordance with this paragraph (c) (2) (i) is listed in Table I, annexed hereto.)

(ii) Such glass container is manufactured from a mold which was actually in existence prior to the date of issuance of any applicable schedule; and

(iii) The design of such glass container has been submitted to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref. L-103, and approved as within the exemption provided by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c).

(d) Exhibits. The exhibits listed on the drawings attached to this order shall have no application except as they are specifically referred to in this order or are established as standard glass containers by the provisions of any schedule issued pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof.

(e) Freezing of all glass container designs not established as standards pursuant to any schedule of this order. No person shall manufacture a glass container except:

(1) Where the design of such container was in existence on May 11, 1942; or, failing this, where any variations from a design then in existence have been effected by alterations of molds in existence on or before May 11, 1942.

(2) Where the design of such container corresponds to any exhibit attached to this order.

(3) Where the design of such container has been submitted by any person to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. L-103, and approved under one of the following conditions:

(i) When no suitable glass container exists for packing a product not previously packed in glass;

(ii) When it is necessary to design a special glass container in order that it can be used on an existing filling or packing line.

(4) Nothing in subparagraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this paragraph (e) shall be deemed to permit the manufacture or use of glass containers contrary to the provisions of any schedule issued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this order.

(5) Nothing in this paragraph (e) shall prevent the manufacture of milk bottles which differ from the designs in existence on May 11, 1942, solely by reason of the following:

(i) Name of dairy.
(ii) Address of dairy.
(iii) Neck identification for use in sorting.
(iv) The word "store" or "deposit."
(v) The amount of deposit.
(vi) Single identification letter or symbol on bottom plate.
(vii) Any other lettering required by law or local ordinance.

(f) Allowance of normal operating tolerances. (1) Nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall

(i) Prevent variations in the design or finish of a glass container within the limits of normal operating tolerances.

(ii) Prohibit the usual differences in glass container design when manufactured on glass container machinery of different types.

(g) Interchangeable finishes. (1) Unless specifically stated to the contrary in any schedule, nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall prevent the interchange of finishes on glass containers described in an exhibit attached to this order, Provided:

(i) Such interchange can be effected without alteration of the specified body mold; and

(ii) The interchanged finish is no greater in diameter than that appearing on the exhibit for the body design to which it is to be applied, or, if another type of finish is used, no larger than the corresponding size of that type of finish.

(iii) The capacity resulting from such interchange is no less than the capacity shown in the applicable exhibit.

(2) Nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall prevent the modification of the weight, height, or capacity of a glass container described in any exhibit of this order to the minimum extent required by any interchange of finishes in accordance with the conditions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (g).

(h) Extent of prohibitions against replacement of molds. (1) Whenever any provision of this order or any schedule hereof prohibits the replacement of existing molds, such prohibition shall extend to the body mold only and shall not be deemed to prohibit the use of new neck rings nor new blank molds or other equipment necessary for use with a body mold.

(i) Export. Nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall affect the manufacture, sale or delivery of glass containers intended to be shipped empty out of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia; Provided, That said glass containers are of designs which were in existence on or before May 11, 1942.

(j) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. L-103.

Issued this 10th day of June 1944.

DR. PEPPER BOTTLING COMPANY

Mrs. L. E. McMinn and M. H. McMinn, doing business as Dr. Pepper Bottling Company, 900 13th Street, Ashland, Kentucky, are engaged in the bottling and distribution of non-alcoholic beverages. For the period from June 1, 1942 to October 1, 1943, they used 2,384.4 gross of new closures made of restricted materials in excess of the quota permitted under the provisions of Conservation Order M–104, as then in effect. On or about August 28, 1943, they accepted delivery of 476 gross of new glass containers in excess of the quota permitted under the provisions of Limitation Order L–103–b, as then in effect. Mr. McMinn, manager of the company, was familiar with the provisions of Order M–104 and of Order L–103–b. His violation of Order M–104 resulted from gross negligence, and his violation of Order L–103–b was intentional and wilful.

As a result of these violations scarce materials have been diverted from the war effort to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.600 Suspension Order No. S–600. (a) Mrs. L. E. McMinn and M. H. McMinn, individually, or doing business as Dr. Pepper Bottling Company, or otherwise, their, or any of their, successors and assigns, shall during the calendar year of 1944 reduce their use of new closures made of restricted materials to be affixed to glass containers for non-alcoholic beverages by 2,384.4 gross, under the quota they would otherwise be entitled to use in 1944, as defined by Limitation Order L–103–b, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Mrs. L. E. McMinn and M. H. McMinn, individually, or doing business as Dr. Pepper Bottling Company, or otherwise, their, or any of their, successors and assigns, shall during the calendar year of 1944 accept delivery of not more than 50% of the quota of new glass containers for non-alcoholic beverages they would otherwise be entitled to use in 1944, as defined by Limitation Order L–103–b, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Mrs. L. E. McMinn and M. H. McMinn, individually, or doing business as Dr. Pepper Bottling Company, or otherwise, their, or any of their, successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on June 10, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

Issued this 3d day of June 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1293—HAND TOOLS SIMPLIFICATION

[Limitation Order L–157, Schedule I, as Amended June 12, 1944]

HAND SHOVELS, SPADES, SCOOPS, TELEGRAPH SPOONS AND SNOW SHOVELS

§ 1293.2 Schedule I to Limitation Order L–157—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, stamps, forges, or otherwise fabricates hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons, or snow shovels.

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order L–157, no producer shall manufacture any hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons or snow shovels except the kinds named in Tables I through IV of Appendix A in conformity with the sizes, standards, types and varieties set forth in Appendix A.

(c) Restrictions on material. There are some specific items appearing on the Tables contained in this schedule which shall be manufactured only out of steel which is obtained from idle or excess inventories, pursuant to specific authorization from the War Production Board in accordance with Priorities Regulation 13 or CMP Regulation No. 1. In such cases, a footnote will appear in the table, referring to this paragraph, designating the specific items which are governed by it, and in only those cases does this paragraph apply. Such specific items will also be marked with an *.

(d) Records. Each producer shall keep and preserve in his files accurate and complete records showing his inventory of raw materials, and his production of hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons, and snow shovels, and such records shall be kept readily available and open to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

[1] Formerly Part 1076, § 1076.7.

APPENDIX A

Explanations and limitations—(1) Grades. Alloy A, B, and C designate qualities of complete hand shovels, spades, scoops, or telegraph spoons; alloy and A designating the best quality. Alloy and A-grade tools are equipped with grade XX or SA handles; B-grade tools are equipped with grade X or SB handles. C-grade tools are equipped with No. 1 or SC handles. SA, SB, and SC grades are approximately equivalent to XX, X, and No. 1, respectively, which are the handle-grade designations commonly employed by the shovel industry. Grades SA, SB, and SC are defined in Simplified Practice Recommendation R76, Ash Handles issued by the United States Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards.

Nothing in this provision shall be construed as prohibiting the substitution for ash of other suitable species of wood having characteristics as nearly comparable as possible to the respective grades of ash for which they are substituted; Provided, That the buyer consents, and all handles other than ash be marked with the name of the species of wood of which they were made.

(2) [Deleted March 10, 1944]

(3) Blade finishes. Black or natural finish is obtained by dipping the blade in its natural state, except that it may be wire brushed to remove scale or rust, in lacquer, or lacquer with an asphaltum base, or other suitable protective coating; the blade shall not be pickled before being wire brushed. Full polished finish is obtained by pickling the blade, finishing on roughing and finishing polishing wheels, and dipping it in lacquer, lacquer with an asphaltum base, or other suitable protective coating. No hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons, and snow shovels shall be finished in other than black or natural finish, except moulders' shovels and grain scoops, which may be full polished on the face only, and except shovels delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, which shovels shall be finished in accordance with the procurement specification of the War Department or Navy Department as the case may be.

(4) Gauges. The gauges referred to are the steel manufacturers' standard gauges, and are subject to the manufacturers' standard tolerances. The gauge of blades is to be determined by averaging five measurements taken as specified in Federal Specification GGG–S–326.

(5) Handle finish. Neither long handles, nor the stems of D handles, shall be painted or otherwise finished than by sanding and waxing, except all shovels delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, which shovels shall be painted in accordance with specifications of the War Department or the Navy Department as the case may be. Any metal used in the construction of D handles may be given a protective coating, or the entire D may be so coated, but only so far along the stem as is necessary to cover any metal used in the construction of the D.

(6) Handle lifts. Each kind and size of hand shovel, spade, scoop, telegraph spoon, and snow shovels shall be manufactured with only one lift, which shall be in accordance with the individual manufacturer's present standard practice, except corrugated coal shovels, which may be made with lifts of 21, 17, 14, and 11 inches, and eastern pattern scoops, which may be made with lifts of 21 and 13 inches, also in low lift of approximately 10 inches.

Issued this 12th day of June 1944.

Recording Secretary.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Limitation Order L-232, as Amended June 12, 1944]

WOODEN SHIPPING CONTAINERS

§ 3270.56 Limitation Order L-232—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Wooden shipping container" means any new shipping container made wholly or partially of wood which is used for the shipment and delivery of commodities. The term does not include trunks, luggage, military locker boxes, field picking boxes, or boxes consisting of more than 50% of corrugated or solid fibre (by area). It shall not include a container, made by a container user for his own use from waste material referred to as edgings, trim and offall and excluded from the definition of lumber in Order L-335, or from second-hand lumber, Provided, It is not made in a box factory or wood-working establishment which sells its product to other users. Second-hand lumber is lumber which has been previously used, as in building construction, or as dunnage in bracing, blocking, or shoring, or in construction of shipping containers.

(2) "Restricted crop" means any fruit or vegetable listed in Table II of Schedule B.

General Restrictions

(b) Restrictions—(1) Manufacture, sale or delivery of containers. No person shall manufacture, sell or deliver any wooden shipping containers or parts which he knows or has reason to believe will be used or accepted in violation of any provision of this order.

(2) Manufacture and assembly of containers. No person shall commercially manufacture or assemble any wooden shipping container for the purposes described in the several tables of Schedule A, which does not meet the specifications contained in those tables. The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to barrels, drums, kegs, kits or pails.

(3) Manufacture of container parts. No person shall commercially manufacture any wooden parts designed for any wooden shipping container described in the several tables of Schedule A which, when assembled, will not conform with the specifications of those tables. The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to barrels, drums, kegs, kits or pails.

(4) Coloring. No manufacturer, dealer in, or commercial user of wooden shipping containers or parts shall dye, stain, or otherwise color containers or parts which are described in Schedule A. The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to barrels, drums, kegs, kits or pails.

(5) Printing. All stamping, printing and labeling, unless otherwise required by law, shall be placed on only one outside surface of any wooden shipping container covered by the several tables of Schedule A of this order, whether it be an end, a side, bottom, top or cover. The restrictions of this paragraph (b) (5) shall not apply to barrels, drums, kegs, kits or pails or to paper, labels or markings which only:

(i) State the capacity of the container in terms of whole or fractional pints, quarts, pecks, or bushels; or

(ii) in the case of baskets and hampers are identifying markings provided for in regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture issued under the United States Standard Container Act of 1928; or

(iii) are designed for the purpose of encouraging salvage and reuse of the container, provided the label or printing does not include the name, brand, trade-mark or other reference to any person, firm, partnership or corporation.

Restrictions on Packing and Shipping Commodities Other Than Restricted Crops

(c) Restrictions—(1) Commodities for which wooden shipping containers are forbidden. No person shall commercially pack or ship in wooden shipping containers any of the commodities listed in Table I of Schedule B. This shall not, however, restrict the shipment of any commodity listed which has already been packed on the date it was included in this table or the shipment of any listed commodity in wooden shipping containers which were in the shipper's inventory or in transit to him on the date it was included in this table, but only for a period of sixty days thereafter.

(2) Quota restriction on packing. Packers of a commodity listed in Table II of Schedule B, other than a restricted crop, are restricted in the quantity of that commodity which they may pack in wooden shipping containers in each calendar quarter to a percentage of the quantity that they packed in wooden shipping containers in the same quarter of the base period. The percentage and base period for each commodity are shown in the table.

Restrictions on Fruits and Vegetables Listed in Table II of Schedule B (hereafter called "Restricted Crops")

(d) Restrictions. (1) In the case of the restricted crops listed in Table II of Schedule B, no person shall, in any calendar year, commercially pack in wooden shipping containers a greater quantity of restricted crops than the total quantity of the designated quotas of each of the restricted crops that he packed in wooden shipping containers in 1942. After determining his quota of wooden shipping containers based on what he packed in 1942, he may use these containers to pack any of the restricted crops interchangeably.

(2) The restrictions of paragraph (d) shall not become effective until July 1, 1944 (except in the case of table and juice grapes), and the quotas for the second half of 1944 shall be based on the second half of 1942.

(3) It is the policy of the War Production Board that each grower of a restricted crop be allowed to market in wooden shipping containers the quantity of restricted crops contemplated by the quotas. Under this policy every packer, so far as practicable, should use his permitted quantity of wooden containers to pack the restricted crops of each of the growers for whom he packs without prejudice to any of them, provided they are prepared to meet current prices and terms. If this policy is not observed voluntarily, the War Production Board may issue specific directives to named packers, and failure to comply with these directives will be deemed a violation.

(4) A packer may not pack a greater quantity of restricted crops grown by him in wooden shipping containers than the total of the designated quotas of restricted crops grown by him and packed in wooden shipping containers in 1942.

(5) If a grower, who did not do his own packing in 1942, wants to do his own packing, he must notify the War Production Board by letter stating the name of the person who packed for him in 1942 and the quantity of each restricted crop packed in wooden shipping containers during that year. Such notice must be filed within ten days before a grower begins his packing. He may then pack a quantity of restricted crops in wooden shipping containers permitted by the quotas set up in the table, based upon the quantity of his restricted crops which were packed in wooden shipping containers in 1942. The War Production Board may then reduce the quota of the packer who packed for him in 1942 where such action seems necessary to keep the total consumption of wooden shipping containers down to the levels contemplated by this order.

Certification

(e) Certification for fruit and vegetable containers. On and after July 1, 1944, no person shall sell or deliver any new wooden shipping containers for the shipment of fruits and vegetables without obtaining a certificate from the purchaser. The certificate may be either the one set forth in paragraph (v) of Order P-140 (if the purchaser is using a rating to buy his containers) or the standard certificate provided for in paragraph (d) of Priorities Regulation No. 7. In case the former is used, the purchaser shall add the following words to the certification:

The undersigned, purchaser, further certifies that he is familiar with the provisions of Order L-232 and that the containers which he is buying will not be used in violation of the terms of that order.

If he uses the standard certification, he shall add the words, "Reference L-232."

Miscellaneous

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of appeal.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-232.

(i) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of paragraph (c) (3) has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 12th day of June 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

[1] The inside depth of this box may be increased up to 11½", either by the addition of cleats of any thickness or by the use of a solid end.

[2] The inside depth of this box may be increased up to 7⅛" by the addition of cleats of any thickness or by the use of a solid end.

[3] The inside depth of this box may be increased up to 5½" by the addition of cleats of any thickness or by the use of a solid end.

[4] Wherever an asterisk appears, cleats may be used for such items, as provided for in paragraph (e) of the text of Table II.

(a) The designation in column (1) of Table II is merely for identification and shall not be construed as restricting usage. 'Inside width' and 'Inside depth' of the container are the width and length, respectively, of the end pieces or end frames, exclusive of any cleats. 'Inside length' of the container shall be its outside length minus the combined thickness of both ends and of the center piece (if any).

(b) An optional variation of up to ⅛" under or up to ¼" over the specified inside lengths is allowed. A tolerance of up to ⅛", plus or minus, in the specified inside depths and inside width is allowed for shrinkage and manufacture.

(c) No cleats may be so used as to increase inside dimensions except where an asterisk appears in Column (1) of Table II or where, and as, specified in any footnote after that table. Where an asterisk appears in Column (1) of Table II, one or more cleats of ¼", ⅜", ½", ⅝", 11/16", or ¾" thickness may be attached to the top of each end piece, or end frame, provided such cleat or cleats do not increase the inside dimensions of the container by more than the specified thickness of the cleat or cleats.

(d) Exceptions. (1) The restrictions of paragraphs (b) (2), (3), (4) and (5) of this order and of this Table II shall not apply to:

(i) The manufacture or assembly of wooden shipping containers by any person from wooden parts cut to size by him before March 4, 1943; provided, such manufacture or assembly is completed by August 31, 1943;

(ii) The assembly of wooden shipping containers by any person from cut-to-size wooden parts bought and received by him before April 1, 1943; provided, such assembly is completed by August 31, 1943;

(2) The restrictions of this Table II shall not apply to the manufacture or assembly of wooden shipping containers, or the manufacture of wooden parts for wooden shipping containers, to be delivered:

(i) To or for the account of the Army, the Navy, the Coast Guard, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, or the Department of Agriculture (for Lend-Lease purposes), provided, the government agency's specifications require wooden shipping containers which do not comply with Table II.

(ii) To any person for use in packing fresh fruits or vegetables for delivery to or for the account of such government agencies; provided, the government agency's specifications require wooden shipping containers which do not comply with Table II; and provided further, such person furnishes the container or container-parts supplier with a written certification in substantially the following form, signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7;

"This is to certify that specifications of orders received by the undersigned from (designate government agency) require wooden containers not conforming with Order L-222. The material ordered herewith is for that purpose only.

Company_____
By_____ Title_____ Date_____"

Such certification shall constitute a representation to the supplier and to the War Production Board as to the truth of the facts stated therein. The supplier may rely upon such representation unless he has knowledge or reason to believe that it is not true.

PART 3292—AUTOMOTIVE VEHICLES, PARTS AND EQUIPMENT

JACKS, MECHANICAL, HYDRAULIC, AIR AND ELECTRICALLY OPERATED

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron, steel and other critical materials entering into the production of mechanical, hydraulic, air and electrically operated jacks for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3292.116 Limitation Order L-322—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture or assembly of mechanical, hydraulic, air or electrically operated jacks.

(3) "Jack" means any lifting, supporting, pulling, pushing, or bending device listed in Schedules A and B to this order.

(4) "Non-military production" means any mechanical, hydraulic, air or electrically operated jacks produced or assembled except under contracts or orders for delivery to the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(5) "Capacity" means load-raising ability of the jacks, measured at the head or cap, through the entire working range from minimum to maximum height. This definition does not apply to "wheel type service or shop jacks" or "transmission jacks".

(b) Restriction on production. On and after November 15, 1943, no producer shall manufacture or assemble any jack except of a model, size, and capacity listed in Schedules A and B of this order.

(c) Restriction on distribution. Notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation Number 1, commencing with the month of November, 1943, and each month thereafter, each producer shall retain, for delivery against orders rated on Form WPB–547, a minimum of twenty-five (25) percent of the number of 3, 5, 8, 12, and 20-ton capacity hydraulic self-contained (hand operated) jacks manufactured or assembled by him in non-military production.

(1) In the event that in any month a producer's orders rated on Form WPB–547, do not equal twenty-five (25) percent of his non-military production of 3, 5, 8, 12, and 20-ton capacity hydraulic self-contained (hand operated) jacks, he may deliver the balance of his non-military production, not covered by such orders, against other orders.

(d) Restriction on sales. On and after November 15, 1943, no producer shall sell, transfer, or deliver, to any person any jacks listed in Schedule A or B to this order, except pursuant to orders bearing preference ratings of AA–5 or higher. The provisions of this paragraph (d) shall not apply to repair parts for mechanical, hydraulic, air or electrically operated jacks.

(e) Exceptions to applicability of this order. The terms and restrictions of paragraph (b) of this order shall not apply, until February 1, 1944, to jacks produced under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing Form WPB–1477 in triplicate with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates, stating therein the information called for.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time, except as stipulated in paragraph (c).

(i) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Automotive Division, Washington 25, D. C., reference: L–322.

Issued this 12th day of June 1944.

(2) "Dealer" means any person who buys primary chromium chemicals for the purpose of resale as such.

(3) "Consumer" means any person who uses primary chromium chemicals.

(b) Delivery restrictions. On or after October 1, 1943, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of primary chromium chemicals except as specifically authorized in writing by War Production Board.

(c) Exception for small quantities. Specific authorization in writing of War Production Board is not required for:

(1) Any person to accept delivery in any calendar month from all sources of an aggregate quantity of primary chromium chemicals not exceeding the following:

(i) 4,000 pounds of sodium bichromate or its equivalent in chromium tanning compounds, and

(ii) 500 pounds of each of the following: sodium chromate, potassium bichromate, potassium chromate and ammonium bichromate, and

(iii) 100 pounds of chromic acid:

Provided, however, That no person shall in any calendar month under this paragraph (c) (1) accept delivery of more than 100 pounds of any primary chromium chemical unless he has submitted to each supplier a certificate substantially in one of the following forms (whichever is appropriate), signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Consumer's Certification

The undersigned hereby certifies to War Production Board that he is familiar with Order M–18–b and that acceptance of delivery of the chromium chemicals listed on his purchase order dated * * * will not increase (1) his total receipts during the calendar month in which delivery is requested in excess of the amounts he is entitled to receive under paragraph (c), and (2) his inventory of such chemicals in excess of one-third of his total consumption of such chemicals during the previous ninety days.

Dealer's Certification

The undersigned hereby certifies to War Production Board that he is familiar with Supplementary Order M–18–b and that acceptance of delivery of the chromium chemicals listed on the purchase order dated ---------- will not increase (1) his total receipts during the calendar month in which delivery is requested in excess of the amounts he is entitled to receive under paragraph (c), and (2) his inventory of such chemicals in excess of one-sixth of his total sales of such chemicals by weight during the previous 180 days.

APPENDIX A—INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING FORM WPB 2945[1] (FORMERLY PD-600)

CONSUMERS

1. Copies may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.
2. Follow the general instructions on the form except where they conflict with specific instructions contained here.
3. A separate form should be filed for (a) each consuming plant where delivery is to be made; (b) each supplier from whom the purchase will be made; (c) each primary chromium chemical requested.
4. Column 3. Do not fill in.
5. Column 4. Indicate specifically the use of the primary chromium chemical requested. Use classifications of primary chromium chemicals should be indicated as follows:
   a. Tanning.
   b. Pigment manufacture.
   c. Chromic acid manufacture.
   d. Surface treatments of metals.
   e. Chromium plating.
   f. Textile processing.
   g. Chemical and dye manufacture.
   h. Corrosion prevention in brines, etc.
   i. Metal alloys.
   j. Other (specify).

   Opposite each use classification show the amount required for military, Lend-Lease, civilian, export, other (specify).

   Thus, if 100 pounds sodium bichromate are needed for tanning leather of which 50 per cent is for the Army and 50 per cent for civilian needs, the use classification would be "tanning—50 per cent military, 50 per cent civilian." "Military" means that the particular primary chromium chemicals are to be incorporated into products to be delivered to the Army, Navy, Coast Guard or Maritime Commission.
6. Table IV. (Back page) Columns 20, 21, 22. Do not fill in.

DEALERS

7. Form WPB 2945 should be filed for their requirements of primary chromium chemicals. Indicate the total amount needed for ultimate delivery to consumers who have filed Form WPB 2945. Dealer should also show the total amount of each chromium chemical requested by him for ultimate delivery to consumers under the "Small order exception" provision of this Order M-18-b as well as the amount requested by them for inventory purposes. Thus the dealer should break down his request for each primary chromium chemical which he needs into three separate groups. No break down by use classification is required. In addition to the filing of this Form WPB 2945, the dealer is also obliged to file Form WPB 2946. (See instructions below).
8. Foreign shipments other than Lend-Lease: Form WPB 2945 may be submitted by the exporter on behalf of the foreign purchaser. The form should show the country of destination, the proposed use, and name and location of foreign purchaser.

APPENDIX B—INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING FORM WPB-2946 (FORMERLY PD-601)

SUPPLIERS

1. Copies may be obtained at local field offices of War Production Board.
2. Suppliers should file separate forms for each plant or warehouse from which deliveries are to be made. It is not necessary to file a separate form for each primary chromium chemical. However, the particular primary chromium chemical scheduled for delivery to customers should be designated in Column 3.
3. Follow general instructions on form except where they conflict with the specific instructions contained herein.
4. Show the total amount of each primary chromium chemical scheduled for shipment in exempted quantities.

[1] Form WPB 2945 and WPB 2946 have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[General Allocation Order M-300, Schedule 26]

ACETIC ACID, ACETIC ANHYDRIDE AND ACETALDEHYDE

§ 3293.1026 Schedule 26 to General Allocation Order M-300—(a) Definitions. (1) "Acetic acid" means acetic acid (ethanoic acid) of any grade and from whatever source derived, including recovered acetic acid. The term does not include acetic acid recirculated as such within a manufacturing process nor does it include acetic acid of less than 12 per cent concentration (vinegar) produced at plants at which there are no facilities for further chemical conversion.

(2) "Recovered acetic acid" means that acid which is removed from a manufacturing process for resale, conversion into acetic anhydride, or use in another manufacturing process in the same plant or separate plants. The term does not include acetic acid which is recirculated as such within the same manufacturing process.

(3) "Acetic anhydride" means acetic anhydride (ethanoic anhydride) of any grade and from whatever source derived.

(4) "Acetaldehyde" means acetaldehyde (acetic aldehyde or ethyl aldehyde) of any grade and from whatever source derived.

(b) General provisions. Acetic acid, acetic anhydride and acetaldehyde are subject to the provisions of General Allocation Order M-300, as Appendix C materials. The initial allocation date for acetic anhydride is November 1, 1942, and September 1, 1943 for acetic acid and acetaldehyde, the respective dates when those materials became subject to Order M-243 (revoked). The allocation period is the calendar month. The small order exemption per person per month for each of the chemicals is as follows:

Acetic acid_____ 2250 pounds (100% basis).
Acetic anhydride_ 1920 pounds.
Acetaldehyde____ 1950 pounds.

(c) Special provisions. (1) Use, delivery and acceptance of delivery of these materials prior to July 1, 1944, will be authorized on the basis of applications filed in the form heretofore prescribed in Order M-243 (revoked).

(2) Persons ordering more than the small order exemption but not more than 27,000 pounds of any one of the three chemicals, for delivery in any calendar month, must furnish their suppliers with the use certificate referred to in paragraph (i) of Order M-300. Persons ordering more than 27,000 pounds in the aggregate of any of the three chemicals must obtain authorization to do so on Form WPB-2945.

(3) The requirements of this schedule do apply, notwithstanding paragraph (r) of Order M-300, to the importation of acetic acid, acetic anhydride, and acetaldehyde into the United States, acceptance of delivery by the consignee, and delivery by such consignee to, and acceptance by, any person who purchased or contracted to purchase the material prior to its importation.

(d) Suppliers' applications on Form WPB-2947. No supplier may deliver acetic acid, acetic anhydride or acetaldehyde without first filing Form WPB-2947 for authorization to do so. However, any supplier may, without authorization, deliver, but not export, a total amount not to exceed 5,000 pounds of each of the chemicals, viz. acetic acid (100% basis), acetic anhydride or acetaldehyde, in any calendar month. The filing date is the 20th of the month preceding the proposed delivery month. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-26. The unit of measure is pounds, and in the case of acetic acid, weight is to be calculated on a 100 percent acid basis. File a separate set of forms for each of the three chemicals. In Table I, Column 1, the supplier shall list the customers who have filed Form WPB-2945 with him, and in Column 1-a, the supplier shall specify "WPB-2945". Next in order, the supplier shall list the customers who have filed use certificates with him, and in Column 1-a describe the uses stated in the certificates. If the supplier wishes to make any small order deliveries he shall specify in Column 1 "Aggregate small order deliveries" and leave the space opposite in Column 1-a blank; however, this is not necessary if the supplier does not deliver more than 5,000 pounds of each of the three chemicals in any calendar month.

Do not fill in blanks relating to rolling stock requirements.

A supplier who is not a producer and purchases for resale only, shall only fill in Columns 10, 12 and 13 of Table II. Inventory of the chemicals (acetic acid, acetic anhydride and acetaldehyde) previously allocated for the supplier's own manufacturing use, should not be reported on Form WPB-2947, but should be reported in Table II of Form WPB-2945.

(e) Customers' applications on Form WPB-2945. Each person desiring to accept delivery of any of the three chemicals in any calendar month in excess of 27,000 pounds, shall file applications for authorization on Form WPB-2945. The filing date is the 15th of the month preceding the month for which allocation is requested. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-26, one copy (reverse side left blank) to the supplier, and retain

[General Allocation Order M-300, Schedule 29]

AMMONIUM SILICOFLUORIDE

§ 3293.1029 Schedule 29 to General Allocation Order M-300—(a) Definitions. (1) "Ammonium silicofluoride" means the chemical known by that name and also as ammonium fluosilicate. The term includes mixtures of ammonium silicofluoride with other ingredients such as sand casting compounds.

(2) "Metal caster" means a person engaged in the casting of metals such as magnesium and aluminum.

(b) General provisions. (1) Ammonium silicofluoride is subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M-300 as an Appendix B material. The initial allocation date is July 1, 1944, and the allocation period is the calendar month.

(2) Metal casters seeking to purchase ammonium silicofluoride or casting compounds containing ammonium silicofluoride must file a certificate with their purchase orders stating that the material is required for "aluminum casting", "magnesium casting", or other specified metal casting. In addition, metal casters must file a one time base period and inventory report on Form WPB-3442 pursuant to paragraph (e).

(3) Consumers seeking to purchase and use ammonium silicofluoride for any purpose other than metal casting are not required to obtain authorization or to file anything under this Schedule, notwithstanding paragraph (x) of Order M-300.

(4) Suppliers seeking to purchase ammonium silicofluoride for resale must file a certificate with their purchase orders. This is required whether the ammonium silicofluoride is bought and resold as such or in mixed form, except that a certificate is not required from a supplier seeking to purchase ammonium silicofluoride, packaged for retail sale and labeled as a moth-proofing compound or laundry sour or laboratory reagent chemical. The supplier's certificate must either state that the ammonium silicofluoride is required "for resale exclusively for non-metal casting purposes" or that it is required "for resale on further authorization".

(5) A supplier (unless he is a producer) is not required to apply on Form WPB-2947 or to obtain specific authorization for sale of ammonium silicofluoride exclusively to consumers other than metal casters (such as laundries or moth-proofing manufacturers) or to suppliers who sell exclusively for non-metal casting purposes, notwithstanding paragraphs (d) and (e) of Order M-300.

(6) A supplier who sells ammonium silicofluoride for metal casting purposes, whether or not he also sells it for other purposes, and each producer is required to file application on Form WPB-2947 pursuant to paragraph (c) for authorization to deliver after July 1, 1944, ammonium silicofluoride or any mixtures containing ammonium silicofluoride.

(7) Authorized deliveries to customers named individually on the supplier's form shall be made in a sequence best suited to the needs of the customers, without regard to preference ratings. Other authorized deliveries shall be made in the sequence determined by War Production Board regulations.

(c) Suppliers' applications on Form WPB-2947. Each supplier seeking authorization to use or deliver ammonium silicofluoride wholly or partly for metal casting purposes, and each producer seeking authorization to use or deliver for any purpose, shall file application on Form WPB-2947 (formerly PD-602). List individually all customers whose certified use is for metal casting or for resale on further authorization. All other requests shall be lumped and shall be entered as a total requested for "non-metal casting purposes". The filing date is the 20th day of the month before the proposed delivery month. File separate sets of forms for ammonium silicofluoride as such and in mixtures (specify ammonium silicofluoride content in the grade space). Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-29. The unit of measure is the pound (total weight in case of mixtures). Fill in Table II.

(d) Customers' certificate of use. Each metal caster and each direct or indirect supplier of metal casters ordering ammonium silicofluoride shall furnish with or on his purchase order a certified statement of proposed use, in the form prescribed in Appendix D of General Allocation Order M-300. The certified statement should be in the hands of the supplier not later than the 15th day of the month before the requested delivery month. Specify as the proposed use "Aluminum casting", "Magnesium casting" or other specified metal casting, or "Resale on further authorization".

(e) One time report on use and inventory—(1) Who must file. Each metal caster shall file a one time use and inventory report on Form WPB-3442, on or before the date of his initial filing of a use certificate pursuant to paragraph (d) above. Separate sets of forms shall be prepared for ammonium silicofluoride as such and in the form of mixtures. A caster who purchases ammonium silicofluoride for use in a mixture should file only for the ammonium silicofluoride. Retain one copy and send one certified copy of each set to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-29.

(2) Heading. Specify in space (1) ammonium silicofluoride as such or ammonium silicofluoride in mixture (specify ammonium silicofluoride content or suppliers' designation), in space (2) specify "pounds", and in space (3) specify "M-300-29." Fill in the other spaces as indicated.

(3) Section I. Fill in Column (a) as indicated and leave Column (b) blank. In the heading of Columns (d), (e), (f) and (g) specify 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th quarters, 1944, respectively. Fill in these columns accordingly, including the bottom line of section I, giving estimates for the 2d, 3d and 4th quarters of 1944.

[MPR 136, as Amended,[1] Amdt. 117]

MACHINES AND PARTS, AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended, is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1390.11 (c) (2) is amended by adding an undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the maximum price for a motor grader, crawler tractor, shovel, dragline, crane and backhoe may equal the following percentages of new base price in relation to the year in which the equipment was manufactured:

Year of Manufacture:	Percentage
1943	80
1942	75
1941	70

2. A new § 1390.11 (f) (2) (iv) is added to read as follows:

(iv) To the maximum price of a second-hand motor grader, crawler tractor, shovel, dragline, crane and backhoe, which is sold as "rebuilt-and-guaranteed", and which was purchased solely for the purpose of rebuilding and sale, there may also be added in the manner above provided the actual cost paid by the seller for transportation of the equipment from the point of his acquisition of the equipment to the place where it was rebuilt.

This amendment shall become effective June 14, 1944.

PART 1439—UNPROCESSED AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES FOR TABLE USE, SALES EXCEPT AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. Appendix J is added to section 15, Article III to read as follows:

APPENDIX J—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN DECIDUOUS TREE FRUITS

(a) Explanation. This appendix establishes maximum prices for the following deciduous tree fruits:

Sweet cherries (all varieties)
Apricots(all varieties)
Plums (all varieties including fresh prunes, except fresh Italian prunes)
Fresh Italian prunes (all varieties).

It applies to every seller of the listed deciduous tree fruits, including growers, grower-distributors, buyer-distributors, carlot distributors, primary receivers, secondary jobbers, service wholesalers and all other sellers except retailers.

Specifically, the appendix:

(1) Establishes maximum prices f. o. b. shipping point for sales made f. o. b. shipping point, and designates basing points from which to figure maximum prices for sales made on a delivered basis.

(2) Establishes maximum prices for sales direct and through certain named agents by all persons other than retailers.

(3) Establishes maximum prices for sales to retail stores, government procurement agencies and institutional buyers.

Each of the listed deciduous tree fruits is covered by a separate table (see paragraph (d)). Special provisions applicable to any one kind of deciduous tree fruit will be found in footnotes to the applicable table. Provisions applicable to all listed deciduous tree fruits are to be found in the paragraphs following the tables. The maximum mark-ups which may be added to the applicable f. o. b. or delivered maximum price, as the case may be, for certain sales common to all the listed deciduous tree fruits, are set forth in Tables A and B (see paragraph (e)). Table A names the mark-ups for sales by growers through agents and for sales by other primary sellers direct or through agents. Table B names the mark-ups for sales by persons other than primary sellers.

Any sale by a primary seller of deciduous tree fruits shipped by him by mail or express to an ultimate consumer in a lot of five containers or less (not larger than "standard" containers) is exempt from this regulation. However, this exemption does not apply to sales by sellers other than primary sellers.

The Office of Price Administration reserves the right to change any basing point named in this appendix at any time or to establish new or additional basing points without changing the maximum price f. o. b. country shipping point.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Standard container" means any container listed in Column 2 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) which is closed and contains a net weight within the weight ranges specified for that container.

(2) "Shipping point" means the place in or near the producing area where the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced is prepared for shipment and first loaded on cars for rail shipment or on trucks for truck shipment.

Example: Suppose pears are packed at a packing plant at Lakeport, California, and that the nearest point for rail shipment is Yuba City, California, and that the pears must therefore be transported from Lakeport to Yuba City by truck. The country shipping point in this case will be Yuba City, California, and the maximum prices established for pears f. o. b. shipping point will apply at Yuba City. The cost of transportation from Lakeport, California to Yuba City, California, must be borne by the seller. If, however, the pears are destined for a terminal market by truck shipment, for example to Los Angeles, California, the shipping point in such case will be Lakeport, California.

(3) "Primary seller" means the first person including a grower, grower-distributor, buyer-distributor, or growers' cooperative who prepares the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced for shipment and who sells it from a "shipping point" on an f. o. b. or delivered basis. A person who owns and has the fruit prepared for him for shipment from the shipping point is a primary seller.

(4) "Graded and packed" means graded and packed in accordance with the requirements of the applicable State Agricultural Code.

(c) Weight markings and price calculations. (1) Before sale, every seller shall clearly mark a net weight on every unmarked container. In the case of a standard container, the seller shall mark a minimum net weight which may be lower, but in no case higher, than the actual weight. In the case of other containers, the seller shall mark the actual net weight on the container. However, marking requirements do not apply to open containers.

The weight requirements provided in this appendix are based on weights existing at the time of shipment from the shipping point, in the case of closed containers, and at the time of sale, in the case of open containers. All weighing and marking shall be done according to the weighing and marking requirements of the applicable State Agricultural Code. (Section 14a(a) does not apply to this appendix.)

(2) Every seller who sells a container upon which a net weight has not theretofore been marked by a prior seller or who sells an open container, shall figure his maximum price on the basis of the actual net weight of the contents. Every seller who sells a container (other than an open container) upon which a net weight has theretofore been marked by a prior seller shall figure his maximum price on the basis of the net weight marked on the container.

Some sellers of standard containers may not wish to weigh each container before marking and selling it. In recognition of this, weight ranges have been provided, for standard containers, within which maximum prices do not vary. However, a seller who sells without weighing all containers takes the risk that the estimated minimum net weight may exceed the actual net weight, which would be a violation of the regulation. Subsequent sellers, however, may rely on the minimum net weight marked on the container and figure their maximum prices on the basis of it.

A seller obtains his maximum price first by determining whether the net weight of the container being priced falls within any of the weight ranges established by the appendix for that type of container. If the net weight falls within an applicable weight range, the maximum price named in the price table for that container is on a container basis and it applies to all weights within that range. On the other hand, if the net weight falls outside the applicable weight ranges, the maximum price is figured by the seller on a straight per-pound basis. (In the latter case, the container is not a "standard container" and the seller will therefore be required to figure a maximum price for it on the basis of actual net weight.)

(d) Maximum price tables applicable to individual deciduous tree fruits. The following tables state maximum prices for certain sales of deciduous tree fruits by all sellers, except sellers at retail. (For other transactions by these sellers see Tables A and B in paragraph (e) and the provisions of paragraphs (f), (g) and (k)).

Except as specified for bulk sales, and "on the tree" sales, the maximum prices named in the following tables include all costs of harvesting, hauling, packing, precooling, loading and inspection, and no additional charge may be made for containers or for any other materials furnished or services rendered.

Although f. o. b. shipping point maximum prices are named only for listed deciduous tree fruits shipped from certain states (see Column 5 of the applicable table in each case), all listed fruits are subject to the maximum prices named in columns 6 and 7 of the following tables, regardless of where produced or shipped.

(f) Provisions applicable to primary sellers—(1) Prohibition against certain payments. No primary seller shall receive, and no person shall pay to any primary seller, an amount in excess of the applicable maximum price f. o. b. shipping point, if sold f. o. b., or the applicable maximum price for delivered sales, if sold delivered, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)), regardless of the type of sale or the type of purchaser, and regardless of any existing or future commitment between the buyer and seller except for allowances made to grower-distributors, buyer-distributors, and to growers and primary sellers for sales through certain named agents, and except as provided for shipments of not more than five containers in paragraph (a), and except as provided for sales by growers delivered to the premises of retail stores, institutional buyers and designated depots of government procurement agencies, and except as provided for sales to ultimate consumers.

No person who does not pack and ship the fruit being priced, and who does not regularly operate a packing and shipping plant for that commodity, shall purchase deciduous tree fruits "on the tree" or in bulk at a price, which, after the costs of harvesting, hauling, packing, precooling, and loading have been added, results in a price higher than the maximum f. o. b. shipping point price listed in the applicable table of paragraph (d).

Example: Suppose an intermediate seller or a retailer wishes to buy an unharvested crop of plums from a grower. The amount which he pays the grower for the plums plus the cost of harvesting, hauling, packing, precooling and loading may not exceed the maximum price f. o. b. shipping point for plums in the kind of container in which they are being sold, as set forth in the table for plums in paragraph (d). If the plums are purchased already packed, but not precooled or loaded on cars, the price paid for the packed plums plus the cost of precooling and loading must likewise not exceed the maximum price f. o. b. shipping point for plums in such containers.

(2) Sales by growers direct and through brokers, commission merchants or terminal auctions. (i) For direct sales of deciduous tree fruits in any quantity by growers, the maximum price in each case is the maximum price f. o. b. shipping point or the maximum delivered price, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)).

(ii) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in any quantity by growers through brokers, or sales in carlots or truckiots through commission merchants, the maximum price in each case is the maximum price f. o. b. shipping point or the maximum delivered price, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)) plus the markup named in Column 4 of Table A in paragraph (e), regardless of the actual charge made by the broker or commission merchant. (The broker or commission merchant may not receive for his services more than the commission or fee allowed under Maximum Price Regulation 165[1]).

(iii) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots by growers through commission merchants, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum commission or fee which such commission merchant may charge under Maximum Price Regulation 165) or the applicable markup (for ex car or ex store sales, as the case may be, named in Column 5 or 6 of Table A in paragraph (e)), whichever is lower.

Example: A grower sells less than a carlot of California apricots in Brentwood lugs, each with a minimum net weight of 24 pounds (standard containers), through a commission merchant. Assume that the maximum price for that Brentwood lug of California apricots delivered in Chicago, Illinois, is $3.06 per lug. Assume the commission merchant is selling ex store, and that his actual fee (and his maximum fee under Maximum Price Regulation 165) is 7% of the selling price or 23 cents per Brentwood lug. The maximum mark-up for sales ex store by growers through commission merchants in less-than-carlots named in Column 6 of Table A is 38 cents per Brentwood lug. The maximum price for sales in less-than-carlots by the grower through the commission merchant is therefore $3.06 plus 23 cents, or $3.31 per lug. In this example the 7% charged by the commission merchant, or 23 cents, is less than the 38 cents named in Column 6 of Table A, and therefore is to be used by this particular commission merchant in determining his maximum price.

(iv) For sales of deciduous tree fruits by growers through a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus (1) the markup named in Column 7 of Table A in paragraph (e), or the sum of (i) the markup named in Column 4 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (ii) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which such commission merchant may charge under MPR 165), whichever is lower, and (2) any unloading charges in the terminal market incurred by the seller.

(v) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots by grower-distributors or buyer-distributors through commission merchants, or by any persons (including growers) through growers' sales agents who use a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus (1) the markup named in Column 9 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (ii) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which the auction company may charge under MPR 165), whichever is lower, and (2) any unloading charges in the terminal market incurred by the seller.

(vi) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots by grower-distributors or buyer-distributors through commission merchants, or by any persons (including growers) through growers' sales agents who use a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of Table A in paragraph (d) plus the applicable markup (for ex car or ex store sales, as the case may be) named in Columns 11 and 12 of Table A in paragraph (e), or the sum of (1) the markup named in Column 8 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (2) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which such commission merchant may charge under MPR 165), whichever is lower.

(g) Maximum prices for sales by persons other than primary sellers—(1) Sales in unbroken carlots or truckiots. If any person other than a primary seller purchases and resells unbroken carlots or truckiots of deciduous tree fruits, the maximum price in each such case shall be the maximum f. o. b. shipping point or delivered price, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)), plus the markup named in Column 4 of Table B in paragraph (e).

(2) Sales by primary receivers in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots. (i) For sales by "primary receivers" of deciduous tree fruits ex car, ex truck, ex dock, or ex terminal sales platform, at a terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, the maximum price in each case shall be the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 5 of Table B in paragraph (e).

(ii) If a primary receiver breaks a car or truck unloads the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced into a store or warehouse owned or leased in whole or in part by him, and makes sales ex store or ex warehouse, the maximum price in each case shall be the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 6 of Table B in paragraph (e). This price does not include delivery charges. If the primary receiver makes delivery, he may also add the amount which the appropriate regional or district office determines to be applicable for deliveries in these cases (see paragraph (i)).

(iii) If a primary receiver makes a delivered sale to the premises of a purchaser within the free delivery zone, without first unloading the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced into a store or warehouse owned or leased by him, the maximum price shall be the maximum delivered price for ex car, ex truck, ex dock, or ex terminal sales platform sales plus the amount which the appropriate regional or district office determines to be applicable to such sales (see paragraph (i)), for "primary receiver" means a person who (1) on his own account and profit buys the deciduous tree fruit being priced (1) in unbroken carlots or truckiots from any person or (2) in any quantity from a primary seller selling either direct or through auction or through any agent (except a commission merchant)

whatever is lower, and (2) any unloading charges in the terminal market incurred by the seller.

(3) For sales of deciduous tree fruits by growers delivered directly from the grower's orchard, or place of business at the shipping point in a truck owned by him (and not furnished, owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the buyer) to the premises of institutional buyers, designated depots of government procurement agencies or retail stores where resale is made to ultimate consumer, the maximum price in each case is the price named in Column 7 of the applicable table in paragraph (d).

A sale of deciduous tree fruit, delivered directly from the shipping point in a truck owned by another grower and transporting the deciduous tree fruit of that grower and fruit of not more than three other growers, to the premises of institutional buyers, designated depots of government procurement agencies or retail stores where resale is made to ultimate consumers shall be priced as a sale by a grower "in a truck owned by the grower."

(4) For sales by growers of deciduous tree fruits to ultimate consumers the maximum price in each case is the price named in Column 7 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) multiplied by 1.25. However, such price shall not exceed any applicable community price where established by the Office of Price Administration.

"Broker" means a person other than a grower's sales agent or a commission merchant who, for a commission or fee, represents his principal in the sale of the deciduous tree fruit being priced.

"Commission merchant" means a seller's agent, other than a grower's sales agent or a broker, who receives the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced, and who, for a commission or fee, sells it in any quantity in a terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, and who, in the case of less-than-carlot or less-than-truckiot sales, performs the wholesale functions of unloading the fruit from the car or truck in which it is received. "Commission" or "fee" means the charge made by an agent for services performed in connection with the sale of deciduous tree fruits.

"Terminal auction" means a place in a terminal market, open to any seller and to any buyer who has established credit with the "auction company" or who pays cash, where, on the basis of competitive bidding, the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced is sold in less-than-carlot or less-than-truckiot quantities by persons operating through a public licensed sales organization known as an "Auction Company", for whose service a fee is charged.

"Ultimate consumer" means a person who buys the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced for direct consumption. However, as used in this appendix, the term does not include a commercial, industrial, institutional or government procurement agency.

(5) Sales by grower-distributors, buyer-distributors, and by any persons (including growers), through growers' sales agents. (i) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in any quantity by (1) grower-distributors, (2) buyer-distributors or (3) any persons (including growers) through growers' sales agents, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)) plus the markup named in Column 8 of Table A in paragraph (e). (The grower's sales agent may not receive for his services more than the fee or commission allowed him under Maximum Price Regulation 165).

Example: A grower of cherries in Wenatchee, Washington, employs a grower's sales agent to make a delivered sale in Chicago, Illinois. The maximum price is the price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 6 of Table A in paragraph (e), even though the lawful charge received for this service by the grower's sales agent is less than the markup named.

"Grower-distributor" means a person (1) who grows the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced, (2) who assembles, packs or otherwise prepares such fruit for shipment, (3) who sells it on his own behalf and arranges for shipment and ships from shipping point to wholesale receiving point, (4) who sells through brokers or salaried representatives or who sells direct to intermediate sellers on a delivered basis, and (5) who does not make more than 50% (by volume) of his sales to any one person other than to government procurement agencies during the 1944 season. A person who would be a "grower-distributor" but for the fact that he does not meet requirement (5) shall be considered a "grower".

"Buyer-distributor" means a person (1) who purchases the deciduous fruit being priced before it is loaded on cars or trucks, or assembles, packs or otherwise prepares such fruit for shipment and (2) who sells it on his own behalf and (3) who arranges for shipment and ships from shipping point to wholesale receiving point and (4) who sells through brokers or salaried representatives, or who sells direct to intermediate sellers on a delivered basis and (5) who does not make more than 50% (by volume) of his sales to any one person other than to government procurement agencies during the 1944 season. A person who would be a "buyer-distributor" but for the fact that he does not meet requirement (5) shall be priced as if he were a "grower".

"Grower's sales agent" means a person (including a grower's cooperative) other than a broker or commission merchant (1) who receives the deciduous tree fruit being priced from another, (2) who for a commission or fee sells it for the account of such person after the fruit has been graded, packed, or otherwise prepared for shipment and (3) who regularly uses brokers or maintains salaried representatives in terminal markets through whom sales are made.

"Growers' cooperative" means a non-profit agricultural marketing association, regularly marketing the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced, which is organized under state law and in conformity with the Capper-Volstead Act.

(ii) For sales of deciduous tree fruit by (1) grower-distributors or (2) buyer-distributors or (3) any person (including growers) through growers' sales agents, who in carlot or truckiot sales use brokers, salaried representatives or commission merchants and in less than carlot or truckiot sales use brokers or salaried representatives, the maximum price in each case is the maximum price f. o. b. shipping point or the maximum delivered price, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)), plus the markup named in Column 9 of Table A in paragraph (e). (The grower's sales agent, the broker, or the commission merchant may not receive for his services more than the fee or commission allowed under MPR 165).

Example: Suppose a grower of cherries in Wenatchee, Washington employs a grower's sales agent to make a delivered sale to a buyer in Boston, Massachusetts. The grower's sales agent uses a broker in making the sale. The maximum price is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 9 of Table A in paragraph (e), even though the lawful charge received for services by the grower's sales agent and the broker are less than the markup named.

(iii) For sales of deciduous tree fruits by grower-distributors or buyer-distributors through a terminal auction, or by any persons (including growers) through growers' sales agents who use a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 6 of Table A in paragraph (e), even though the lawful charge received for this service by the grower's sales agent is less than the markup named.

(iv) For sales of deciduous tree fruits by growers through commission merchants in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus (1) the markup named in Column 7 of Table A in paragraph (e), or the sum of (i) the markup named in Column 4 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (ii) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which such commission merchant may charge under Maximum Price Regulation 165) or the applicable markup (for ex car or ex store sales, as the case may be, named in Column 5 or 6 of Table A in paragraph (e)), whichever is lower.

Example: A grower sells less than a carlot of California apricots in Brentwood lugs, each with a minimum net weight of 24 pounds (standard containers), through a commission merchant. Assume that the maximum price for that Brentwood lug of California apricots delivered in Chicago, Illinois, is $3.06 per lug. Assume the commission merchant is selling ex store, and that his actual fee (and his maximum fee under Maximum Price Regulation 165) is 7% of the selling price or 23 cents per Brentwood lug. The maximum mark-up for sales ex store by growers through commission merchants in less-than-carlots named in Column 6 of Table A is 38 cents per Brentwood lug. The maximum price for sales in less-than-carlots by the grower through the commission merchant is therefore $3.06 plus 23 cents, or $3.31 per lug. In this example the 7% charged by the commission merchant, or 23 cents, is less than the 38 cents named in Column 6 of Table A, and therefore is to be used by this particular commission merchant in determining his maximum price.

(iv) For sales of deciduous tree fruits by growers through a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus (1) the markup named in Column 7 of Table A in paragraph (e), or the sum of (i) the markup named in Column 4 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (ii) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which the auction company may charge under MPR 165), whichever is lower, and (2) any unloading charges in the terminal market incurred by the seller.

(v) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots by grower-distributors or buyer-distributors through commission merchants, or by any persons (including growers) through growers' sales agents who use a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus (1) the markup named in Column 9 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (ii) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which the auction company may charge under MPR 165), whichever is lower, and (2) any unloading charges in the terminal market incurred by the seller.

(vi) For sales of deciduous tree fruits in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots by grower-distributors or buyer-distributors through commission merchants, or by any persons (including growers) through growers' sales agents who use a terminal auction, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of Table A in paragraph (d) plus the applicable markup (for ex car or ex store sales, as the case may be) named in Columns 11 and 12 of Table A in paragraph (e), or the sum of (1) the markup named in Column 8 of Table A in paragraph (e) and (2) the actual commission or fee charged for the particular sale (not to exceed the maximum allowable commission or fee which such commission merchant may charge under MPR 165), whichever is lower.

(g) Maximum prices for sales by persons other than primary sellers—(1) Sales in unbroken carlots or truckiots. If any person other than a primary seller purchases and resells unbroken carlots or truckiots of deciduous tree fruits, the maximum price in each such case shall be the maximum f. o. b. shipping point or delivered price, as the case may be (see Column 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d)), plus the markup named in Column 4 of Table B in paragraph (e).

(2) Sales by primary receivers in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots. (i) For sales by "primary receivers" of deciduous tree fruits ex car, ex truck, ex dock, or ex terminal sales platform, at a terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, the maximum price in each case shall be the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 5 of Table B in paragraph (e).

(ii) If a primary receiver breaks a car or truck unloads the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced into a store or warehouse owned or leased in whole or in part by him, and makes sales ex store or ex warehouse, the maximum price in each case shall be the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 6 of Table B in paragraph (e). This price does not include delivery charges. If the primary receiver makes delivery, he may also add the amount which the appropriate regional or district office determines to be applicable for deliveries in these cases (see paragraph (i)).

(iii) If a primary receiver makes a delivered sale to the premises of a purchaser within the free delivery zone, without first unloading the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced into a store or warehouse owned or leased by him, the maximum price shall be the maximum delivered price for ex car, ex truck, ex dock, or ex terminal sales platform sales plus the amount which the appropriate regional or district office determines to be applicable to such sales (see paragraph (i)), for "primary receiver" means a person who (1) on his own account and profit buys the deciduous tree fruit being priced (1) in unbroken carlots or truckiots from any person or (2) in any quantity from a primary seller selling either direct or through auction or through any agent (except a commission merchant) in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots), for resale in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots to persons other than ultimate consumers.

(3) Sales through terminal auctions. For sales of deciduous tree fruits through a terminal auction, by persons other than primary sellers, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus (1) the markup named in Column 5 of Table B in paragraph (e) and (2) any unloading charges in the terminal market incurred by the seller.

(4) Sales by secondary jobbers. (i) For sales by secondary jobbers of deciduous tree fruits on a "delivered" basis, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 7 of Table B in paragraph (e). "Delivered" means delivered to the buyer's premises (in the case of a retailer, delivered to the retail store where resale is made to ultimate consumers) within the free delivery zone.

(ii) For sales by secondary jobbers of deciduous tree fruits not on a "delivered" basis, the maximum price in each case is the maximum price for sales on a "delivered" basis less five cents per container for containers under 50 pounds (gross weight), and ten cents per container for containers 50 pounds or more (gross weight), except as these amounts may be changed by the appropriate regional or district office (see paragraph (1)).

"Secondary jobber" means a person other than a retailer who for his own account and profit purchases the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots from a primary receiver or from any seller through a commission merchant for resale in any quantity.

(5) Sales by service wholesalers. (i) For sales by service wholesalers of deciduous tree fruits on a "delivered" basis, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the markup named in Column 8 of Table B in paragraph (e). "Delivered" means delivered to the buyer's premises (in the case of a retailer, delivered to the retail store where resale is made to ultimate consumers) within the free delivery zone.

(ii) A service wholesaler, when selling the kind of deciduous tree fruit being priced on a delivered basis in quantities of one-half container or less, may add to the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) the markup named in Column 9 of Table B in paragraph (e), but only if he has first offered to sell to the buyer on a full-container basis. This paragraph applies only to sales where the seller breaks the original container received by him and sells no more than half of the quantity in that container.

(iii) For sales by service wholesalers of deciduous tree fruits not on a "delivered" basis, the maximum price in each case is the maximum price for sales on a "delivered" basis less five cents per container under 50 pounds (gross weight), and ten cents per container for containers 50 pounds or more (gross weight), except as these amounts may be changed by the appropriate regional or district office (see paragraph (1)).

"Service wholesaler" means a person who maintains a store or warehouse at which the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced is received and stored or warehoused; who maintains at such store or warehouse facilities for cold storage, ripening, sorting, repacking, and other handling of the fruit; who employs salesmen to call on the trade in the city or country points which he services; and who sells the particular deciduous tree fruit being priced to retail stores, government procurement agencies or institutional buyers.

(6) Sales by secondary jobbers and service wholesalers delivered outside the free delivery zone. (i) For sales by secondary jobbers or service wholesalers of deciduous tree fruits delivered to the premises of any purchaser located outside of the free delivery zone, the maximum price in each case is the maximum delivered price named in Column 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (d) plus the applicable markup named in Columns 7, 8 or 9 of Table B in paragraph (e) plus the cost of transportation beyond the free delivery zone, figured at the lowest common or contract carrier rate for available transportation from the seller's place of business to the premises of the purchaser. The amount added for transportation shall not exceed 25 cents per cwt. for the first 25 miles beyond the free delivery zone, and five cents per cwt. for each successive 25 miles, and the total amount may not exceed 50 cents per cwt., except as these amounts may be changed by the appropriate regional or district office (see paragraph (1)).

(b) Fractions. In calculating maximum prices, except for sales to ultimate consumers, all fractions shall be carried to the second decimal place of a cent. Any final calculations of total maximum prices applicable to individual sales resulting in a fraction of one-half cent or more shall be adjusted to the next higher cent, and any fraction below one-half cent shall be adjusted to the next lower cent.

(i) Sample calculations of maximum prices for sales of a Brentwood lug of apricots (24–26 pounds) f. o. b. California shipping point, and delivered at Chicago, Illinois, and for sales by sellers in the Chicago market—(1) Maximum prices for sales loaded on car or truck at a California shipping point on an f. o. b. basis.

(iii) Sales by carlot distributors (Col. 4, Table B) ($2.61 plus 0.24) — 2.85

(2) Delivered base price (Col. 6, Table 2):

- (iv) Service wholesaler (Col. 8, Table B) ($3.08 plus 0.83) — 3.91

NOTE: The foregoing figures are not to be construed as true ceiling prices in the Chicago market. They are used merely as examples to show the application of the various markups to the base amounts.

(j) When maximum prices apply. The applicable maximum price in each case is the maximum price in effect on the date of delivery.

When shipment is by independent carrier and the sale is on an f. o. b. shipping point basis, with the risk of loss on the buyer for any part of the transit prior to physical delivery to him, the date of delivery is the date when the goods are loaded on the carrier ready for shipment. When shipment is by independent carrier and the sale is on a delivered basis, with the risk of loss on the seller for the entire transit prior to physical delivery to the buyer, the date of delivery is the date when the goods are physically delivered by the carrier to the buyer.

(k) Sales of futures. In the case of sales of futures, no "advance" (that is, payment prior to delivery) shall, when added to any previous advances, exceed either the maximum price in effect on the date of delivery or the maximum price in effect on the date of the payment.

"Sales of futures" means sales of goods for delivery at a future date beyond the normal time after sale necessary for transit.

(l) Adjustments by regional and district offices. The authority delegated by sections 2 (a) and 2 (b) of this regulation to the regional and district offices does not apply to deciduous tree fruit. For deciduous tree fruit the Regional Directors of the Office of Price Administration, and such district officers as they in turn may authorize, are authorized:

(1) To determine the limits of the free delivery zone at any wholesale receiving point located within its jurisdiction and to adjust upwards or downwards the allowances for sales by secondary jobbers and service wholesalers on a non-delivered basis and to adjust upwards or downwards the allowances for transportation beyond the free delivery zones, at the lowest rates for customary and generally available means of transportation.

(2) To determine and publish ordess naming the maximum amounts which carlot or truckiot receivers may add to their maximum prices for deliveries made within the free delivery zone at that wholesale receiving point.

(3) To adjust upwards or downwards the maximum markups named for sales by primary sellers through commission merchants in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots ex car, ex truck, ex dock, or terminal sales platform. However, any upward adjustment that is made under this paragraph shall not exceed the maximum markup named for sales by a primary seller through a commission merchant in less-than-carlots or less-than-truckiots ex store or ex warehouse.

(4) To adjust upwards or downwards the maximum markups named for sales by primary receivers ex car, ex truck, ex dock, or ex terminal sales platform or through a terminal auction. However, any upward adjustment that is made under this paragraph shall not exceed the maximum markup named for sales by primary receivers ex store or ex warehouse.

(m) Record keeping and notification requirements. Every sale by any person to any buyer other than an ultimate consumer shall be accompanied by a notification in writing stating the date of the sale, the names and addresses of the seller and the buyer, an adequate description of the commodity sold, including the quantity, unit of sale and the total price charged. When the total price includes charges for brokerage, commission, freight, trucking, protective services or any other charge or fee recognized by this appendix, the notice shall set forth the nature and amount of each of such charges, except that as the giving of such information is inconsistent with state law.

This amendment shall become effective for sweet cherries on June 13, 1944 except for sweet cherries shipped from the shipping point and actually sold before June 13, 1944 and except for sweet cherries shipped from the shipping point, before June 9, 1944, whether sold or unsold.

This amendment shall become effective for all other deciduous tree fruits on June 13, 1944 as to maximum prices f. o. b. shipping point, and effective as to all other maximum prices as follows:

(1) On June 27, 1944 for all states east of the Mississippi River except Illinois and Wisconsin.

(2) On June 22, 1944 for all other states except California, Oregon and Washington.

(3) On June 17, 1944 for California, Oregon and Washington.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

CERTAIN RUBBER COMMODITIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

Maximum Price Regulation 220 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.1560b is added to read as follows:

§ 1315.1560b Application for adjustments—(a) Application by a manufacturer that is not based upon a proper decrease of other prices—(1) Who may receive an adjustment. The manufacturer's maximum price for rubber commodities established by this regulation may be adjusted in the case of an essential producer of an essential rubber commodity. An "essential rubber commodity" is one which contributes to the effective prosecution of the war. An "essential producer" is one whose output of rubber commodities cannot be reasonably expected to be replaced at prices lower than the proposed adjusted maximum price. In addition, any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a war contract (as defined in subparagraph (5)) or a subcontract thereunder, is an essential producer of rubber commodities.

(2) When adjustment may be granted—(i) In general. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may adjust the maximum price in the case of an essential producer of an essential rubber commodity upon the basis of information submitted by the manufacturer or of other information. It may make that adjustment whenever it finds that the maximum price of a commodity is at such a level that (taking into account the costs thereof, the profits position of the manufacturer, and the nature of his business) production of the commodity is impeded or threatened and that the adjustment would not cause an increase in the cost of living.

(ii) Factors which may be considered. (a) The following factors are relevant to consideration of whether production of the commodity is impeded or threatened:

(1) Whether, and by what amount, the maximum price is below or above (i) the total unit costs less selling and administrative expenses allocable to the internal management of the business, and (ii) the current total unit costs of the commodity.

(2) Whether, and by what amount, the manufacturer's current over-all profits, before income and excess profit taxes, are greater or less than his average over-all profits during the normal base period, increased by 7 percent of the additional capital investment contributed entirely by the manufacturer, or its stockholders, since the normal base period. Capital investment will be construed as including accumulated profits.

(3) Whether the proposed price is higher than the price prevailing in the industry.

(4) Whether the manufacturer's sales of the commodity represent only a very small part of his total sales.

(5) Whether the manufacturer previously sold the commodity, or a commodity of the same type, at a price which is below its total unit costs.

(b) The following factors are relevant to consideration of whether the adjustment would cause an increase in the cost of living:

(1) Whether the rubber commodity, or a commodity in the production of which it is used, is of a type sold to civilian consumers other than industrial consumers.

(2) If such is the case, whether the increase in price allowed by adjustment would be absorbed prior to sale to a non-industrial consumer.

(3) Whether, if the applicant did not produce the rubber commodity, his output would be replaced by the same or a substitute commodity at prices equal to or higher than the proposed adjusted maximum price.

(3) How the manufacturer proceeds in applying for an adjustment—(i) In general. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] and shall be made on Form OPA 696: 4057 set out in Appendix B, incorporated as § 1315.1568 of this regulation. Copies of this amendment which contains this form and the instructions for completing it may be obtained from any district, State or regional office of the Office of Price Administration. If the manufacturer's total sales in the calendar year 1943, or in the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. If the manufacturer's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region in which the manufacturer's business is located.

(ii) Application based on proposed wage or salary increase to be authorized by the National War Labor Board. A manufacturer who believes that the conditions for an adjustment set forth in this paragraph (a) would exist if the National War Labor Board should grant a pending application for wage or salary increase, may file an application for adjustment under this paragraph. Applications for adjustment of maximum prices based on wage or salary increases requiring approval of the National War Labor Board must also comply with Supplementary Order No. 28,[1] which requires, among other things, that an application for adjustment in such case be filed within 15 days after an application for a wage or salary adjustment has been filed with the National War Labor Board, or, in a disputed wage proceeding, within 15 days after the employer receives notification that the National War Labor Board has taken jurisdiction of the dispute.

(4) Prices for deliveries made pending disposition of the application. A manufacturer who has filed an application under this paragraph (a) may contract or agree that deliveries made during the pendency of the application shall be at a specific price which is higher than the existing maximum price which the manufacturer wants to have adjusted. But no payment in excess of that existing maximum price may be received until the application is finally disposed of, and at that time the price received may not exceed the maximum price as determined by the Office of Price Administration.

A manufacturer who wishes to enter into such an arrangement must specifically state to the buyer the following:

(i) The maximum price for the commodity;

(ii) The fact that an appropriate application for an adjustment of that maximum price has been filed with the Office of Price Administration;

(iii) The fact that the specific price quoted by the manufacturer is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration.

(5) Definitions—(i) Normal base period. The term "normal base period" means the period 1936–1939. If the applicant believes that the period 1936–1939 is not a normal base period for him he shall state why he believes it is not and shall designate another period which he believes is normal and the reasons therefor. If the Office of Price Administration finds either (a) that the entire industry of which the applicant is a part was operating during the greater part of the period 1936–1939 at an unusually depressed level or (b) that because of unusual conditions prevailing during that period, the applicant's plant was operating at an unusually depressed level in comparison to other plants in the industry, and in addition that some other period prior to January 1, 1941, is a normal base period, such other period may be considered. The mere fact that the rate of production has increased since 1936–1939 will not be deemed evidence that production during that period was at an "unusually depressed level." If the manufacturer was not in business prior to January 1, 1941, he shall state that fact in his application.

(ii) Over-all profits. The term "over-all profits" means net profit resulting from the operation of all divisions of the manufacturer, before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes. Where affiliated interests exist, the term "over-all profits" means the consolidated net profit before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes.

(iii) Subcontract. The term "subcontract" means any purchase, order, or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any commodity, required for the performance of another contract or subcontract.

(iv) Total unit costs. The term "total unit costs" means the direct unit cost of labor, materials, and subcontracted services, plus a proportion of factory overhead, administrative, and other expenses, based on actual operating experience, properly allocable to the production of the commodity, but does not include provisions for income or excess profit taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(v) War contract. The term "war contract" means any contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or with the government, or any agency thereof, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States, under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, for the sale of rubber commodities purchased (a) for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or (b) by any government (or agency thereof) of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, or (c) for use in the production or manufacture of any commodity described in (a) or (b).

(b) Application by a manufacturer based upon an appropriate decrease of other prices—(1) Who may receive an adjustment under this paragraph. Adjustments under this paragraph will be granted only in the case of an essential producer of an essential rubber commodity. The meaning of these terms is explained in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(2) When adjustment may be granted. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may make an adjustment of the maximum price in any case in which the manufacturer agrees to make and (simultaneously with any increase in the maximum price that may be authorized under this paragraph (b)) makes a reduction in the selling price of other commodities which will equal or exceed the total dollar amount of the adjustment granted under this paragraph.

(3) What an application under this paragraph must show. An application for price adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall contain information indicating that the manufacturer is an essential producer of an essential rubber commodity and that if the proposed adjustment is granted, the gross dollar amount of sales of the commodities affected by the adjustment will not be greater than it would have been in the absence of the adjustment. In any case where such an adjustment is granted, the Office of Price Administration will require appropriate reports relating to the commodities affected.

(4) How the manufacturer proceeds in applying for an adjustment. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. If the manufacturer's total sales for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. If the manufacturer's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region that the applicant's business is located.

(c) Application by a manufacturer under a combination of both paragraphs (a) and (b). A manufacturer who desires to apply for an adjustment under paragraph (b) may, at the time he applies under that paragraph, also apply under paragraph (a), if the facts of his case entitle him to do so. In such case, the office considering his application will give the adjustment available under paragraph (a) before applying paragraph (b).

(d) Procedural Regulation No. 6[1] superseded. No application for adjustment filed under Procedural Regulation No. 6 by a manufacturer after June 15, 1944, with respect to rubber commodities will be granted.

(e) Adjustments for sales by others than manufacturers. The maximum price for sales of rubber commodities by persons other than manufacturers may be adjusted in an order issued under this section.

Schedule C entitled "Unit Price and Cost Information" is subject to the following explanation:

1. Price data:

(a) 1. (List) (gross) price:

Please indicate whether the price is a list price or a gross price by crossing out the term that does not apply.

(a) 2. Dealer's commissions:

Where all dealers receive the same commission, use the full commission rate even if some sales are not subject to any commission. If several different rates affect the product covered by the application, use the rate that applies to the largest amount of sales.

(a) 3. Trade discounts.

Deduct trade discounts prevailing in your company for the product covered by the application.

(b) Use a sufficient number of months prior to the date of the application to give an adequate understanding of the situation. Name the period in the allotted space and fill in commission rates or discounts.

2. Unit cost data:

In presenting unit cost data be sure to include only actual cost.

Material cost must represent actual cost. State separately any charges added to costs of materials.

Where standard costs are used, adjust costs for over- and under-absorption during the period to which the costs apply.

The cost data for the ceiling date may be recomputed if the product covered by the application was not manufactured on or about that date. In the recomputation apply the wage rates prevailing in your plant on the ceiling date and material cost of the same date.

Under items (f), (g), and (h) include only costs borne by the manufacturer and not billed separately.

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR USED PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, prices of used passenger automobiles have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of used passenger automobiles prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has consulted with and has been advised by representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected.

AUTHORITY: § 1360.652 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

ARTICLE I—SCOPE OF REGULATION AND PROHIBITION

SECTION 1. Applicability of this regulation—(a) To what sales this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all sales by dealers and other persons of used passenger automobiles.

(1) Definition of used passenger automobiles ("used cars"). "Used passenger automobile", (called "used car" in this regulation), means any automobile which has a seating capacity of less than eleven persons and which, irrespective of mileage, has been used for any purpose other than for the purpose of selling it. This definition includes, but is not limited to, taxicabs and station wagons and chassis and bodies for used cars, but does not include 1942 model year cars used as demonstrators, or chassis and bodies of 1942 model year cars used as demonstrators.

(b) Geographical applicability. This regulation applies to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against dealing in used cars at prices above the maximum.

(a) On and after July 10, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation, except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d).

(1) No person shall sell or deliver any used car at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation; and

(2) No person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive a used car at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation, but if he, the purchaser, has received from the seller a written statement that the price charged does not exceed the maximum price, and he has no knowledge to the contrary, he shall be deemed to have complied with this subparagraph (2); and

(3) No person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of the acts prescribed in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this section.

(b) A war procurement agency as defined in section 15 (d), or any contracting officer thereof, or any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, or any government agency of such a country, shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) (2). Moreover, any war procurement agency contracting officer, with respect to purchases he makes, in his official capacity, of used cars, and any paying finance officer of the United States, with respect to payments he may make, in his official capacity, in connection with purchases of used cars, shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(c) Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the fulfilment of any written contract for the purchase of a used car whether in the nature of a conditional sales agreement, rental contract providing for purchase or other arrangement, entered into before July 10, 1944, and under which the used car has been delivered prior to July 10, 1944.

(d) Where a promissory note covering payment to a dealer or other seller for a car is discounted by a bank, finance company, or other person and the latter takes possession of the used car after default by the maker of the note, the return of the repossessed used car to the dealer in connection with the recovery from him of the unpaid balance of the note does not constitute a sale, purchase, or transfer subject to the regulation. However, the sale of a repossessed used car by such a holder of "car paper" at public or private sale, except the return of a used car in connection with a contract to repurchase, is subject to the regulation. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, where a promissory note covering payment to a dealer or other seller for a car is discounted by a bank, finance company, or other person and the latter takes possession of the used car after default by the maker of the note, nothing in this regulation shall prevent the bank, finance company, or other person who discounted the note from selling the used car for an amount not exceeding the unpaid balance on the note, or the applicable maximum price if it is higher, in the case of a used car delivered prior to July 10, 1944, by the dealer to the person making the note.

SEC. 3. Relation to other regulations—(a) In general. The transactions, persons, and commodities subject to this regulation shall not be subject to any other regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration in so far as they are affected by this regulation, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) Exports. The provisions of this regulation do not apply to the purchase, sale or delivery for export from the Continental United States of a used car. Such a sale, purchase or delivery is covered by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[2]

(c) Imports. The provisions of this regulation shall apply to the sale, purchase or delivery of used cars manufactured outside of and imported into the Continental United States only where such used cars are imported from the Dominion of Canada or Mexico. All other sales, purchases or deliveries of imported used cars are subject to the Maximum Import Price Regulation.[3]

SEC. 4. Less than maximum prices. Prices lower than maximum prices established by this regulation may be charged and paid.

ARTICLE II—MAXIMUM PRICES

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for used cars—(a) For sales during the six months period beginning on July 10, 1944. To figure the maximum price of a used car sold during the six months period beginning on July 10, 1944, and ending on January 9, 1945, the seller must

(1) Find the base price according to section 6; and

(2) Add to it the allowance in Appendix D for any piece of equipment listed there which is sold attached to the car; and

(3) If the car is a warranted car (as defined in section 7), add $100.00 or, if it is higher, add 25% of the total of the base price and any equipment allowance.

(b) For sales after the six months period covered by paragraph (a). For any car sold after the six months period described in paragraph (a) has expired, the seller must figure the maximum price as in paragraph (a), except that he must subtract from it 4% of the total of the base price and the equipment allowance, if any, for each half year after such six months period up to and including the half year containing the day of sale.

Note that this 4% half year depreciation does not apply to the additional amount allowed under paragraph (a) (3) for a warranted car.

SEC. 6. How to find the base price. In figuring his maximum price, the seller shall take as his base price a price found by following the directions given below which apply to the used car he is selling, always using, when he does so, the prices given in Appendix B for the particular region in which the car is located at the time of sale. The regions for which prices are listed in Appendix B and the states included in each region are stated in Appendix A.

(a) For a complete car listed in Appendix B. Take the base price listed in Appendix B.

(b) For a complete car not listed in Appendix B. (1) If its body and chassis were made by different manufacturers: Take the base price in Appendix B for the most comparable car of the same make, model year, body type, passenger capacity, and wheel base.

(2) If its model year is 1937 or later but its make is not listed in Appendix B: Take the base price in Appendix B for the most comparable car as to model year, body type, passenger capacity, and wheel base.

(3) If its model year is 1936 or before and the make is listed in Appendix B: Take the base price in Appendix B for the 1937 year model of the same make, body type, passenger capacity, and wheel base.

(4) If its model year is 1936 or before and the make is not listed in Appendix B: Take the base price in Appendix B for the 1937 model year of the comparable make and model listed in Appendix C, or if a comparable make or model is not listed in Appendix C, take the base price for the 1937 model year car listed in Appendix B which is most comparable as to body type, passenger capacity, and wheel base.

(c) For a chassis or body. (1) If a chassis of a car is sold separately, the base price shall be 70% of the base price established by this section for the complete car.

(2) If the body of a car is sold separately, the base price shall be 30% of the base price established by this section for the complete car.

(d) For a complete car consisting of a used chassis and a new body. When a seller sells a complete car consisting of a new body attached to a used chassis, the base price shall be

(1) The base price for the used chassis as established by this section, plus

(2) The price of the new body under the applicable maximum price regulation.

SEC. 7. Warranted used cars. (a) Definition. A warranted used car is one in good operating condition for which the dealer furnishes to the purchaser the following warranty in writing:

DEALER'S WARRANTY

The used car described below is hereby warranted to be in good operating condition, and to remain in such condition under normal use and service for a period of 30 days after delivery, or 1,000 miles, whichever may first occur.

(b) Additional warranties by dealer. A dealer may extend to the purchaser warranties in addition to those provided in the warranty stated in paragraph (a), but this shall be done in a warranty separate and in addition to the warranty provided in paragraph (a), and the maximum price established by section 5 shall not be increased thereby.

(c) Purchaser's legal remedies for dealer's failure to perform obligations of warranty. The nature of a purchaser's legal remedies for the breach of a dealer's warranty, which are those existing under the applicable state law, is not changed by this regulation.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 8. Federal and state taxes. There may be added to the maximum price for the sale of any used car the amount of any Federal, State, county or municipal tax upon, or incident to, the particular sale, or delivery or processing in connection with such sale. There may also be added to this maximum price the amount of any Federal, State, county or municipal tax on the use of such car which applies to any unexpired part of the period the tax covers. tion with any sale of a used car, either alone or in conjunction with any other consideration even though the price increase appears only indirectly. Specifically, the seller is not permitted to require the purchaser, as a condition of the sale or transfer of the car, to make payment over a period of time; to require him to finance the purchase through any particular lending agency; to require him to purchase any equipment, accessories, repairs, parts or services so as to increase the total compensation above the maximum price; to require him to purchase any other commodity or service; or to require him to make payment in whole or in part by exchanging or transferring or trading in any other vehicle or other product or commodity, or where there is an exchange, transfer or trade-in, to require him to accept an allowance for the vehicle, product or commodity exchanged, transferred or traded in which is below its reasonable value. Furthermore, the seller is prohibited from providing for purchase of the used car by a lessee under a rental contract at an agreed valuation which together with the amount paid for the rental is higher than the applicable maximum price at the time the rental contract is entered into, and from making the terms and conditions of sale more onerous to purchasers than they have customarily been except to the extent allowed by this regulation. However, the Office of Price Administration may upon written request grant written permission to any dealer subject to this regulation to change his credit terms, where such change is necessitated by orders issued by, or at the request of, the United States.

SEC. 10. Label or tag to be attached by dealer to a used car. Every dealer offering a used car for sale shall attach to it in a conspicuous place a label or tag not smaller than 4" x 8" in the form set forth in Appendix E, on which shall be set forth legibly all of the information called for in Appendix E.

SEC. 11. Certificate of transfer that must be completed for a sale of a used car. Every person when he sells or purchases a used car shall complete a certificate of transfer, Appendix F, which may be obtained from dealers or from the local War Price and Rationing Board. When the used car has been sold, the seller shall insert the details of the sale on the certificate and both the seller and purchaser shall certify on the certificate that they have complied with this regulation and that the selling price was not above the maximum established by the regulation. The completed certificate shall be delivered to the purchaser who shall turn it in to his local War Price and Rationing Board. Any misrepresentation in connection with the certificate shall be subject to the penalties provided by the applicable statutes of the United States. This section shall not be applicable to sales when made to dealers.

SEC. 12. Records and reports. Every person who sells a used car shall, so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration records customarily kept in connection with the sale of a used car, and a copy of the warranty, if any, furnished in accordance with section 7.

SEC. 14. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 15. Definitions. When used in this regulation, the term:

A person who cannot qualify as a dealer because he does not maintain a place for repairing and reconditioning may be approved in writing as a dealer under this regulation by the Office of Price Administration regional office for the region in which his place of business is located, or a district office in that region authorized by such regional office, if he provides adequate evidence to that office that he has established, and is in a financial position to maintain, a working arrangement with a reputable business engaged in the repairing and reconditioning of used cars.

(c) "Sale" includes sales, dispositions, exchanges, and other transfers and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. It includes conditional sales and sales under rental contracts, lease agreements or other agreements. It also includes transfers by banks, finance companies, or other persons discounting promissory notes following the taking of possession by such persons upon default of the person making such promissory notes. The term "sale" does not refer to the adjustment of losses made in connection with settlements of claims under policies of insurance against fire, theft, collision, other loss of property or other coverage, even though the right of subrogation may be involved. The terms "sale", "seller", "selling", "purchase", "purchaser" and "purchasing" shall be construed accordingly.

(d) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, and the following subsidiaries of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation: Rubber Reserve Corporation, Metals Reserve Corporation, Defense Plant Corporation, and Defense Supplies Corporation, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

Section 1421.166 (g) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 244 is amended to read as follows:

by producers apply irrespective of the nature of the purchaser and irrespective of whether the fish are sold through an agent of any kind. Nevertheless, a producer who performs the functions of a primary fish shipper wholesaler or other wholesaler at his established place of doing business, and who for the substantial portion of the year prior to July 13, 1943, was engaged in performing the functions of a primary fish shipper wholesaler or other wholesaler at his established place of doing business, may sell at the prices provided in Table B, C, or D depending on the character of the sale. The left-hand pricing column is the producer's maximum price at the port of entry for the designated species in bulk, ex-vessel, i. e., in the customary way in which the particular species is landed at that port, and of the customary size, where size is a factor in the price. War risk insurance premiums may be paid in addition to the listed maximum prices for those species of fish and in those localities where such premiums have customarily been paid by purchasers of the fish.

4. Section 2 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Boxed fish. Where a producer, besides bringing fresh fish or seafood to port, also boxes or barrels his fish at or near the port of entry and ships such fish by common carrier or where his sale of such fish involves transportation to the buyer other than local trucking, hauling or handling, his maximum prices shall be the prices listed in the right hand pricing column of Table A for the species and the month involved. Such prices shall include all brokerage, commission, or any other customary selling fees, transportation and any other expenses incurred.

5. Section 3 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 3. Primary fish shipper sales. (a) A primary fish shipper sale is a sale of fresh fish or seafood by a person (herein called a primary fish shipper wholesaler) who buys and receives such fresh fish or seafood from a producer at a port of entry or inland and who sells such fresh fish or seafood boxed, barrelled, packaged or in bulk from his established place of doing business.

(b) Maximum prices for primary fish shipper sales to wholesalers and chain store warehouses. The maximum price for a primary fish shipper sale to a wholesaler or chain store warehouse, whether made by the primary fish shipper wholesaler himself or his agent, or any other person acting on behalf of or under control of such primary fish shipper wholesaler or through a branch warehouse, is the price listed in Table B in section 22, plus the appropriate container allowance provided in section 21, plus the transportation allowance in section 9, if the fish or seafood is sold and delivered from a branch warehouse.

(c) Maximum prices for primary fish shipper sales to retailers or purveyors of meals. The maximum price for a primary fish shipper sale to a retailer or purveyor of meals, except from a branch warehouse as provided in subparagraph (d), is the price listed in Table C in section 22, plus the appropriate container allowance, if any, provided in section 21, plus the allowance provided in section 6 for a service and delivery sale where such sale is made.

(d) Branch warehouse sales. The maximum price for a primary fish shipper sale of fresh fish or seafood (except shrimp, salmon and halibut) to a retailer or purveyor of meals where the sale is negotiated or made at a branch warehouse as herein defined and where the fish or seafood is sold and delivered from the stock of a primary fish shipper wholesaler's branch warehouse which is remote from his main place of doing business, and at which warehouse the primary fish shipper employs two or more full-time employees who are stationed at and engaged in making sales and performing services solely for the primary fish shipper from such warehouse is the price listed in Table D in section 22 plus the allowance provided in section 6 for a service and delivery sale, where such a sale is made, plus the transportation allowance in section 9, plus the appropriate container allowance in section 21. The maximum price for such a sale of shrimp, salmon or halibut is the price listed in Table C in section 22 plus the allowance provided in section 6 for a service and delivery sale, where such a sale is made, plus the transportation allowance in section 9, plus the appropriate container allowance in section 21.

6. Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Port sales. (a) A port sale of fresh fish or seafood is a sale by a wholesaler which is made at or which involves delivery from any place in the United States or outside the United States within 50 miles from the point where the fish or seafood was landed. A port sale is also a sale which is made at or which involves delivery from a place within a port area with respect to any species and period as established by the Administrator or otherwise established by order in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) Regional designation. Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration or any such other office as may be authorized by the appropriate regional office may by order designate as a port area, for any species and any period, any area within its jurisdiction in which a substantial volume of that species is landed or to which a substantial volume is shipped by producers.

(c) Port sales to wholesalers and chain store warehouses. The maximum price for a port sale of fish or seafood other than fillets to a wholesaler or chain store warehouse is the price listed in Table B in section 22 plus the transportation allowance provided in section 9, plus the appropriate container allowance provided in section 21.

7. Section 5 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5. Sales other than primary fish shipper sales by wholesalers—(a) To other wholesalers and chain store warehouses. Except as provided for a port sale of fish or seafood other than fillets and a primary fish shipper sale, the maximum price for a sale to a wholesaler or a chain store warehouse by another wholesaler is the price listed in Table C in section 22 plus the transportation allowance as provided in section 9, plus the appropriate container allowance as provided in section 21.

(b) To retailers or purveyors of meals. The maximum price for a sale other than a primary fish shipper sale to a retailer or purveyor of meals by a wholesaler is the price listed in Table D in section 22 plus the transportation allowance in section 9, plus the appropriate container allowance in section 21, plus the addition for service and delivery where such a sale is made, as provided in section 6.

(c) Sales by a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler. (1) A sale by a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler is a sale by a person which is either a non-profit organization or a corporation of which 51 percent or more of the stock is owned by its retail customers and which generally sells f. o. b. warehouse or delivers to affiliated retail stores.

(2) Maximum prices for sales by a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler. The maximum price for a sale by a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler is the price listed in Table C in section 22, plus the appropriate container allowance provided in section 21, plus transportation as provided in section 9.

8. Section 6 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 6. Service and delivery sales. (a) A service and delivery sale is a sale of fresh fish or seafood to a retailer or purveyor of meals by a person (herein called a service and delivery wholesaler) who delivers such fish or seafood in his own motor truck or wagon or in a motor truck or wagon used solely for his own deliveries from his established place of doing business to the individual retail store or to the place of doing business of the purveyor of meals.

(b) To retailers. For a service and delivery sale of any fresh fish or seafood to a retailer by a primary fish shipper wholesaler, his agent or branch warehouse, or for a service and delivery sale of fresh fish or seafood other than fillets by a wholesaler (other than a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler) who bought such fish or seafood through a port sale, such wholesaler may add 1½ cents per pound to the price as determined in section 3 (b) (based on Table C) or section 5 (b) (based on Table D), whichever is applicable, plus the allowance in section 9 (b) when applicable. For other service and delivery sales to retailers, the wholesaler may add 2½ cents per pound to the price as fixed in section 5 (b) plus transportation allowance in section 9 (b) when applicable.

(c) To purveyors of meals. For a service and delivery sale to a purveyor of meals, a wholesaler may add 2½ cents per pound to the price as determined in section 3 (c) (based on Table C) or section 5 (b) (based on Table D), whichever is applicable, plus the allowance in section 9 (b) when applicable.

(1) Maximum prices for sales of custom dressed fish to purveyors of meals. For a service and delivery sale of custom dressed fish to a purveyor of meals, a further addition of 2 cents per pound of custom dressed fish may be added to the applicable service and delivery price for dressed fish. If a price is fixed in the regulation for round fish, but no price is fixed for dressed fish, the applicable dressed fish price for a service and delivery sale shall be deemed to be 40 percent more than the applicable price for a service and delivery sale of round fish. If no price is listed for dressed or round fish, but prices are listed for drawn fish of a species, the applicable dressed fish price for a service and delivery sale shall be deemed to be 25 percent more than the applicable price for a service and delivery sale of drawn fish. For the purposes of this section, "custom dressed" fish shall mean fish with the head, entrails, scales and fins removed. There shall be no charge by the service and delivery wholesaler in supplying such fish to purveyors of meals for any other customary services performed such as slicing, removing collar bone, wrapping, etc.

9. Section 7 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 7. Maximum prices for retail sales by producers and wholesalers. This section applies to producers and wholesalers who sell fresh fish or seafood for the most part to persons other than ultimate consumers who are not commercial, industrial or institutional users. The maximum price at which any producer or wholesaler may sell fresh fish or seafood to ultimate consumers who are not commercial, industrial or institutional users shall be the Table B price plus the appropriate mark-up established for Group 3 and 4 stores in Maximum Price Regulation No. 507 (Ceiling Prices of Certain Fresh Fish and Seafood Sold at Retail).

10. Section 8 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 8. Special package shipments to outlying country points by wholesalers. A wholesaler who packs fish or seafood in special containers for shipment to outlying country points to individual retail stores or purveyors of meals may, in addition to the permitted maximum price, add the actual cost of the special containers and the cost of the refrigerant. The added cost must be shown on the invoice to the customer.

11. Section 9 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Transportation allowance for imported fish. Any importer or agent of a foreign consignor of fresh fish or seafood may add as a transportation allowance to the appropriate table price the lowest amount determined on the following three bases:

(1) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) from the seller's shipping point to the importer's receiving point;

(2) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) to the importer's receiving point from the point at which the fresh fish or seafood entered the United States or the carload rail rate for fresh fish or seafood from the point in the United States nearest the foreign shipper's shipping point whichever is designated by the seller;

(3) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) to the importer's receiving point from the nearest domestic port from which a substantial volume of that species is shipped. However, with respect to the species listed hereinafter, the cost of transportation shall not exceed the cost for the type of shipment used from the port listed for that species.

Species: Cod, haddock, pollack, hake, cusk, yellowtail, blackback, lemon sole, gray sole, sea dab, rosefish. Port: Boston, Mass.

In determining the transportation allowance common carrier rates shall be used, and the importer may add the allowance only when he records it on an invoice to the customer purchasing the fish or seafood designating which of the three bases he is using. A purchasing wholesaler or subsequent wholesalers of that fish or seafood may pass on such transportation allowance, but only if they in turn record it in an invoice to their customers. This paragraph (c) does not apply to Canadian lake fish listed in Schedules 51–60.

12. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 10. Imported fresh fish and seafood. (a) The maximum price at which an importer, including any agent of a foreign shipper, may sell any fresh fish or seafood listed in this regulation shall be the price listed in Tables B, C or D, depending on the type of sale involved plus the appropriate container allowance in section 21, plus the transportation as provided in section 9, plus the appropriate allowance for sales on a service and delivery basis where applicable.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided no person in the course of trade or business shall import (buy, receive or in any manner pay for and bring in, deliver or cause to be brought into or delivered into the continental United States) from Canada any of the species of Canadian lake fish listed below at a price higher than the price established in the table below for such species of Canadian lake fish. The table prices below are f. o. b. the City of Winnipeg in the Province of Manitoba, Canada, and apply to all Canadian lake fish imported from Winnipeg. The maximum importing price for Canadian lake fish which is imported from any point in Canada, other than Winnipeg, shall be an f. o. b. price in line with the f. o. b. Winnipeg price so that the total cost of the fish delivered to the importer's place of business is not greater than it would have been if purchased f. o. b. at Winnipeg. These maximum prices are in American currency and apply to such fish caught or landed in Canada except fish caught in Lake of the Woods and any other body of water east of that lake which is partly in Canada and partly in the State of Minnesota or which constitutes the boundary line between Canada and the State of Minnesota; Lake Superior, Lake Huron, Lake St. Clair, Lake Erie, Lake Ontario and any of the waters connecting these five lakes; and the St. Lawrence River where it constitutes the boundary line between New York State and Canada.

(c) Halibut. No person shall buy halibut landed on the Pacific Coast of Canada, which halibut is intended for transshipment in bond into the United States, at a price higher than the Table A price as fixed by footnote 38 when the fish is bought from the producer or Table B as fixed by footnote 38 or 39 when bought from any wholesaler. No producer shall sell any halibut on the Pacific Coast of Canada from a vessel of the United States, which halibut is intended for transshipment in bond to the United States, at a price higher than the applicable Table A price as fixed by footnote 38.

13. Section 15 is amended by redesignating paragraph (d) as paragraph (e) and adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

(d) Authorization to regional offices to modify invoice provisions. Any Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration may, by order, alter, modify or suspend any of the requirements in paragraph (c) of this section if in his judgment such action is necessary in order that fish may be marketed efficiently within his jurisdiction and is consistent with the effective enforcement of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 418. The Regional Administrator may alter, modify or suspend such requirements with reference to such types of sales and such localities within his jurisdiction as he may designate, but only in the case where the buyer and seller are both located within his jurisdiction. He may make such provisions for posting the items required in paragraph (c) as in his judgment are necessary to prevent the circumvention or evasion of this regulation. The Regional Administrator may issue such order on his own initiative or upon application for adjustment of the requirements in paragraph (c) by any person subject to them. Subpart B of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 shall apply to such applications for adjustment.

14. After the definition of "Fillet" in section 20, the following definition is inserted:

"Grade" means any qualification of the name of the fish or seafood listed in the tables in section 22.

15. Section 21 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 21. Container allowances. (a) A wholesaler who sells fresh fish or seafood in a container may add to the appropriate table price the applicable container allowance listed in this section but only if he records it on an invoice to the buyer and only if the container becomes the property of the buyer. In no case may a wholesaler add a container allowance if the container is returned to him.

(b) A wholesaler who processes fresh fish or seafood into steaks, fillets or boned fish and who paid a container allowance permitted in this section may add to the appropriate table price for the steaks, fillets or boned fish an amount which will enable him to recover the permitted container allowance paid by him when he purchased the fish involved in the processing, but no more than 3 cents per pound.

(c) Container prices.

For any net weight not listed in this section, take the nearest net weight for which provision is made.

For any net weight falling equally between two listed net weights, take the net weight with the lower allowance. When fish or seafood is cellophane wrapped, add an additional ¼ cent per pound.

16. In section 22, footnote 3 following Table A applicable to Schedule 27, Salmon, Chinook or King (Pacific Coast) troll caught (Oncorhynchus tschawytscha) and to Schedule 28, Salmon, Silver (Pacific Coast) troll caught (Oncorhynchus kisutch) is amended to read as follows:

When landed ex-vessel in any other port in Alaska deduct the amount specified for the nearest port listed.

17. In section 22, footnote 21 following Table B applicable to Schedule Nos. 51–60, Canadian Whitefish, Tullibee, Lake Trout, Yellow Pike (Yellows or Wall-eyed Pike), Sucker (Fresh water Mullet), Pickerel (Jacks, Great Northern Pike or Grass Pike), Sauger (Sand Pike) and Yellow Perch, is amended to read as follows:

18. In section 22, footnote 15 following Table C is amended to read as follows:

[15] All footnotes made applicable to particular species of fish in Table A, except footnotes 26, 28 and 29; and footnotes 21, 22, 27, 37 and 39 made applicable to particular species of fish in Table B are also applicable to the same species in Table C in section 22.

19. In section 22, footnote 16 following Table D is amended to read as follows:

[16] All footnotes made applicable to particular species of fish in Table A, except footnotes 26, 28 and 29; footnotes 21, 22, 27, 37 and 39 made applicable to particular species of fish in Table B; and footnote 20 made applicable to particular species of seafood in Table C are also applicable to the same species in Table D in section 22.

20. In section 22, Table E and footnote 17 thereto are eliminated.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 17,[1] Amdt. 64]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[*]

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respect:

1. Section 2.11 (j) is added to read as follows:

(j) Odd lot release.—(1) Transfers to establishments. During the period from June 15, 1944 to July 15, 1944, inclusive, any establishment may transfer ration-free to any other establishment not to exceed, in any class listed below, the applicable stated percentage of the number of pairs of shoes which it had in its inventory on September 30, 1943, in such class (as reported on Form R–1701A).

	Percent
Class I—Men's dress and work shoes	3
Class II—Youths' and boys' shoes (sizes 1 to 6)	3
Class III—Women's shoes	5

The sale price of each pair so transferred may not exceed a price 25 percent below the lowest price at which such shoes were offered on June 1, 1944, to persons other than consumers.

(2) Transfers to consumers. (i) During the period from July 10, 1944 to July 29, 1944, inclusive, any establishment whose transfers of shoes are made principally to consumers, may transfer to consumers ration-free, shoes which it acquired from another establishment pursuant to subparagraph (1) above. The sale price of each pair so transferred may not exceed a price 25 percent above the price paid by the owner of the establishment for such shoes.

(ii) During the period from July 10, 1944 to July 29, 1944, inclusive, an establishment whose sales of shoes are made principally to consumers may also transfer to consumers ration-free, in each class listed in subparagraph (1) above, the applicable stated percentage (set forth in subparagraph (1)) of the number of pairs of shoes it had in its inventory on September 30, 1943 in such class (as reported on Form R-1701A). However, in computing the number of pairs of shoes in each class that may be transferred ration-free under this subparagraph, an establishment must deduct the number of pairs of shoes in each class that it transferred or transfers to another establishment pursuant to subparagraph (1) above. The sale price of each pair of shoes so transferred may not exceed a price 25 percent below the establishment's regular retail price for the shoes on June 1, 1944.

(iii) Shoes transferred to consumers in accordance with this subparagraph shall be marked with the date of the transfer and the words "Odd Lot", after the sale to the consumer but before they are removed from the establishment. The mark shall be written or stamped on one shoe of each pair with ink, indelible stamp or indelible pencil.

(iv) When such shoes are offered for sale to consumers in any notice or advertisement, they shall be referred to as "OPA Odd Lot Release, Ration-free July 10, 1944 through July 29, 1944."

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, "price paid" by an establishment means the invoice price paid by the owner of the establishment, plus any separable transportation expense (a charge for freight or postage not included in the invoice price). In determining the price paid, a cash or trade discount need not be deducted from the invoice price.

(4) Each establishment shall keep a record in the manner required by section 2.13 (b) (9) showing the number of pairs of shoes transferred ration-free under this paragraph and the number of pairs of shoes acquired by the establishment ration-free under this paragraph.

This amendment shall become effective June 15, 1944.

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO PETITION FOR REVIEW OF DETERMINATION

Notice of opportunity to petition for review of the determination granting the application to include certain operations on sugar cane bagasse within that portion of the cane sugar processing and milling branch of the cane sugar industry in Louisiana which has been granted a partial exemption from the maximum hours provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 pursuant to section 7 (b) (3) of the act.

Whereas an application was filed to include the artificial drying, separating into proper lengths, and grinding of bagasse resulting from the processing of sugar cane into raw sugar, syrup and molasses within that portion of the cane sugar processing and milling branch of the cane sugar industry located in Louisiana which the Administrator determined, on November 18, 1939 (4 F.R. 4615), to be an industry of a seasonal nature within the meaning of section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and Part 526, as amended, of the regulations issued thereunder; and

Whereas upon consideration of the facts stated in the said application, the Administrator determined (8 F.R. 15493), pursuant to § 526.5 (b) (ii) of regulations, Part 526, as amended, that a prima facie case had been shown for amending the existing determination granting an exemption under section 7 (b) (3) of the act to that portion of the sugar cane processing and milling branch of the cane sugar industry which is located in Louisiana, to include therein the artificial drying, separating into proper lengths, and grinding of bagasse resulting from the processing of sugar cane into raw sugar, syrup and molasses, in sugar cane processing plants in Louisiana, during the sugar cane processing season; and

Whereas within 15 days following the publication of this preliminary determination the Administrator received an objection and request for hearing; and

Whereas pursuant to §§ 526.5 and 526.6 of the said regulations, the Administrator gave notice of a public hearing to be held in Room 914, the Richards Building, 837 Gravier Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, on January 28, 1944 before Nathan Rubinstein, an authorized representative of the Administrator, who was authorized to receive evidence and hear argument for the purpose of determining:

Whether the artificial drying, separating into proper lengths, and grinding of bagasse resulting from the processing of sugar cane into raw sugar, syrup, and molasses in sugar cane processing plants in Louisiana during the sugar cane processing season shall be included within that portion of the cane sugar processing and milling branch of the cane sugar industry located in Louisiana which has been determined to be an industry of a seasonal nature pursuant to section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and Part 526, as amended, of the regulations issued thereunder;

Whereas, following such hearing the said representative of the Administrator duly made his findings of fact and determined as follows:

1. Certain sugar cane mills in Louisiana dehydrate bagasse resulting from the grinding of sugar cane in order to make it suitable for use as litter, horticultural humus, and other purposes.

2. In order to produce a satisfactory product, it is necessary to dehydrate the bagasse while it is still "fresh;" that is, immediately after it comes from the cane sugar mill, and before it becomes mouldy or discolored as the result of exposure to the air. "Fresh" bagasse is available for dehydrating only while the cane sugar plants are engaged in the milling of sugar cane.

3. The dehydrating of bagasse in Louisiana takes place during a regularly recurring period of about 3 months each year, concurrently with the processing of sugar cane into raw sugar, syrup, and molasses. The dehydrating activities cease completely at about the same time that the milling of sugar cane ceases, for the reason that fresh bagasse is not available in the remainder of the year. The dehydrating operations do not lengthen the operating season of the sugar cane mills in Louisiana.

4. The dehydrating of bagasse, as carried on at present in Louisiana is a part of, and should be included within, that portion of the sugar cane processing and milling branch of the cane sugar industry located in Louisiana, which the Administrator has determined (4 F.R. 4615) to be an industry of a seasonal nature within the meaning of section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act and Part 526 of the regulations, as amended.

5. The term "dehydrating of bagasse" as used in this determination includes the following operations when performed on the premises of a sugar cane mill during the sugar cane processing season: chopping or cutting the stalks into sizes suitable for dehydrating; separating the bagasse into proper lengths; drying the bagasse artificially; baling, wrapping and storing the dehydrated bagasse; and any operations necessary and incident to the foregoing.

The application is granted in accordance with the above findings of fact.

Whereas, said findings and determination were duly filed with the Administrator on June 2, 1944 at the National Offices of the Wage and Hour Division, 165 West 46th Street, New York 19, New York, and are available for examination by all interested parties;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the provisions of § 526.7 of the aforesaid regulations, notice is hereby given that any person aggrieved by the said determination may, within 15 days after the date this notice appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file a petition with the Administrator at the National Offices of the Wage and Hour Division, requesting that he review the action of the said representative upon the record of the hearing. Such petition shall set forth the grounds upon which the request for review is based. If no petition for review is filed within the 15 days, the findings and determination of the presiding officer shall become final and the exemption shall become effective upon publication of notice to that effect in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at New York, New York, this 8th day of June 1944.

Administrator.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian:

1. Having, on April 7, 1943, by Vesting Order No. 3 (7 F.R. 2598) vested certain property consisting of notes issued by Luscombe Airplane Corporation to Leopold H. P. Klotz to secure payment of the aforementioned collateral notes, a contract, as amended, between North American Investing Company, Inc. and Leopold H. P. Klotz, and all right, title, and interest of Leopold H. P. Klotz and North American Investing Company, Inc. in and to certain shares of stock of Luscombe Airplane Corporation, all of which property is more particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, herein sometimes termed "the said property";

2. Having vested the said property as property of nationals of a foreign country designated in Executive Order No. 8389, as amended, upon the assumption that Leopold H. P. Klotz and North American Investing Company, Inc. were acting for and on behalf of an enemy country;

3. Having received thereafter a notice of claim (No. 553) pursuant to General Order No. 4 (7 F.R. 5539) which claim asserted that the claimant, Leopold H. P. Klotz, had a right to the ownership and possession of some or all of the property described in Exhibit A attached hereto;

4. Having received thereafter a notice of claim (No. 554) pursuant to General Order No. 4 (7 F.D. 5539) which claim asserted that the claimant, North American Investing Company, Inc., had a right to the ownership and possession of some or all of the property described in Exhibit A attached hereto;

5. Having received no other claim or notice of claim on Form APC-1 or otherwise to the said property or to any interest therein, or arising as a result of said vesting order, and having no knowledge of any other interest in such property of any national of any foreign country;

6. Having transmitted the said claims Nos. 553 and 554 to the Vested Property Claims Committee and a hearing on the claims having been held pursuant to notice (9 F.R. 350) and opportunity to be heard having been afforded to any person desiring to be heard;

7. Having been advised of the final determination issued by the Vested Property Claims Committee with respect to said claims that:

(a) The said property vested by Vesting Order No. 3 was owned at the date of vesting by Leopold H. P. Klotz and the North American Investing Company, Inc., as their respective interests may appear,

(b) Leopold H. P. Klotz was at the date of vesting a national of a neutral state and was at that date and is now a resident of the United States,

Klotz was not at the date of vesting and is not now and has not been at any intervening time acting for or on behalf of an enemy country (including a designated enemy country within the purview of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended) or a person within any such country, and that the national interest of the United States does not require that he be treated as a national of a designated enemy country.

(e) The aforesaid vesting resulted from mistakes of fact.

8. No appeal from the said determination of the Vested Property Claims Committee to the Alien Property Custodian having been taken as duly provided;

9. Having neither assigned, transferred, or conveyed to any one the said property or any part thereof or any interest therein, nor in any manner created any right or interest therein in any person whomsoever; and

10. Determining that the error committed in vesting the said property should be corrected by assigning and conveying the said property to said claimants;

Having made all determinations and taken all action required by law; and Determining that under the aforesaid circumstances the disposition hereinafter effected is in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States and necessary and appropriate in the national interest.

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian assigns, transfers, and conveys to the claimant, Leopold H. P. This divesting order shall not bar any person from the prosecution of any suit at law or in equity against the said claimants to establish any right, title, or interest which such person may have in said property. Nor shall the vesting and divesting by the Custodian be construed to diminish the interest which such person may have had, or to enlarge the interest which the claimants may have had, in said property at the time of vesting.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-905]

THE PATCHOGUE ELECTRIC LIGHT CO. AND NEW YORK STATE ELECTRIC & GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 8th day of June 1944.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, has been filed with this Commission by The Patchogue Electric Light Company (Patchogue) and its parent, New York State Electric & Gas Corporation (New York State). Each of these companies is an operating public utility company, New York State being a direct subsidiary, and Patchogue an indirect subsidiary, of NY PA NJ Utilities Company (NY PA NJ), a registered holding company.

All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized below:

1. New York State proposes to sell for a base price of $625,000 its entire stock holdings in Patchogue. These holdings, consisting of 1,000 shares of preferred stock, without par value, and 11,000 shares of common stock, without par value, are the total amount of such securities outstanding. (Patchogue has proposed an amendment to its certificate of incorporation which would reclassify the common stock to 6,000 shares. If this reclassification is effected prior to the consummation of the sale, the purchasers, by the terms of the purchase agreement, will accept the smaller number of shares, all other terms of the contract being unaffected.)

2. New York State is to purchase from Patchogue for $1.00 the 490 shares of common stock of Atlantic Utility Service Corporation (Auscorp) presently owned by Patchogue.

3. New York State is to indemnify the purchasers of the stock of Patchogue against any and all claims which have been or which may be asserted against Patchogue by Auscorp. As at March 31, 1944, Patchogue had on its books a reserve in the amount of $1,948.26 for possible liabilities to Auscorp for services previously rendered to Patchogue.

4. New York State is also to indemnify the purchasers of the stock of Patchogue against any loss, cost, damages or expenses on account of Federal income or excess profits taxes, by way of assessments, deficiencies, penalties, interest or otherwise, for any period or periods prior to closing date, except to the extent of $12,914.22 to be paid by Patchogue to New York State, or its representatives, on or before the date of closing, as Patchogue's allocable portion of the consolidated return for the Associated Gas and Electric Company system for the year 1943.

The proposed purchasers, ten in number, of whom eight reside in Bradford, Pennsylvania, have agreed in the purchase contract that on the date of closing they will cause Patchogue to discharge, by payment in cash, all of its open account indebtedness to New York State and NY PA NJ. As at March 31, 1944, this indebtedness was in the amounts of $60,000, non-interest bearing, payable to New York State, and $165,000, with interest at 6% per annum, payable to NY PA NJ.

The applicants-declarants have designated sections 9, 10, 12 (b), 12 (d), 12 (f) and Rules U-43 and U-45 as being applicable to the proposed transactions.

It appearing to the Commission that it is proper and in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application-declaration, and that said application should not be granted, or said declaration should not become effective, except pursuant to further order of the Commission;

It is hereby ordered, That a hearing be held upon said matters on June 22, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such date, the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why the application-declaration should be granted and should be permitted to become effective. All persons desiring to be heard or wishing to participate otherwise in the proceeding should notify the Commission in the manner provided by Rule XVII of its rules of practice on or before June 20, 1944.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application-declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the consideration to be received for the proposed sale is fair and reasonable;

2. Whether the proposed acquisition by New York State of the common stock of Auscorp complies with the provisions of section 10 of the act;

3. The propriety of the accounting treatment to reflect the proposed transactions on the books of the applicants-declarants;

4. Whether, and to what extent, it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest to impose terms or conditions in regard to the accounts of Patchogue in regard to the proposed transactions;

5. Whether the proposed transactions are in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers, and whether, in all other respects, they comply with all the applicable provisions and requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS

§ 724.627 Amount of farm marketing quota. The marketing quota for a farm shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment, as established for the farm in accordance with §§ 724.611 to 724.623, inclusive, 8 F.R. 16581. The actual production of the farm acreage allotment shall be the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1944 times the farm acreage allotment. The excess tobacco on any farm shall be that quantity of tobacco which is equal to the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1944 times the number of acres harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 724.628 No transfers. There shall be no transfer of marketing quotas (except as provided in §§ 724.611 to 724.623, inclusive, 8 F.R. 16581).

§ 724.629 Disposition of excess tobacco. The farm operator may elect to give proof of disposition of excess tobacco prior to the marketing of any tobacco from the farm by any of the following methods:

(a) By a declaration of intention to market all tobacco available for marketing and the payment at the office of the county committee by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States in an amount equal to the penalty which would be due upon the marketing of the tobacco available for marketing. Any additional amount of penalty determined to be due after all marketings of tobacco from the farm have been made shall be paid by the operator not later than 20 days after receipt of notice of such additional penalty. Any amount collected in excess of the penalty due shall be refunded upon request of the producer.

(b) By storage of the excess tobacco, the tobacco so stored to be representative of the entire 1944 crop produced on the farm, and posting of a bond approved by the county committee and the Chairman of the State committee in the penal sum of twice the amount of penalty which will become due upon the marketing of excess tobacco.

(c) By furnishing to the county committee satisfactory proof that the farm operator is unable to market the excess tobacco.

§ 724.630 Issuance of marketing cards. A marketing card shall be issued for every farm having tobacco available for marketing. Two or more marketing cards may be issued for any farm as approved by the county committee. All entries on each marketing card shall be made in accordance with the instructions for issuing marketing cards and the operator's agreement on each marketing card shall be signed by the farm operator or on his behalf by his authorized representative. Upon the return to the office of the county committee of the marketing card after all the memoranda of sale have been issued therefrom and before the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed, a new marketing card of the same kind, bearing the same name, information and identification as the used card shall be issued for the farm. Any marketing card issued to replace another card shall have entered thereon the total sales as shown on the marketing card which is replaced.

(a) Within Quota Marketing Card (Tobacco 320). A Within Quota Marketing Card authorizing the marketing without penalty of the 1944 crop of tobacco on the farm and any tobacco carried over from a prior marketing year shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1944 is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment; if any excess tobacco carried over from any previous marketing year can be marketed without penalty under the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof; if the operator of the farm does not operate another farm on which the harvested acreage of tobacco exceeds the farm acreage allotment; and if the county committee does not determine that a zero percent excess marketing card is necessary to protect the interest of the Government and insure the proper identification and accounting for tobacco produced on the farm and the proper use of the marketing card issued for the farm, or

(2) If the excess tobacco produced on the farm is disposed of in accordance with § 724.629, or

(3) If a farm is operated by a publicly-owned experiment station and produces tobacco for experimental purposes only.

(b) Excess Marketing Card (Tobacco 321). An Excess Marketing Card showing the extent to which marketings of tobacco from a farm are subject to penalty shall be issued for a farm unless a within quota card is required to be issued for the farm under paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Extent to which marketings from a farm are subject to penalty. The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having no carry-over tobacco are subject to penalty shall be that percentage of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm which the acreage of tobacco harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment for the farm and not disposed of as provided in § 724.629 is of the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. If the farm operator refuses to furnish or prevents the county committee from obtaining any information necessary to the issuance of the marketing card, all tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be subject to penalty.

The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having tobacco available for marketing which has been carried over from a prior marketing year are subject to penalty shall be the percentage determined as follows:

(1) Determine the number of "carry-over acres" by dividing the number of pounds of tobacco carried over from the prior year by the normal yield for the farm for that year.

(2) Determine the number of "within quota carry-over acres" by multiplying the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) above) by the "percent within quota" (i. e., 100 percent minus the percent excess) for the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced.

(3) Determine the "total acres" of tobacco by adding the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) above) and the acreage of tobacco harvested in the current year.

(4) Determine the excess acreage by subtracting from the "total acres" (subpargaraph (3) above) the sum of the 1944 allotment and the "within quota carry-over acres" (subparagraph (2) above).

(5) Determine the percent excess to be shown on the marketing card by dividing the "total acres" into the excess acreage (subparagraph (4) above).

The burden of any penalty with respect to carry-over tobacco shall be borne by those persons having an interest in such tobacco.

§ 724.631 Person authorized to issue cards. The county committee shall designate one person to sign marketing cards for farms in the county as issuing officer. The issuing officer may, subject to the approval of the county committee, designate not more than three persons to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each such person shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card.

§ 724.632 Rights of producers in marketing cards. Each producer having a share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be entitled to the use of the marketing card for marketing his proportionate share of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm.

§ 724.633 Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the share of a producer in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall, to the extent of such succession, have the same rights as the producer to the use of the marketing card for the farm.

§ 724.634 Invalid cards. A marketing card shall be invalid under any of the following conditions:

(a) If it is not issued or delivered in the form and manner prescribed;

(b) If entries are not made thereon as required;

(c) If it is lost, destroyed, stolen, or becomes illegible;

(d) If any erasure or alteration has been made, and not properly initialed.

In the event any marketing card becomes invalid (other than by loss, destruction, theft or omission, alteration and incorrect entry which can be corrected by a field assistant) the farm operator (or the person having the card in his possession) shall return it to the office of the county committee at which it was issued.

If any entry is not made on a marketing card as required (either through omission or incorrect entry) and the proper entry is made by a field assistant then such card shall become valid.

§ 724.635 Report of misuse of marketing card. Any information which causes any field assistant, a member of any State, county or community committee, or any employee of any State or county committee to believe that any tobacco which actually was produced on one farm has been or is being marketed under the marketing card issued for another farm shall be reported immediately by such person to the Chairman of the State Committee.

MARKETING OF TOBACCO AND PENALTIES

§ 724.636 Memorandum of sale to identify every marketing. Each marketing of tobacco from a farm shall be identified by an executed memorandum of sale from the marketing card (Tobacco 820 or Tobacco 821) issued for the farm on which the tobacco was produced, but if a memorandum of sale cannot be obtained within four weeks after the date of the marketing of any tobacco at a warehouse sale, such marketing of tobacco shall be subject to penalty and the amount of penalty shall be shown on the Sale Cleared Without Marketing Card (Tobacco 828). The memorandum of sale shall be issued only by a field assistant, except that a warehouseman, or his authorized representative, who has been designated on an Authorization to Issue Memoranda of Sale (Tobacco 823) may issue a memorandum of sale to identify a warehouse sale, if a field assistant is not available at the warehouse when the card is presented. Each memorandum of sale issued by a warehouseman shall be presented promptly by him to the field assistant for verification with the warehouse records.

The authorization to any warehouseman or his authorized representative to issue memoranda of sale may be withdrawn upon written notice by the Chairman of the State Committee.

Each excess memorandum of sale or form Tobacco 828, issued by a field assistant, shall be checked by the warehouseman or dealer (or his representative) to determine whether the amount of penalty shown to be due has been correctly computed and such warehouseman or dealer shall not be relieved of any liability with request to the amount of penalty due because of any error which may occur on the memorandum of sale or form Tobacco 828.

§ 724.637 Bill of nonwarehouse sale. Each first marketing of farm tobacco, except a warehouse sale, shall be identified by a bill of nonwarehouse sale (back of the memorandum of sale) completely executed by the buyer and the farm operator.

Each bill of nonwarehouse sale shall be presented to a field assistant for issuance of a memorandum of sale and for recording in the Dealer's Record (Tobacco 825) in case of a purchase by a dealer other than a warehouseman.

§ 724.638 Marketings free of penalty. Any tobacco marketed from a farm which is identified by a valid memorandum of sale from the marketing card issued for the farm shall be free of penalty to the extent shown by the memorandum of sale.

§ 724.639 Marketings subject to penalty and collection of penalties.—(a) Farm tobacco. With respect to tobacco marketed from farms having excess tobacco available for marketing, the penalty shall be paid upon that percentage of each lot of tobacco which the tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm quota is of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm. The memorandum of sale issued to identify such marketing of tobacco shall show that portion of such marketing which is subject to penalty, and any portion of each marketing of tobacco which is not shown by the memorandum as being subject to penalty shall be free of penalty.

(b) Dealer's tobacco. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale, but all or any part of which, when added to prior resales by such dealer is in excess of the total amount of purchases as shown on such dealer's records shall be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty unless and until the dealer furnishes proof acceptable to the Administrator showing that such tobacco is not subject to penalty. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale of tobacco previously purchased by him but which, because of the difference in the price at which such tobacco is resold as compared with the price at which he had purchased the tobacco, cannot reasonably be regarded as tobacco previously purchased by him shall be taken to be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty.

(c) Tobacco not identified by a valid memorandum. Any tobacco marketed from a farm which is not identified by a valid memorandum of sale shall be subject to penalty.

§ 724.640 Persons to pay penalty. The person to pay the penalty due on any marketing of excess tobacco shall be one of the following as applicable:

(a) Warehouseman. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through a warehouseman the penalty shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(b) Dealer. If the tobacco is acquired from the producer by a dealer, the penalty shall be paid by the dealer who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(c) Agent. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through an agent who is not a warehouseman, the penalty shall be paid by the agent who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the produced.

(d) Warehouseman and dealer on dealer's tobacco. Any penalty due upon tobacco subject to penalty under § 724.639, (b) shall be paid by the warehouseman who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the dealer, but the dealer shall not be relieved of responsibility for payment of such penalty.

(e) Producer marketing outside United States. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer directly to any person outside the United States, the penalty shall be paid by the producer.

§ 724.641 Rate of penalty. The penalty shall be ten cents per pound upon the marketing of any tobacco in excess of the marketing quota for the farm on which the tobacco is produced and on the marketing of any other tobacco not identified under these regulations as being free of penalty.

§ 724.642 Payment of penalty. Penalties upon the marketing of tobacco shall become due at the time of the marketing and shall be paid by remitting the amount thereof to the office of the State Committee not later than the end of the calendar week following the week in which the memorandum of sale was issued, or, in the event a memorandum is not issued, not later than four weeks after the date upon which the tobacco was marketed. A draft, money order, or check drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States should be used to pay any penalty, but any such draft, or check shall be received subject to payment at par.

§ 724.643 Penalty for false identification or failure to account for disposition of tobacco. If any producer falsely identifies or fails to account for the disposition of any tobacco, an amount of tobacco equal to the normal yield of the number of acres harvested in 1944 in excess of the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been marketed in excess of the marketing quota for the farm and the penalty in respect thereof shall be paid and remitted by the producer.

§ 724.644 Request for return of penalty. Any producer of tobacco, after the marketing of all tobacco available for marketing from his farm, and any other person who bore the burden of the payment of any penalty may request the return of the amount of such penalty which is in excess of the amount due.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 724.645 Producer's records and reports.—(a) Report on marketing card. The operator of each farm on which tobacco is produced in 1944 shall return to the office of the county committee each marketing card issued for the farm whenever marketings from the farm are completed and in no event later than thirty days after the close of the tobacco auction markets. Failure to return the marketing card within the time specified (after formal notification) shall constitute failure to give proof of disposition of tobacco marketed from the farm in the event that satisfactory proof of such disposition is not furnished otherwise.

(b) Additional reports by producers and identification of tobacco. In addition to any other reports which may be required under these regulations, the operator of each farm or any other person having an interest in the tobacco grown on the farm (even though the harvested acreage does not exceed the acreage allotment and even though no allotment was established for the farm) shall upon written request by the Chairman of the State Committee and within ten days after the deposit of such request in the United States mails addressed to such person at his last known address, furnish the Administrator, by sending the same to the Chairman of the State Committee, a written report showing, as to the farm at the time of filing said reports (1) the number of acres of tobacco harvested, (2) the total production of tobacco, (3) the amount of tobacco on hand and its location, and (4) as to each lot of tobacco marketed, the name and address of the warehouseman, dealer, or other person to or through whom such tobacco was marketed and the number of pounds marketed, the gross price, and the date of marketing.

§ 724.646 Warehouseman's records and reports.—(a) Record of marketings. Each warehouseman shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish to the Administrator a report of the following information with respect to each sale or resale of tobacco made at his warehouse:

(1) The name of the seller (and, in the case of a sale for a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced).
(2) The name of the purchaser.
(3) The date of sale.
(4) The number of pounds sold.
(5) The gross sale price.
(6) The amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer (or a dealer).

All purchases and resales for the warehouse leaf account shall be so identified in the records and a separate account shall be maintained with respect to the amount of floor sweepings picked up and the disposition of such floor sweepings. The quantity of floor sweepings, including bundles, leaves and scrap, picked up by the warehouse after each sale shall be reported in the space provided on the Auction Warehouse Report (Tobacco 826). In the case of resales for dealers, the name of the dealer making each resale shall be shown on the warehouse records so that the individual lots of tobaccos sold by the dealer can be identified.

(b) Identification of sale on check register. The serial number of the memorandum of sale issued to identify each marketing of tobacco from the farm or the number of the warehouse bill(s) covering each such marketing shall be recorded on the check register or check stub for the check written with respect to such sale of tobacco.

(c) Memorandum of sale and bill of nonwarehouse sale. A record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale (or a sale cleared without marketing card) shall be obtained by every warehouseman to cover each marketing of tobacco from a farm through the warehouse, and if a warehouseman buys tobacco directly from a farmer (other than at a warehouse auction sale) such warehouseman shall obtain a valid memorandum of sale to cover each such purchase of tobacco, together with a properly executed bill of nonwarehouse sale.

(d) Suspended sale record. Any warehouse bills covering farm tobacco for which memoranda of sale have not been issued at the end of the sale day shall be presented to a field assistant who shall stamp such bills "Suspended", write thereon the serial number of the suspended sale, and record the bills on the Field Assistant's Report (Tobacco 829) provided that if a field assistant is not available, the warehouseman may stamp such bills "Suspended" and deliver them to a field assistant as soon as one is available.

(e) Warehouse entries on dealers' records. Each warehouseman shall enter on each form Tobacco 825 the total of purchases and resales made by such dealer during each sale day at the warehouse. If any tobacco resold by the dealer is tobacco bought by him from a crop produced prior to 1944 the entry on the dealer's record shall clearly show such fact.

(f) Daily report of warehouse business. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco 826 showing the information required thereon. Form Tobacco 826 shall be prepared for each sale day and all reports for the sale days occurring during any week shall be forwarded to the office of the State Committee not later than the end of the next following calendar week.

(g) Report of penalties. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco 827 showing the information required with respect to each sale subject to penalty. Form Tobacco 827 shall be prepared each week and the report for each week shall be forwarded, together with remittances of the penalties due, as shown thereon, to the office of the State Committee not later than the end of the next following calendar week.

(h) Additional records and reports. In addition to the records and reports provided above, each warehouseman shall keep such additional records and make such additional reports to the Administrator as the Chairman of the State Committee may find necessary in order to enforce these regulations.

§ 724.647 Dealer's records and reports. Each dealer except as provided in § 724.648 shall keep the records and make the reports as provided by this section.

§ 724.651 Failure to keep records or make reports. Any warehouseman, dealer, processor, or common carrier of tobacco, or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers, who fails to make any report or keep any record as required under these regulations, or who makes any false report or record, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500; and any tobacco warehouseman or dealer who fails to remedy such violation by making a complete and accurate report or keeping a complete and accurate record as required under these regulations within fifteen days after notice to him of such violation shall be subject to an additional fine of $100 for each ten thousand pounds of tobacco, or fraction thereof, bought or sold by him after the date of such violation; Provided, That such fine shall not exceed $5,000; and notice of such violation shall be served upon the tobacco warehouseman or dealer by mailing the same to him by registered mail or by posting the same at an established place of business operated by him, or both. Notice of any violation by a tobacco warehouseman or dealer shall be given by the Chairman of the State Committee.

§ 724.652 Examination of records and reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept, or of obtaining information required to be furnished in any report, but not so furnished, any warehouseman, dealer, processor, common carrier or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers shall make available for examination, upon written request by the Chairman of the State Committee such books, papers, records, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents, and memoranda as he has reason to believe are relevant and are within the control of such person.

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS

§ 727.627 Amount of farm marketing quota. The marketing quota for a farm shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment, as established for the farm in accordance with §§ 727.611 to 727.623, inclusive, 8 F.R. 16584. The actual production of the farm acreage allotment shall be the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1944 times the farm acreage allotment. The excess tobacco on any farm shall be that quantity of tobacco which is equal to the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1944 times the number of acres harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 727.628 No transfers. There shall be no transfer of marketing quotas (except as provided in §§ 727.611 to 727.623, inclusive, 8 F.R. 16584.

§ 727.629 Disposition of excess tobacco. The farm operator may elect to give proof of disposition of excess tobacco prior to the marketing of any tobacco from the farm by any of the following methods:

(a) By a declaration of intention to market all tobacco available for marketing and the payment at the office of the county committee by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States in an amount equal to the penalty which would be due upon the marketing of the tobacco available for marketing. Any additional amount of penalty determined to be due after all marketings of tobacco from the farm have been made shall be paid by the operator not later than 20 days after receipt of notice of such additional penalty. Any amount collected in excess of the penalty due shall be refunded upon request of the producer.

(b) By storage of the excess tobacco, the tobacco so stored to be representative of the entire 1944 crop produced on the farm, and posting of a bond approved by the county committee and an authorized representative of the Administrator in the penal sum of twice the amount of penalty which will become due upon the marketing of excess tobacco.

(c) By furnishing to the county committee satisfactory proof that the farm operator is unable to market the excess tobacco.

§ 727.630 Issuance of marketing cards. A marketing card shall be issued for every farm having tobacco available for marketing. Two or more marketing cards may be issued for any farm as approved by the county committee. All entries on each marketing card shall be made in accordance with the instructions for issuing marketing cards and the operator's agreement on each marketing card shall be signed by the farm operator or on his behalf by his authorized representative. Upon the return to the office of the county committee of the marketing card after all the memoranda of sale have been issued therefrom and before the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed, a new marketing card of the same kind, bearing the same name, information and identification as the used card shall be issued for the farm. Any marketing card issued to replace another card shall have entered thereon the total sales as shown on the marketing card which is replaced.

(a) Within Quota Marketing Card (Tobacco 820). A Within Quota Marketing Card authorizing the marketing without penalty of the 1944 crop of tobacco on the farm and any tobacco carried over from a prior marketing year shall be issued for a farm unless an excess marketing card is required to be issued for the farm in accordance with paragraph b of this section.

(b) Excess Marketing Card (Tobacco 821). An Excess Marketing Card showing the extent to which marketings of tobacco from a farm are subject to penalty shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1944 is in excess of the farm acreage allotment and such excess tobacco is not disposed of in accordance with § 727.629, or if the operator of the farm also operates another farm on which the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1944 exceeds the farm acreage allotment and such excess is not disposed of in accordance with § 727.629.

(2) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm but no tobacco acreage allotment was established and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 727.629.

(3) If information required for preparation of the marketing card is not furnished or the county committee is prevented from obtaining the necessary information.

(4) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm carried over from a prior marketing year and the harvested acreage in 1944 is not less than the 1944 acreage allotment by an amount equivalent to the acreage of carry-over excess determined as provided in paragraph (c) hereof.

(5) If a farm operated by a publicly owned experiment station produces tobacco for other than experimental purposes and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 727.629.

(6) If the county committee determines that an excess marketing card is necessary to protect the interest of the government and to insure proper identification and accounting for the disposition of tobacco produced on the farm and the proper use of the marketing card issued for the farm.

(c) Extent to which marketings from a farm are subject to penalty. The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having no carry-over tobacco are subject to penalty shall be that percentage of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm which the acreage of tobacco harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment for the farm and not disposed of as provided in § 727.629 is of the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. If the farm operator refuses to furnish or prevents the county committee from obtaining any information necessary to the issuance of the marketing card, all tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be subject to penalty.

The extent to which marketing of tobacco from any farm having tobacco available for marketing which has been carried over from a prior marketing year are subject to penalty shall be the percentage determined as follows:

(1) Determine the number of "carry-over acres" by dividing the number of pounds of tobacco carried over from the prior year by the normal yield for the farm for that year.

(2) Determine the number of "within quota carry-over acres" by multiplying the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) above) by the "percent within quota" (i. e., 100 percent minus the percent excess) for the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced.

(3) Determine the "total acres" of tobacco by adding the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) above) and the acreage of tobacco harvested in the current year.

(4) Determine the excess acreage by subtracting from the "total acres" (subparagraph (3) above) the sum of the 1944 allotment and the "within quota carry-over acres" (subparagraph (2) above).

(5) Determine the percent excess to be shown on the marketing card by dividing the "total acres" into the excess acreage (paragraph (4) above).

The burden of any penalty with respect to carry-over tobacco shall be borne by those persons having an interest in such tobacco.

§ 727.631 Person authorized to issue cards. The county committee shall designate one person to sign marketing cards for farms in the county as issuing officer. The issuing officer may, subject to the approval of the county committee, designate not more than three persons to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each such person shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card.

§ 727.632 Rights of producers in marketing cards. Each producer having a share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be entitled to the use of the marketing card for marketing his proportionate share of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm.

§ 727.633 Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the share of a producer in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall, to the extent of such succession, have the same rights as the producer to the use of the marketing card for the farm.

§ 727.634 Invalid cards. A marketing card shall be invalid under any of the following conditions:

(a) If it is not issued or delivered in the form and manner prescribed;

(b) If entries are not made thereon as required;

(c) If it is lost, destroyed, stolen, or becomes illegible;

(d) If any erasure or alteration has been made, and not properly initialed.

In the event any marketing card becomes invalid (other than by loss, destruction, theft or omission, alteration and incorrect entry which can be corrected by a field assistant) the farm operater (or the person having the card in his possession) shall return it to the county office at which it was issued.

If any entry is not made on a marketing card as required (either through omission or incorrect entry) and the proper entry is made by a field assistant then such card shall become valid.

§ 727.635 Report of misuse of marketing card. Any information which causes any field assistant, a member of any state or county committee, or any employee of any state or county committee to believe that any tobacco which actually was produced on one farm has been or is being marketed under the marketing card issued for another farm shall be reported immediately by such person to an authorized representative of the Administrator.

MARKETING OF TOBACCO AND PENALTIES

§ 727.636 Memorandum of sale to identify every marketing. Each marketing of tobacco from a farm shall be identified by an executed memorandum of sale from the marketing card (Tobacco 820 or Tobacco 821) issued for the farm on which the tobacco was produced. If a memorandum of sale is not executed by the end of the sale day on which the tobacco was marketed, the marketing shall be a suspended sale, and, unless a memorandum identifying the tobacco so marketed is executed within four weeks after such sale day or on the last sale day at the warehouse, whichever is earlier, the entire amount of tobacco so marketed shall be deemed to be subject to penalty and shall be identified by a form Tobacco 828, Sale Cleared Without Marketing Card. The memorandum of sale or form Tobacco 828 shall be executed only by a field assistant with the following exceptions:

(a) A warehouseman, or his authorized representative, who has been designated on an Authorization to Issue Memoranda of Sale (Tobacco 823) may issue a memorandum of sale to identify a warehouse sale, if a field assistant is not available at the warehouse when the card is presented. Each memorandum of sale issued by a warehouseman shall be presented promptly by him to the field assistant for verification with the warehouse records.

(b) A dealer, or his authorized representative, operating a receiving point for scrap tobacco at a redrying plant (and other regular receiving points operated by such dealer or his agents or employees) or at an auction warehouse, and who keeps records showing the information specified in § 727.647 (f), who has been authorized on form Tobacco 823, may issue a memorandum of sale covering a sale of scrap tobacco only if the bill of nonwarehouse sale has been executed on the back of such memorandum of sale.

The authorization to issue memoranda of sale may be withdrawn from any warehouseman or dealer upon written notice by an authorized representative of the Administrator.

Each excess memorandum of sale issued by a field assistant shall be checked by the warehouseman or dealer (or his representative) to determine whether the amount of penalty shown to be due has been correctly computed and such warehouseman or dealer shall not be relieved of any liability with respect to the amount of penalty due because of any error which may occur on the memorandum of sale.

§ 727.637 Bill of nonwarehouse sale. Each first marketing of farm tobacco, except a warehouse sale, shall be identified by a bill of nonwarehouse sale (back of the memorandum of sale) completely executed by the buyer and the farm operator. If the bill of nonwarehouse sale is issued to cover scrap tobacco, the word "scrap" shall be written thereon immediately above the words "Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale."

Each bill of nonwarehouse sale covering any marketing except scrap tobacco shall be presented to a field assistant for issuance of a memorandum of sale and for recording in the Dealer's Record (Tobacco 825) in case of a purchase by a dealer other than a warehouseman.

Each bill of nonwarehouse sale covering scrap tobacco shall be delivered to a person at a receiving point who has been authorized to issue memoranda of sale.

§ 727.639 Marketings subject to penalty and collection of penalties—(a) Farm tobacco. With respect to tobacco marketed from farms having excess tobacco available for marketing, the penalty shall be paid upon that percentage of each lot of tobacco which the tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm quota is of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm. The memorandum of sale issued to identify such marketing of tobacco shall show that portion of such marketing which is subject to penalty, and any portion of each marketing of tobacco which is not shown by the memorandum as being subject to penalty shall be free of penalty.

(b) Dealer's tobacco. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale, but all or any part of which, when added to prior resales by such dealer as shown on form Tobacco 825 is in excess of the total amount of purchases as shown on such dealer's record shall be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty unless and until the dealer furnishes proof acceptable to the Administrator showing that such tobacco is not subject to penalty. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale of tobacco previously purchased by him but which, because of the difference in the price at which such tobacco is resold as compared with the price at which he had purchased the tobacco, cannot reasonably be regarded as tobacco previously purchased by him shall be taken to be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty.

(c) Tobacco not identified by a valid memorandum. Any tobacco marketed from a farm which is not identified by a valid memorandum of sale from the marketing card issued for the farm on which the tobacco was produced shall be subject to penalty.

§ 727.640 Persons to pay penalty. The person to pay the penalty due on any marketing of excess tobacco shall be one of the following as applicable.

(a) Warehouseman. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through a warehouseman the penalty shall be paid by the warehouseman who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(b) Dealer. If the tobacco is acquired from the producer by a dealer, the penalty shall be paid by the dealer who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(c) Agent. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through an agent who is not a warehouseman, the penalty shall be paid by the agent who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(d) Warehouseman and dealer on dealer's tobacco. Any penalty due upon tobacco subject to penalty under § 727.639 (b) shall be paid by the warehouseman who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the dealer, but the dealer shall not be relieved of responsibility for payment of such penalty.

(e) Producer marketing outside United States. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer directly to any person outside the United States, the penalty shall be paid by the producer.

§ 727.641 Rate of penalty. The penalty shall be ten cents per pound upon the marketing of any tobacco in excess of the marketing quota for the farm on which the tobacco is produced and on the marketing of any other tobacco not identified under these regulations as being free of penalty.

§ 727.642 Payment of penalty. Penalties upon the marketing of excess tobacco shall become due at the time of the marketing and shall be paid by remitting the amount thereof to an authorized representative of the Administrator not later than the end of the calendar week following the week in which the tobacco became subject to penalty under § 727.636. A draft, money order, or check drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States should be used to pay any penalty, but any such draft, or check shall be received subject to payment at par.

§ 727.643 Penalty for false identification or failure to account for disposition of tobacco. If any producer falsely identifies or fails to account for the disposition of any tobacco, an amount of tobacco equal to the normal yield of the number of acres harvested in 1944 in excess of the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been marketed in excess of the marketing quota for the farm and the penalty in respect thereof shall be paid and remitted by the producer.

§ 727.644 Request for return of penalty. Any producer of tobacco, after the marketing of all tobacco available for marketing from the farm, and any other person who bore the burden of the payment of any penalty may request the return of the amount of such penalty which is in excess of the amount due.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 727.645 Producer's records and reports—(a) Report on marketing card. The operator of each farm on which tobacco is produced in 1944 shall return to the office of the county committee each marketing card issued for the farm whenever marketings from the farm are completed and in no event later than thirty days after the close of the tobacco auction markets for the locality in which the farm is located. Failure to return the marketing card within the time specified (after formal notification) shall constitute failure to give proof of disposition of tobacco marketed from the farm in the event that satisfactory proof of such disposition is not furnished otherwise.

(b) Additional reports by producers and identification of tobacco. In addition to any other reports which may be required under these regulations, the operator of each farm or any other person having an interest in the tobacco grown on the farm (even though the harvested acreage does not exceed the acreage allotment and even though no allotment was established for the farm) shall, upon written request by an authorized representative of the Administrator and within ten days after the deposit of such request in the United States mails addressed to such person at his last known address, furnish the Administrator, by sending the same to the authorized representative of the Administrator, a written report showing as to the farm at the time of filing said report (1) the number of acres of tobacco harvested, (2) the total production of tobacco, (3) the amount of tobacco on hand and its location, and (4) as to each lot of tobacco marketed, the name and address of the warehouseman, dealer, or other person to or through whom such tobacco was marketed and the number of pounds marketed, the gross price, and the date of marketing.

§ 727.646 Warehouseman's records and reports—(a) Record of marketings. Each warehouseman shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish to the Administrator a report of the following information with respect to each sale or resale of tobacco made at his warehouse:

(1) The name of the seller (and, in the case of a sale for a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced).

(2) The name of the purchaser.

(3) The date of sale.

(4) The number of pounds sold.

(5) The gross sale price.

(6) The amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer (or a dealer).

All purchases and resales for the warehouse leaf account shall be so identified in the records and a separate account shall be maintained with respect to the amount of floor sweepings picked up and the disposition of such floor sweepings. The quantity of floor sweepings, including bundles, leaves and scrap, picked up by the warehouse after each sale shall be reported in the space provided on the Auction Warehouse Report (Tobacco 826). Any warehouseman who grades tobacco for farmers shall maintain a separate account showing the approximate amount of grading-house scrap obtained from the tobacco graded from each farm. In the case of resales for dealers the name of the dealer making each resale shall be shown on the warehouse records so that the individual lots of tobacco sold by the dealer can be identified.

(b) Identification of sale on check register. The serial number of the memorandum of sale issued to identify each marketing of tobacco from the farm or the number of the warehouse bill(s) covering each such marketing shall be recorded on the check register or check stub for the check written with respect to such sale of tobacco.

(c) Memorandum of sale and bill of nonwarehouse sale. A record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale (or a sale cleared without marketing card) shall be obtained by every warehouseman to cover each marketing of tobacco from a farm through the warehouse, and if a warehouseman buys tobacco directly from a farmer (other than at a warehouse auction sale) such warehouseman shall obtain a valid memorandum of sale to cover each such purchase of tobacco, together with a properly executed bill of nonwarehouse sale. Any warehouseman who obtains possession of any grading-house scrap in the course of grading tobacco from any farm shall obtain a memorandum of sale to cover the amount of such scrap tobacco from such farm.

(d) Suspended sale record. Any warehouse bills covering farm tobacco for which memoranda of sale have not been issued at the end of the sale day shall be presented to a field assistant who shall stamp such bills "Suspended", write thereon the serial number of the suspended sale, and record the bills on the Field Assistant's Report (Tobacco 829) provided that if a field assistant is not available, the warehouseman may stamp such bills "Suspended" and deliver them to a field assistant as soon as one is available.

(e) Warehouse entries on dealers' records. Each warehouseman shall enter on each form Tobacco 825 the total of purchases and resales made by such dealer during each sale day at the warehouse. If any tobacco resold by the dealer is tobacco bought by him from a crop produced prior to 1944 the entry on the dealer's record shall clearly show such fact.

(f) Daily report of warehouse business. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco 826 showing the information required thereon. Form Tobacco 826 shall be prepared for each sale day and all reports for the sale days occurring during any week shall be forwarded to an authorized representative of the Administrator not later than the end of the next following calendar week.

(g) Report of penalties. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco 827 showing the information required with respect to each sale subject to penalty. Form Tobacco 827 shall be prepared for each week and the report for each shall be forwarded, together with remittances of the penalties due, as shown thereon, to an authorized representative of the Administrator not later than the end of the calendar week following the week in which the tobacco became subject to penalty under § 727.636.

(h) Additional records and reports. In addition to the records and reports provided above, each warehouseman shall keep such additional records and make such additional reports to the Administrator as an authorized representative of the Administrator may find necessary in order to enforce these regulations.

§ 727.647 Dealer's records and reports. Each dealer, except as provided in § 727.648, shall keep the records and make the reports as provided by this section.

(a) Report of dealer's name, address and registration number. Each dealer shall properly execute and the field assistant shall detach and forward to an authorized representative of the Administrator "Receipt for Dealer's Record" contained in form Tobacco 825 which is issued to the dealer.

(b) Record and report of purchases and resales. Each dealer shall keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 825 showing all purchases and resales of tobacco made by the dealer and, in the event of resale of tobacco bought from a crop produced prior to 1944, the fact that such tobacco was bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1944.

(c) Report of penalties. Each dealer shall make a report on form Tobacco 827 showing the information with respect to all purchases subject to penalty made by him during each calendar week. The penalties listed on each such report shall be remitted with the report.

(d) Memorandum of sale and bill of nonwarehouse sale. For each lot of tobacco purchased from a farmer each dealer shall obtain a record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale. No memorandum of sale shall be issued unless the bill of nonwarehouse sale, on the reverse side of the memorandum of sale, has been executed.

(e) Record and report of scrap tobacco. Each dealer operating a receiving point for scrap tobacco who has been authorized on form Tobacco 823 to issue memoranda of sale shall keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 825 showing all tobacco received. Such reports shall be accompanied by memoranda of sale and bills of nonwarehouse sale with respect to all tobacco covered by the reports.

(f) Additional records. Each dealer shall keep such records, in addition to the foregoing, as may be necessary to enable him to furnish the following information with respect to each lot of tobacco purchased or sold by him:

(1) The name of the seller (and in the case of a purchase from a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced).

(2) The name of the purchaser.

(3) The date of the transaction.

(4) The number of pounds sold.

(5) The gross purchase or sale price.

(6) The amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer (or a dealer).

(7) In the event of resale of tobacco bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1944, the fact that such tobacco was so bought and carried over.

All reports shall be forwarded to an authorized representative of the Administrator not later than the end of the week following the calendar week covered by the reports.

§ 727.648 Dealers exempt from regular records and reports. Any dealer who does not purchase or otherwise acquire tobacco except at a warehouse sale and who does not resell, in the form in which tobacco ordinarily is sold by farmers, more than ten percent of the tobacco purchased by him, shall not be subject to the provisions of § 727.647 of these regulations; but each such dealer shall make such reports to the Administrator as an authorized representative of the Administrator may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 727.649 Records and reports of truckers and persons redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco. Every person engaged in the business of trucking tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Administrator a report with respect to each lot of tobacco received by him showing the name and address of the farm operator, the date of the receipt of the tobacco, the number of pounds received, and the place to which it was delivered. Every person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Administrator a report showing the information provided above for truckers and in addition the purpose for which the tobacco was received, the amount of advance made by him on the tobacco, and the disposition of the tobacco. Each such person shall make such reports to the Administrator as an authorized representative of the Administrator may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 727.650 Separate records and reports from persons engaged in more than one business. Any person who is required to keep any record or make any report as a warehouseman, dealer processor, or as a person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers, and who is engaged in more than one such business, shall keep such records as will enable him to make separate reports for each such business in which he is engaged, to the same extent for each such business as if he were engaged in no other business, except that a warehouseman shall not be required to keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 825, if the transactions which would be recorded and reported on such forms are recorded on the records kept by the warehouse in its regular course of business and reported as required on form Tobacco 826.

§ 727.651 Failure to keep records or make reports. Any warehouseman, dealer, processor, or common carrier of tobacco, or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers, who fails to make any report or keep any record as required under these regulations, or who makes any false report or record, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500; and any tobacco warehouseman or dealer who fails to remedy such violation by making a complete and accurate report or keeping a complete and accurate record as required under these regulations within fifteen days after notice to him of such violation shall be subject to an additional fine of $100 for each ten thousand pounds of tobacco, or fraction thereof, bought or sold by him after the date of such violation: Provided, That such fine shall not exceed $5,000; and notice of such violation shall be served upon the tobacco warehouse or dealer by mailing the same to him by registered mail or by posting the same at an established place of business operated by him, or both. Notice of any violation by a tobacco warehouseman or dealer shall be given by an authorized representative of the Administrator.

§ 727.652 Examination of records and reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept, or of obtaining information required to be furnished in any report but not so furnished, any warehouseman, dealer, processor, common carrier or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers shall make available for examination, upon written request by an authorized representative of the Administrator such books, papers, records, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents, and memoranda as he has reason to believe are relevant and are within the control of such person.

§ 727.653 Length of time records and reports to be kept. Records required to be kept and copies of the reports required to be made by any person under these regulations for the 1944–45 marketing year shall be kept by him until June 30, 1946, and for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by an authorized representative of the Administrator.

§ 727.654 Information confidential. All data reported to or acquired by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of these regulations shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture and by all members and employees of county committees and only such data so reported or acquired as the Administrator deems relevant shall be disclosed by them and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under Title III of the Act.

§ 727.655 Approval of the Bureau of the Budget. (a) Additional record keeping or reporting requirements which may be required in accordance with these regulations are subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(b) The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[WFO 22-6, Amdt. 1]

CANNED VEGETABLES, CANNED FRUITS, CANNED VEGETABLE JUICES, AND CANNED FRUIT JUICES REQUIRED TO BE SET ASIDE DURING 1944

War Food Order No. 22-6, 9 F.R. 4319 (formerly designated as Director Food Distribution Order No. 22-6, as issued by the Director of Food Distribution on February 11, 1944, 9 F.R. 1824), is amended to read as follows:

§ 1425.8 Quota restrictions and allocations—(a) Definitions. The definitions contained in War Food Order No. 22, as amended, 9 F.R. 4319 (formerly designated as Food Distribution Order No. 22, as originally issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on February 19, 1943, 8 F.R. 2243, and as amended, 8 F.R. 6397), shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as set forth in said War Food Order No. 22, as amended; and when used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) "Quota period" means, with respect to sauerkraut, the period from September 1, 1944, to August 31, 1945, both inclusive; and, with respect to all other commodities required to be set aside pursuant to this order, the period from January 1, 1944, to December 31, 1944, both inclusive.

(2) "Base period" means, with respect to sauerkraut, the period from September 1, 1941, to August 31, 1942, both inclusive; and, with respect to all other commodities required to be set aside pursuant to this order, the period from January 1, 1942, to December 31, 1943, both inclusive.

(3) "Base pack" means: (i) when applied to sauerkraut, the total amount, by net weight, of all types, styles, varieties, and grades, canned by the respective canner or processor during the base period; and (ii) when applied to each canned food, other than sauerkraut, listed in column A of table 1 attached hereto, and by this reference made a part of this order, one-half the total amount, by net weight, of all types, styles, varieties, and grades of such food canned by the respective canner or processor during the base period: Provided, That if the respective canner or processor canned any particular food, other than sauerkraut, listed in said column A of table 1 during only one of the two calendar years of the base period, his base pack for that food shall be his total pack, by net weight, of such food during the said calendar year in which he canned the said food.

(b) Applicability of this order. The terms and conditions of this order shall be applicable to (1) all canned vegetables, canned fruits, canned vegetable juices, and canned fruit juices listed in said column A of table 1 which are packed during the quota period in any of the 48 States of the United States or the District of Columbia, and (2) all canned pineapple and canned pineapple juice which are packed during the quota period in the Territory of Hawaii.

(c) Set-aside restrictions. Each canner or processor who packs, during the quota period, any canned vegetable, canned fruit, canned vegetable juice, or canned fruit juice designated in said column A of table 1 shall, to the extent that the quantity so packed may be adequate, set aside and thereafter hold for sale and delivery to Government agency from his pack of each such product, for the quota period, a quantity equivalent to the quantity obtained by applying the percentage for the particular product listed in column D of table 1 against his base pack of that product. If the type, style, variety, or grade of the particular product is specified in the aforesaid table 1, the portion set aside shall, so far as available, be in the type, style, variety, and grade so specified; but other types, styles, varieties, or grades in the possession of a particular canner or processor as may be specified by the procuring Government agency shall be substituted to the extent that those specified in said table 1 have not been packed by such canner or processor. In the event a canner or processor is preparing to pack, during the quota period, any canned vegetable, canned fruit, canned vegetable juice, or canned fruit juice, listed in column A of said table 1, which he did not pack during the base period and for which unlimited tinplate is available under § 3270.31 of Conservation Order M-81, issued by the War Production Board on February 11, 1942, as amended (7 F.R. 947, 10321, 8 F.R. 14455, 9 F.R. 82, 5209), he shall so inform the Director by letter, and state therein the quantity of such product which he anticipates that he will pack; and such canner or processor shall set aside for sale and delivery to Government agency a portion of his pack of each such product for the quota period equivalent to the quantity obtained by applying the percentage for the particular product, listed in column D of table 1, against his total production of such product during the quota period.

(d) When entire pack not set aside for Government agency. (1) In the event a canner or processor packs any canned vegetable, canned fruit, canned vegetable juice, or canned fruit juice, listed in column A of table 1, for nongovernmental requirements as well as for Government agency, the portion of each such product required to be set aside by him for Government agency shall be set aside as follows: (i) At least two-thirds of the set-aside portion shall be taken from the first preference grade of the canned product, as specified in column F of table 1, to the extent that such preference grade is packed by the respective canner or processor but, if the quantity of the said first preference grade which is packed by such person is not sufficient to meet that requirement, the total quantity of such first preference grade shall be set aside for Government agency; (ii) To the extent that the quantity set aside for Government agency from the first preference grade in accordance with the provisions of (i) above may fail to complete his set-aside quota, he shall set aside from his production of the second preference grade of the canned product, as specified in column G of Table 1, such quantity to complete his set-aside quota but, if the quantity of said second preference grade packed by such person is not sufficient to complete such set-aside quota, the total quantity of such second preference grade shall be set aside for Government agency; and (iii) To the extent that the quantities set aside for Government agency from the first and second preference grades in accordance with the provisions of (i) and (ii) above may fail to complete his set-aside quota, he shall set aside from his production of his third preference grade of the canned product, as specified in column

H of table 1, sufficient of such quantity to complete his set-aside quota as may be available: Provided, That, if there is an insufficient quantity of all three preference grades to complete his set-aside quota, he shall set aside from such other grades in his possession as may be designated by Government agency a quantity of such other grades sufficient to complete his set-aside quota to the extent that such other grades packed by him are available.

(2) In the event a canner or processor packs a canned product covered hereunder partly in tinplate containers and partly in glass containers, the portion to be set aside for Government agency from the several preference grades of such product in accordance with the provisions of (d) (1) hereof shall be that which is packed in tinplate to the extent that the respective grades are so packed by such person; and the particular product packed by such person in glass containers shall be set aside from any such preference grade only in the event and to the extent necessary to meet any such deficiency when there is not enough of the respective product of that preference grade packed by such canner or processor in tinplate to meet the set-aside requirements for such grade.

(3) Within the limits of, and subject to the restrictions set forth in, (d) (1) and (2) hereof, a minimum of one-half and a maximum of two-thirds (except with the consent of the particular procuring Government agency) of the quota of any canned product for Government agency shall be set aside in the largest can size specified for that product in column I of table 1 to the extent that the product is packed by the respective canner or processor in such largest can size in the respective preference grades, and the remainder, if any, of the set-aside quota for the canned product shall be in the other can sizes, if any, specified in said column I of table 1: Provided, That the portion of the set-aside quantity of the canned product represented by the contingency reserve percentage for such product shown in column C of table 1 may, at the option of the particular canner or processor, be packed and set aside in any can size permitted under the aforesaid Conservation Order M-81, as amended.

(4) Each canner and each processor who, pursuant to the provisions of this order, is required to set aside any commodity listed in the aforesaid column A of table 1 shall be deemed to have met the set-aside requirements of this order if he sets aside the entire quantity of the respective commodity packed by him and in his possession on and after June 12, 1944, if such amount is not less than the quantity of the respective commodity required to be set aside by such person pursuant to the provisions of War Food Order No. 22-6 in effect prior to such date.

(e) Reports. (1) Each canner and each processor of sauerkraut shall complete Form FDA-685 with respect to sauerkraut canned by him during the base period and submit such completed form to the Director within 15 calendar days after the effective time hereof.

(2) The reports required by § 1425.1 (c) of War Food Order No. 22, as amended, shall be submitted on Form FDA-685. The reports shall be submitted to the Director within 15 calendar days after the completion of the pack.

(f) Purchase, inspection, and specifications. The Army of the United States is hereby allocated the quotas prescribed herein for Government agency, and the Army may purchase said quotas for its own account or the account of other Government agencies whenever it has agreed with such agencies to do so. The Army of the United States and the Office of Distribution, respectively, are authorized to inspect and grade such canned foods pursuant to § 1425.1 (d) of War Food Order No. 22, as amended. The Army of the United States is authorized to issue specifications at any time with regard to the processing, packing, containers, container treatment, can marking, labeling, boxing, and strapping of such canned foods pursuant to § 1425.1 (b) (5) of War Food Order No. 22, as amended.

(g) Provisions of War Food Orders No. 22-4, as amended, and 22-5, as amended, not affected. The provisions of this order shall not be considered as rescinding or modifying the provisions of War Food Order No. 22-4, as amended (8 F.R. 6573, 11590, 9 F.R. 4319), or the provisions of War Food Order No. 22-5, as amended (8 F.R. 16007, 9 F.R. 2969, 4319).

(h) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., June 12, 1944. With respect to violations of War Food Order No. 22-6, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken prior to the effective time of this amendment, said War Food Order No. 22-6 shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, liability, or appeal.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Ellis Garrett or Lloyd Garrett, individually, or doing business as Garrett and Company, or under any other name, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on June 12, 1944 and shall expire on September 12, 1944.

The dollar and cent values for each of the above factors for the various grades of secondary or rejected iron or steel products are set forth in or indicated by the price component index in paragraph (d) below. The values to be used are those established for the zone in which the destination is located. When the values set forth in the tables referred to in the price component index are negative values, they shall be deducted rather than added in computing a zone destination price.

(5) Method of computing zone shipping point price. The zone shipping point price is the zone destination price at the shipping point: Provided, That where the shipping point is a mill basing point for the product shipped, no freight shall be added in computing the zone destination price used as a zone shipping point price.

(6) Method of determining the governing basing point. The governing basing point is the mill basing point of those set forth in the price component index in paragraph (d) below at which the price for any particular product, plus freight from such basing point to destination, results in the lowest charge for such product.

(7) Maximum prices for material which has not been warehoused. The maximum delivered prices for any quantity of secondary or rejected iron or steel products covered by this section which (i) are not put through the operations commonly known as the warehousing of iron or steel products as defined in § 1306.157 (s); (ii) are shipped directly from producers or converters; or (iii) are diverted from delivery to warehouse shall be determined in accordance with whichever of the following provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 6 are applicable:

Section 1306.10 (e) (1), Subdivision (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) and (vi).
Section 1306.10 (e), Subparagraph (2).

The grade definitions set forth in these provisions shall be used when the maximum delivered price is determined thereby. The maximum delivered prices for prime quality products established by Revised Price Schedule No. 6 shall not apply to secondary or rejected iron or steel products regardless of any sorting or processing of such products by any person.

(8) Maximum prices for warehoused material. The maximum prices for all secondary or rejected iron or steel products covered by this section for which a maximum delivered price is not established by paragraph (a) (7) above shall be:

(i) Delivered prices for intra-zone shipments. The maximum delivered price for shipments of the various grades of secondary or rejected iron or steel products from a shipping point within a zone to a destination within the same zone shall be the zone destination price.

(ii) Delivered prices for inter-zone shipments. The maximum delivered price for shipments of the various grades of secondary or rejected iron or steel products from a shipping point within a zone to a destination within another zone shall be the highest of the following three alternatives:

(a) The zone shipping point price plus freight from shipping point to destination, less an allowance at the rate of 15 cents per 100 pounds.

(b) The zone shipping point price plus transportation charges actually paid for shipment from a shipping point to destination, less an allowance at the rate of 25 cents per 100 pounds; or

(c) The zone destination price for the zone into which shipment is made.

(iii) Prices for material not meeting defined grades. The maximum prices for secondary or rejected iron or steel products subject to this § 1306.164, Appendix F, which do not qualify as rejects, wasters, waste wasters, offal, side and end shearings, sheared to specifications, or semi-finished rejects, shall be those set forth in Revised Price Schedule No. 4 for sales of iron or steel scrap to a consumer.

(9) Maximum prices for mixed shipments. The following provisions shall apply in the case of a mixed shipment containing secondary or rejected iron or steel products for which a maximum price is established in paragraph (a) (7) or (a) (8) above.

(i) Prime and secondary or rejected products. When a seller makes a shipment containing both prime quality and secondary or rejected quality iron or steel products, the maximum price for the entire shipment shall be the maximum delivered price established in this section for the secondary or rejected iron or steel products unless his invoice for such shipment separately states the exact quantity of each quality in the shipment.

(ii) Various products or grades of secondary or rejected products. When a seller makes a shipment containing two or more secondary or rejected iron or steel products or grades of such products having different maximum prices, the maximum price for the entire shipment shall be the lowest maximum price for any product or grade of product in such shipment unless the seller indicates on his invoice the exact quantity of each different product or grade of product shipped.

(10) Special record keeping requirements. (i) Every seller of secondary or rejected iron or steel products covered by this § 1306.164 shall keep open for inspection the following records:

(a) A record of all material purchased as secondary or rejected iron or steel products clearly distinguishing them from those purchased as prime quality. Such record shall be kept for a period of two years after date of purchase;

(b) A record of each purchase and sale of secondary or rejected universal mill plates in sufficient detail to identify them as the product of a universal mill, each purchase and sale of all classifications of tin mill black plate in U. S. S. Gauge #28 and heavier, and each sale of job and warehouse pickled material on which a charge has been made in accordance with Table K–1 Part A–2 in paragraph (d) below. Purchase records shall be kept for a period of two years after the date of purchase; sales records shall be kept for a period of one year after the date of sale.

(c) A record of inventory at the end of each of his accounting periods setting forth the tonnage of the products covered by § 1306.164 as distinguished from material purchased as prime quality material. Such record shall be kept for a period of two years after the end of each accounting period.

(d) A record of each purchase of secondary or rejected cold rolled sheets of 13 U. S. S. Standard Gauge and heavier on which an extra was paid for full finish or cold reduced finish permitted by § 1306.10 (e) (1) of RPS 6, or Table G–2 Part A–3 in paragraph (d) (vi) of § 1306.164 of RPS 49.

(ii) All records keeping and reporting requirements set forth in § 1306.154 (a) (b) shall apply to all sellers of secondary or rejected iron or steel products covered by this § 1306.164.

(11) Special invoice requirements. (i) Every seller shall set forth the following information on each invoice covering the sale of secondary or rejected iron or steel products:

(a) The grade of material shipped (that is, rejects, wasters, waste wasters, offal, side and end shearings, sheared to specifications to width only, sheared to specifications to length only, or sheared to specifications to both length and width). For the purpose of convenience the following designations may be used in connection with the products description if the seller so desires:

Grade:	Designation
Rejects	OPA–49F–1
Wasters	OPA–49F–2
Waste-wasters	OPA–49F–3
Offal	OPA–49F–4

Example: Secondary or rejected plates in rejects grade may be designated as "plates OPA–49F–1".

When more than one secondary or rejected product or grades of such product are covered by one invoice, the grade or designation shall appear in connection with each item on the invoice.

(b) As a separate item, the charge made for job or warehouse pickling permitted by Table K–1, part A–2 in paragraph (d) below.

(ii) In addition, all invoicing requirements set forth in § 1306.154 (d) shall apply to all sellers of secondary or rejected iron or steel products covered by this § 1306.164.

(12) Discounts and privileges. The maximum delivered prices established in this Section 1306.164 shall be considered as including delivery and other services of all kinds, credit or other discounts, all functional allowances, and all other privileges which each seller had in effect on April 16, 1941 or, if the seller was not engaged in the business of selling secondary or rejected iron or steel products on such date, all such practices recognized as customary by persons so engaged. Any diminution in such services, discounts, allowances, and privileges shall be accompanied by a commensurate reduction in the maximum delivered price if a specific reduction is not provided for in this schedule.

(13) Prohibition of the use of factors not specifically set forth in this section—(i) Restrictions. Only the base prices, extras, charges or other factors which are expressly permitted by this § 1306.164 shall be included in the computation of a maximum delivered price. No other factors may be used unless specific permission is obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(ii) Application for other factors. A seller may apply by letter for permission to use factors not included in the computation of a maximum delivered price under this section if the factors requested were in effect or were used by him on April 16, 1941. The Office of Price Administration may approve, disapprove or modify the factors requested. Appropriate conditions may be imposed upon the use of any factors granted. 2. When the material furnished is in sizes other than those available in stock and when it is sheared to specifications, the size differential shall be determined on the basis of the actual size of the material after cutting.

In general, the following tables establish the dollars and cents values for size differentials for each grade of each product covered by § 1306.164. A separate table is set forth for each product and each table is divided into parts, each of which shows the differentials for a particular grade of the product.

The price component index indicates the table applicable according to product. The grade of product, determined by reference to the definitions, indicates the part of the table which contains differentials for the particular material sold.

TABLE G-8.—SEMI-FINISHED REJECTS

The size differentials for semi-finished rejects shall be 110 percent of the applicable prime mill extra for cross sectional areas as established by revised price schedule No. 6 for the particular products sold.

(vii) Cutting extras (Rate per 100 pounds except as otherwise stated). Charges for cutting are to be made only when the material furnished is in other than sizes available in stock and when material is sheared to specifications. The weight used in determining the total maximum delivered price for products sheared to specifications shall be the net weight of the product shipped, not the weight of the material from which the product was sheared. If cutting charges are provided in the following tables for such operation on the particular material sold, the minimum charge for cutting shall be $1.50 per item regardless of the fact that the charge set forth may be less.

TABLE H-1.—SHEARING OR SLITTING HOT ROLLED, COLD ROLLED, COATED SHEETS INCLUDING LONG TERNE SHEETS, AND 3/16" PLATES

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 280,[1] Incl. Amdts. 1–46]

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SPECIFIC FOOD PRODUCTS

This compilation of Maximum Price Regulation 280 includes Amendment 46, effective June 17, 1944. The text amended by Amendment 46 is underscored.

Preamble. In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 issued by the President on October 3, 1942 to maintain as the maximum prices for certain essential food products heretofore covered under Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 22 the prices prevailing with respect thereto during the period September 28, 1942 to October 2, 1942, inclusive. The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and will aid in stabilizing the cost of living. The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to the producers of the covered agricultural commodities prices for their products equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected or had previously been promulgated and their use lawfully required by another Government agency.

Therefore, with the concurrence of the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to agricultural commodities and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 is hereby issued.

§ 1351.802 Prohibition against buying and selling above maximum prices. (a) On and after December 3, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver a listed food product, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive a listed food product at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(a) The seller's maximum price for any listed food product shall be the highest price charged by the seller during the period September 28, 1942, to October 2, 1942, inclusive, for the same listed food product; or if no charge was made for the same listed food product, for the similar listed food product most nearly like it. If the seller did not sell the same or similar listed food product during the period September 28, 1942, to October 2, 1942, inclusive, his maximum price for such listed food product shall be the highest price charged during that period by his most closely competitive seller of the same class for the same listed food product; or, if no charge was made for the same listed food product, for the similar food product most nearly like it.

[First sentence added by Am. 42, 9 F.R. 2238, effective 3–2–44]

(b) If the seller cannot determine his maximum price for a listed food product under the foregoing, because neither he nor his most closely competitive seller of the same class delivered or offered for delivery such listed food product to a purchaser of the same class during the base period and adjusting the price to October 2, 1942, inclusive, he may determine his maximum price by the following procedure applied in the following order:

(1) By taking the maximum price of the same or similar listed food product most nearly like it which he charged a different class of purchaser during such base period and adjusting the price to reflect the customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(2) By taking the maximum price of the same or similar listed food product most nearly like it charged by his most closely competitive seller of the same class to a different class of purchaser during such base period, and adjusting that maximum price to reflect the customary differential between the price charged that different class of purchaser by such competitor, and the price for that class of purchaser for whom a maximum price is sought by the seller.

(3) By taking as the maximum price the most recent price which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged any class of purchasers at any time within one year previous to said base period and adjusting said price to reflect a reasonable differential to other classes of purchasers.

(4) In all other cases, by taking the maximum price for the most nearly similar listed food product that he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) has delivered or offered for delivery during such base period (or, if none at the most recent time within one year prior thereto) and adjusting that price to reflect the differential between the two commodities normal or customary to his business or, if none, to reflect the reasonable differential between the two commodities

§ 1351.803a Packers' maximum prices for certain commodities packed in new container types and sizes—(a) Explanation. The purpose of the method of pricing provided by this section, is to permit the packer who is now packing certain commodities in containers of new types and sizes (i. e., types and sizes which he did not deliver or offer for delivery during the period September 28 to October 2, 1942, inclusive) to establish maximum prices for those items. The method permits him to account for differences in container costs, and for differences in transportation costs caused by the difference in containers, without permitting him to increase the price per unit of the commodity packed in the new container. The new method, however, applies only where a previous maximum price of the commodity has been set for a container size not more than 50 percent larger or smaller than the new size, and only in cases where both containers are of the non-returnable, single-use type. This new pricing method applies to the following commodity: Malted milk powder of all types.

(b) Pricing method. To figure the maximum price to any class of purchasers for the food commodity in the new container type or size, the packer shall:

(1) Determine the base container. The packer shall first determine the most similar container type in which he has already established a maximum price for the commodity to that class of purchasers. From that container type he shall choose the nearest size which is 50% or less larger or, if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container". If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which the packer is adding to or replacing, like the tin which he may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will, of course, be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation; where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(2) Find the basic price. The packer shall take as the "base price" the maximum price which he may charge that class of purchasers for the commodity in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the packer's factory, the packer shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. packer's factory simply by deducting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(3) Deduct the container cost. Taking his base price f. o. b. factory, the packer shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the packer's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(4) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure gotten by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(5) Add the new container cost to get the price f. o. b. factory. Next, the packer shall add to the adjusted figure the "direct cost of the container" in the new type and size. If his maximum price for the commodity in the base container is an f. o. b. factory price, the resulting figure is the packer's maximum price to that class of purchasers, f. o. b. factory.

(6) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the packer's maximum price for the commodity in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: The packer shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. However, if for any reason the commodity in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, he shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during September 28 to October 2, 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since October 2, 1942 shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The packer shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the packer's maximum delivered price to that class of purchasers.

(c) Units of sale and fractions of a cent. The packer shall figure each maximum price, and the costs that enter into it, in terms of the same general units (like pounds, dozens, etc.) in which he has customarily quoted prices for the commodity in the base container. If any maximum price includes a fraction of a cent, the packer shall adjust the price to the nearest fractional unit (like 1¢, ½¢, ¼¢, etc.) in which he has customarily quoted prices for the commodity in the base container.

(d) Examples showing how the pricing method is to be applied.

CASE 1. The maximum price f. o. b. factory if the base container is the same in size as the new container but different in type. Assume the base container is a 16 oz. glass.

Maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory in base container ("base price")	$0.55
Subtract "direct cost" of base container	−.20
	.35
Add "direct cost" of new container	+.34
New maximum price (f. o. b. factory)	.69 doz

CASE 2. The maximum price f. o. b. factory if the base container is different in size from the new container and either the same or different in type. Assume the base container is a 10½ oz. tin and the new container is an 8 oz. tin or glass.

Maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory in base container ("base price")	$1.20
Subtract "direct cost" of base container	−.15
Adjust to new container:
Divide by number of ounces of commodity in base container	$1.05
	÷10½
	.10
Multiply by number of ounces of commodity in new container × 8	.80
Add "direct cost" of new container (glass)	.26
New maximum price (f. o. b. factory)	1.06 doz.

CASE 3. Maximum delivered price if the base container is the same in size as the new container but different in type. Assume the base container is a 16 oz. tin and the new container is a 16 oz. glass.

Maximum delivered price per dozen in base container (figured c. 1.)	$0.60
Subtract transportation charges	−.05
Price f. o. b. factory ("base price")	.55
Subtract "direct cost" of container	−.20
	.35
Add "direct cost" of new container	.34
Add new transportation charges:
$.05 (old transpt. chgs.) × 40 lb. (new shpg. wt./case) =	.058
34 lb. (old shpg. wt./case)
New maximum delivered price	.75 doz.

CASE 4. Same, except that the new container type puts the commodity in a different freight tariff classification. Assume the base container is a 16 oz. tin and the new container is a 16 oz. glass.

Maximum delivered price per dozen in base container (figured 1. c. l.)	$.60
Subtract transportation charges	.05
Price f. o. b. factory ("base price")	.55
Subtract "direct cost" of container	−.20
Add "direct cost" of new container	−.34
Add new transportation charges:
40 lb. (new shpg. wt.) / 100 × .185¢ (rate per cwt. under new classif.) =	.074
New maximum delivered price	.76 doz.

(e) Records. Packers shall keep records showing how they figured each maximum price under this subparagraph, and shall within 30 days after computing their maximum prices for any commodity in a new container pursuant to the terms of this section, file a report with the Manufactured Dairy Products Section of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., which shall include the following information:

(1) The kind, brand and grade of the item for which a maximum price is determined;

(2) The size of the newly-priced container, the net contents thereof by weight or volume, and the number of containers in the case;

(3) The size of the container used as a "base container", the net contents thereof by weight or volume, and the number of containers in the case;

(4) The maximum price or prices determined for each class of purchasers to whom he sells;

(5) All basic figures involved in the actual calculation of such maximum price pursuant to this section.

(f) Notification of the new maximum price. Any person who determines the maximum price for any commodity in accordance with the provisions of this section shall accompany the first delivery of such commodity to the purchaser with a statement in writing in which he shall state:

(1) The maximum price of the commodity in the new container, and that the price charged is at or below the maximum price;

(2) That the maximum price to such purchaser is determined in accordance with the provisions of this section.

§ 1351.803b Maximum prices for sales of cake mixes and flour mixes made with enriched flour or containing any added enriching ingredient, in bulk and "packaged" in quantities greater than 3 pounds—(a) Explanation of this section. The purpose of this section is to establish maximum prices for cake mixes and flour mixes (other than pancake mix and waffle mix) made with enriched flour or containing any added enriching ingredient, in bulk and "packaged" in quantities greater than 3 pounds. (Maximum prices for pancake mix and waffle mix, in sales by persons other than wholesalers and retailers, are governed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 462.) Prices established by this section are in effect on and after March 2, 1944.

(b) Maximum prices. (1) A seller's maximum price per pound or other unit to any class of purchasers for cake mix or flour mix, in bulk or "packaged" in quantities greater than 3 pounds, made with enriched flour shall be the sum of:

(i) His maximum price to the same class of purchasers under § 1351.803 for the same kind, grade, quality and container type and size of cake mix or flour mix that is not made with enriched flour and does not contain any added enriching ingredient; and

(ii) $0.125 per one hundred pounds of the finished product if all of the flour used is enriched flour, otherwise the figure which results from multiplying $0.125 by the result obtained by dividing the number of pounds or other units of enriched flour content by the number of pounds or other units of the entire flour content.

(2) A seller's maximum price per pound or other unit to any class of purchasers for cake mix or flour mix, in bulk or "packaged" in quantities greater than 3 pounds, not made with enriched flour, but containing any added enriching ingredient, shall be the sum of

(i) His maximum price to the same class of purchasers under § 1351.803 for the same kind, grade, quality and container type and size of cake mix or flour mix that is not made with enriched flour and does not contain any added enriching ingredient; and

(ii) The processor's actual cost for the added enriching ingredient or ingredients contained in the cake mix or flour mix: Provided, That in figuring the maximum price the seller shall exclude from the computation any actual cost for the added enriching ingredients in excess of $0.125 per one hundred pounds of the finished product. "Actual cost" means the amount (not in excess of his supplier's maximum price) which the processor pays for the added enriching ingredients delivered to his customary receiving point (less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment), plus his direct labor cost for adding those ingredients to the cake mix or flour mix being priced.

(c) Individual authorizations of maximum prices. If the processor's maximum price for any item of cake mix or flour mix made with enriched flour or containing any added enriching ingredient, in bulk or "packaged" in quantities greater than 3 pounds, cannot be determined under paragraph (b), he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for a maximum price. His application shall set forth (1) a description in detail of the item for which a maximum price is sought, including its grade and the brand name to be used, if any, the number of packages in each shipping case, and a statement of the facts which make it different from the most similar item for which he has determined a maximum price, identifying the similar item and stating its maximum price; (2) an itemized current cost breakdown of the item to be priced, showing separately, according to his own system of accounts or regularly prepared operating statements, all major component cost factors (e. g., direct costs—raw materials, packaging materials and direct labor; indirect costs, such as indirect labor, factory overhead and selling, advertising and administrative cost, together with an explanation showing the method of allocation of the indirect cost factors; and freight if sold on a delivered basis), indicating whether each cost item is an actual or an estimated cost, and the identical current cost breakdown of the most closely comparable food commodity which contributes substantially to his total volume of business; (3) the desired selling price for the item, including a statement showing the necessity for the desired selling price, any discounts or allowances which should be made applicable to the desired price, and (for comparison) the maximum selling price, with discounts and allowances, for the second commodity included in subparagraph (2), above; and (4) the method of distribution to be employed by the processor in marketing the new commodity (i. e., whether it is to be sold to wholesalers, retailers, consumers, persons who will further process the commodity, or other classes of purchasers). Upon receipt of such application the Office of Price Administration will authorize the maximum price or a method of determining the maximum price for the applicant or for sellers of the item generally including purchasers for resale or for a class of such purchasers.

Until a maximum price is authorized, the applicant may deliver the item but he may not render an invoice or receive payment for it.

Where any cost factor set forth in the application is an estimated amount, the processor shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., not later than six months and not earlier than three months after his maximum price has been authorized, a statement showing the actual cost of that factor in his production of the item since the authorization of the maximum price.

(d) Meaning of "processor". "Processor" means a person who manufactures any part of what he sells of the kind of food product being priced.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 81 (7 F.R. 9894) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

[NOTE: Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (8 F.R. 12404) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

§ 1351.804 Relationship between minimum prices established by Federal marketing agreements, orders or licenses and maximum prices established herein. If the maximum price established for any seller by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 is below the minimum price established for him by any marketing agreement, order or license heretofore or hereafter to be issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, such minimum price shall become the seller's maximum price.

§ 1351.805 Addition allowed sellers of fluid milk or fluid cream because of price increases resulting from Federal milk marketing agreements, orders or licenses. Any seller of fluid milk or fluid cream at wholesale other than in glass or paper containers, to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions may add to his maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, the amount in dollars and cents of any price increase which he actually pays to his supplier, after taking into account and making appropriate deductions for all governmental subsidies because of any increase in minimum producers prices since October 2, 1942 as the result of any marketing agreement, order or license heretofore or hereafter issued by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended: Provided, however, That no increase allowed under this § 1351.805 shall be greater than the increase allowed the producer under such marketing agreement, order or license, after taking into account and making appropriate deductions for all governmental subsidies.

§ 1351.805a Determination of adjusted maximum prices for fluid cream sold at wholesale other than in glass or paper containers to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, after butterfat content is reduced to comply with Conservation Order No. M-259,[16] issued by the War Production Board on November 25, 1942. (a) Maximum prices for sales and deliveries of fluid cream, the butterfat content of which is not less than 18% and, which complies with Conservation Order No. M-259, shall be the adjusted maximum prices as determined under Pricing Method No. 1 in subparagraph (1), or Pricing Method No. 2 in subparagraph (2) hereinbelow, whichever is higher:

(1) Pricing Method No. 1. (i) After the butterfat content of fluid cream sold at wholesale other than in glass or paper containers to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions is reduced to not less than 19%, the seller shall reduce his established maximum price for any unit size, as determined under §§ 1351.803, 1351.804, and 1351.805 hereof, proportionately, on the basis of 5¢ per gallon for each one percent that the butterfat content is reduced.

(iii) Calculations. (a) The foregoing pricing formula shall apply to sales and deliveries of fluid cream at wholesale other than in paper or glass containers to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, in any package size, whether more or less than one gallon, on a proportionate basis. All calculations shall be carried to the fourth decimal place of a cent. Any final calculation of a maximum price for any unit size resulting in a fraction of a cent shall be adjusted to the nearest half cent.

(b) If the seller has established maximum prices, as determined by §§ 1351.803, 1351.804, and 1351.805 hereof, for sales and deliveries of fluid cream having different percentages of butterfat content, his adjusted maximum price shall be determined according to the pricing formula applicable to the class of cream yielding the lowest maximum price.

(iv) Records and reports. On or before January 11, 1943, each seller of fluid cream affected by the provisions of this subparagraph (1) shall prepare, on the basis of available information and records, and file with the nearest District or State Office of the Office of Price Administration a report showing:

(a) His adjusted maximum prices for fluid cream in each size and type of container and

(b) The basis for the adjusted maximum prices, including (1) the butterfat content of the fluid cream sold in each size and type of container prior to November 25, 1942, (2) the established maximum prices in effect immediately prior to the issuance of Conservation Order M-259 by the War Production Board on November 25, 1942, and (3) the present butterfat content of such cream for each size and type of container.

If the butterfat content was more than 40%, the seller must deduct proportionately for any unit size 5¢ per gallon for each 1% over 23% of butterfat content prior to reduction.

(b) Where the butterfat content remains unchanged the seller shall adjust the highest price he charged during March 1942 for fluid cream with butterfat content of 18% or over for any unit size, proportionately, by adding 20¢ per gallon to said March price.

[Subparagraph (b) amended by Am. 27, 8 F.R. 8180, effective 6-19-43]

(ii) The seller shall not add to the price determined under this subparagraph (2) the addition allowed sellers under § 1351.805 hereof.

(iii) Calculations. (a) The foregoing pricing formulas apply to sales and deliveries of fluid cream at wholesale other than in paper or glass containers to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, in any unit size, whether more or less than one gallon, on a proportionate basis. All calculations shall be carried to the fourth decimal place of a cent. Any final calculation of a maximum price for any unit size resulting in a fraction of a cent shall be adjusted to the nearest half cent.

(b) If the seller had established prices in March 1942, for fluid cream having different percentages of butterfat content, his adjusted maximum price shall be determined according to the method applicable to the fluid cream which, prior to reduction, had a butterfat content nearest to 23%. If two methods are equally applicable, the seller's adjusted maximum price shall be determined by the one resulting in a lower price.

(iv) Records and reports. On or before 30 days after any seller of fluid cream makes a sale and delivery under Pricing Method No. 2 he shall prepare on the basis of available information and records, and file with the nearest District or State Office of the Office of Price Administration a report showing:

(a) His adjusted maximum prices for fluid cream in each size and type of container; and

(b) The basis for the adjusted maximum prices including (1) the highest prices charged in March 1942 to a purchaser of the same class for fluid cream in each size and type of container, and the butterfat content thereof, (2) the present butterfat content of such cream for each size and type of container, and (3) the seller's maximum established price as determined under subparagraph (1) hereinabove (Pricing Method No. 1).

(v) Notice to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions. Each seller at wholesale of fluid cream other than in glass or paper containers shall calculate his increase to purchasers under this subparagraph (2). On or before the first delivery made after the seller has adopted Pricing Method No. 2, such seller shall mail or otherwise deliver to purchasers of fluid cream from him, written notices of the increase to purchasers under Pricing Method No. 2.

(3) Change in pricing method. (i) Any seller of fluid cream who, after having made sales and deliveries under Pricing Method No. 2, makes sales and deliveries under Pricing Method No. 1.

(a) Shall within 30 days after making a sale or delivery under Pricing Method No. 1, prepare on the basis of available information and records, and file with the nearest District or State office of the Office of Price Administration a report giving the information required under § 1351.805 (a) (1) (iv) hereof; and

(b) Shall calculate the increase to purchasers under Pricing Method No. 1, and on or before the first delivery made after the seller has adopted Pricing Method No. 1, shall mail or otherwise deliver to purchasers of fluid cream from him, written notices of the increase to purchasers under Pricing Method No. 1.

[§ 1351.805a added by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 10475, effective 12-12-42; amended by Am. 22, 8 F.R. 6857, effective 5-19-43 and as otherwise noted]

§ 1351.806 Adjustment of maximum prices of malted milk. (a) The Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 or on its own motion, by letter order adjust the maximum price or prices of a processor or manufacturer of malted milk where it appears that:

(1) The processor's or manufacturer's maximum price or prices are below the general price level prevailing for the same quantities of malted milk sold by other processors or manufacturers; and

(2) The processor's or manufacturer's prevailing ceiling prices subject him to such a degree of hardship as to prevent or threaten to prevent his continued production of malted milk; and

(3) An increase in his maximum price or prices will enable him to continue production; and

(4) The loss of his production would result in consumers having to pay higher prices for malted milk produced by other processors or manufacturers; and

(5) The Administrator is of the opinion that an increase in his maximum price or prices would under all circumstances be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order Nos. 9250 and 9328.

(b) The adjusted maximum price granted to a processor or manufacturer under the provisions of this section shall in no event exceed the general price level prevailing for the same quantities of malted milk produced by other manufacturers or processors. Subject to this limitation, an increased price may be granted a processor or manufacturer not to exceed the total cost of the product based upon a cost to him of $2.65 per cwt. for 3½% butterfat milk; or if the manufacturer's or processor's earnings from all operations before income and excess profits taxes are low in comparison with those of a "representative peace time period", adjusted for subsequent changes in investment, and if in view of such over-all earnings a small margin of profit is reasonably necessary to encourage production, an increased price estimated to yield such a profit margin based again upon a cost for 3½% butterfat milk of $2.65 per cwt. may be allowed.

(c) The Price Administrator may also grant an upward adjustment, limited to an amount not in excess of the actual increase granted the processor or manufacturer, in the price or prices which any particular, or all, distributors may charge for malted milk purchased from a processor or manufacturer who has been granted an increase in his price for that product under the provisions of this section. No increase will be granted in the price or prices any distributor may charge for such product, however, unless the Price Administrator is of the opinion that the distributor cannot reasonably be expected to absorb the increased cost out of his prevailing distributive margin of profit realized on the resale of that product. Furthermore, the adjusted maximum price granted to any distributor under the provisions of this section shall in no event exceed the general price level prevailing for the same quantities of malted milk sold by other distributors of the same class.

(d) Definitions.—(1) Representative peace time period. A "representative peace time period" means the period of the years 1936-1939 inclusive. When 1936-1939 does not represent a reasonably normal pre-war (December 7, 1941) period, some other period may be used but its use must be positively justified.

(2) Malted milk. "Malted milk" means the product made by combining whole milk with the liquid separated from a mash of ground barley malt and wheat flour, with or without the addition of sodium chloride, sodium bicarbonate, and potassium bicarbonate, in such a manner as to secure the full enzymic action of the malt extract, and by removing water. The resulting product may contain not less than 7.5% of butterfat and not more than 3.5% of moisture.

§ 1351.807 Adjustment of maximum prices of fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions.—(a) Adjustment of established maximum prices of fluid milk in communities having a population of 25,000 or less.—(1) When adjustment may be made. The Office of Price Administration, or any Regional Office thereof, may adjust any maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 for fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions in communities having a population of 25,000 or less, in the case of any seller or group of sellers, when it appears:

(i) That there exists or threatens to exist in such a community a serious deficiency in its essential fluid milk supply caused by

(a) A marked disparity between the established maximum producer price for fluid milk in such community and the established maximum producer price for fluid milk in a larger city; or

(b) Unusual and highly localized cost conditions in such community affecting fluid milk, directly related to the war program: Provided, That in no case shall any increases in established maximum prices exceed the cost of shipping fluid milk into such community from outside the normal area of supply for such community; or

(c) Low established maximum prices for fluid milk in relation to prices paid for milk for manufacturing purposes in such community: Provided, That the price paid for milk for manufacturing purposes permits an adequate margin between that price and the established maximum prices for manufactured dairy products; or

(d) Low established maximum prices for fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions in such community in relation to the established maximum prices for purchases of milk from producers for resale

as fluid milk in such community, as a result of which distributive facilities for fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions in such community have been or will be impaired; and

(ii) That such serious deficiency in the essential fluid milk supply of such community will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the established maximum prices of such seller and of like sellers for such fluid milk; and

(iii) That there is no feasible alternative to such price adjustment, such as a reduction of the established maximum prices for fluid milk in another community, or a program for the direct allocation of fluid milk supplies to such community; and

(iv) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a deficiency, or a need for increase in the established maximum prices in another community, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

Applications for adjustment under this § 1351.807 (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

(2) Authority of Regional Offices to make adjustments. Each Regional Administrator is authorized to make adjustments or act upon applications for adjustment under this paragraph (a), subject to the limitations set forth in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph (a).

(3) General limitations upon the authority of the Office of Price Administration and any Regional Office thereof, to adjust the established maximum prices of fluid milk. (i) No adjustments increasing the established maximum wholesale prices for fluid milk may be made by the Office of Price Administration or any Regional Office thereof, pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (a) which will create or tend to create a need for increases in the established maximum retail prices for fluid milk in excess of 2¢ per quart.

(4) Limitations upon the authority of Regional Offices to adjust the maximum prices of fluid milk. (i) No adjustments may be made by any Regional Office, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) (i) (b) of this § 1351.807, without prior written approval by the Administrator: and

(ii) No adjustments increasing the established maximum wholesale prices for fluid milk may be made by any Regional Office, pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (a), which will create or tend to create a need for increase in the established maximum retail prices for fluid milk in excess of 1¢ per quart or in excess of 1½¢ per quart over the maximum retail prices originally established by the General Maximum Price Regulation [11] on May 18, 1942, without prior written approval by the Administrator.

(b) Other adjustment authority—(1) Directive from Director of the Office of Economic Stabilization. Upon the receipt of a directive from the Director of the Office of Economic Stabilization, the Office of Price Administration, or any Regional Office thereof when specifically so authorized in writing by the Administrator, may adjust, in accordance with the terms of such directive, any maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 for fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, which cannot be adjusted under the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) (2) of this § 1351.807.

(2) Adjustment of maximum prices of fluid milk in communities of any size—(i) When adjustment may be made. The Office of Price Administration or any Regional Office thereof, may adjust any maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 for fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions in communities of any size, in the case of any seller or group of sellers, when it appears:

(a) That there exists or threatens to exist in such community a serious deficiency in its essential supply of fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, caused by

(1) Low established maximum prices for fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions in such community in relation to the established maximum prices for purchases of milk from producers for resale as fluid milk in such community; and

(2) The existing relationship between (i) the established maximum prices for fluid milk sold at retail and at wholesale in glass or paper containers in such community, and (ii) the established maximum prices for purchases of milk from producers for resale as fluid milk in such community; and

(b) That such serious deficiency in the community's essential supply of fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the established maximum prices of such seller and of like sellers of fluid milk sold at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions; and

(c) That there is no feasible alternative to such price adjustment, such as a reduction of the established maximum prices for fluid milk in another community, or a program for the direct allocation of fluid milk supplies to such community; and

(d) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a need for any increases in the established maximum prices for fluid milk sold at retail in such community; and

(e) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a deficiency or a need for increase in the established maximum prices in another community, and will effectuate the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

Applications for adjustment under this § 1351.807 (b) (2) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1.

(ii) Authority of Regional Offices to make adjustments. Each Regional Administrator is authorized to make adjustments or act upon applications for adjustment under this subparagraph (2).

PART 1384—HARDWOOD LUMBER PRODUCTS

COMMERCIAL VENEER

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328. Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the industry affected, and were required by other Federal agencies. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

AUTHORITY: § 1384.202, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SECTION 1. Sales of commercial veneer at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after June 17, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive, any veneer covered by this regulation for direct-mill shipment at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

SEC. 2. Products covered. This regulation covers and specifically prices, under the name "commercial veneer", all domestic direct-mill sales of rotary cut commercial and technical veneers, other than aircraft, manufactured in the States of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, of Southern basswood (lynn), black gum, magnolia, Southern maple, yellow poplar, sweet gum, sycamore and tupelo (bay poplar). Most veneer grades and sizes in the above mentioned species are specifically priced in this regulation. However, veneer made of these species in grades or sizes, or with special operations not specifically priced in the tables is nevertheless subject to this regulation and must be priced as a "Special" under section 3 (b) of this regulation.

This regulation also covers, but does not specifically price, rotary cut commercial and technical veneer, other than aircraft, in all grades and sizes, and with any special operations, when manufactured in the States named above, of alder, ash, beech, birch, buckeye, butternut, cherry, chestnut, cottonwood, cypress, elm, hackberry, hard maple, hickory, locust, pecan, red oak, white oak, willow, yellow pine or any other domestic species except walnut. This veneer must be priced as a "Special" under section 3(b) of this regulation.

The thinnest veneer priced in this regulation is 1/32" (0.031"). Any veneer thinner than 1/32" (0.031") shall be priced not higher than the price for 1/32" (0.031") for the species, grade, width and length in the particular zone. Thicknesses not priced in the tables but which are between the minimum and maximum thicknesses priced in the tables shall have for a maximum price the price established in the tables for the nearest decimal thickness, for the species, grade, width and length in the particular zone. For example, veneer 3/32" (0.094") thick would take as a maximum price the price set out in the appropriate table for veneer 1/11" (0.091") thick.

SEC. 3. Maximum prices—(a) General. The maximum prices, f. o. b. mill, for standard specifications of veneer covered by this regulation are set out in the price tables in section 15.

(b) Veneer covered by the regulation but not specifically priced. Veneer of specifications not listed in section 15 is nevertheless subject to this regulation. The maximum price for this veneer will be established upon application by the seller to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. The application, submitted in duplicate to the Veneer and Plywood Unit, Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., shall be upon a form duly filled out, copied from the form contained in the appendix to this regulation. Copies of this form may be obtained from the Lumber Branch of the National Office or from any Regional or District Office of the OPA. The application must be filed within thirty days of the date on which the producing mill enters into a contract for the sale of the "Special" item, but shipment under the contract cannot be commenced before the application is filed. Application may be filed, of course, on the basis of an inquiry. Upon the filing of the application the manufacturer may go ahead with the shipment on the order covered by the application.

Each manufacturer submitting such an application must number all submitted applications serially, beginning with Number 1. Any subsequent application on the same item must use the same number as the original application, with the addition of serial letters a, b, c, etc. The invoice must show this application number and serial letter for each "Special" item, along with the description of the item.

Each application for a maximum price for a "Special" item must be accompanied by:

(1) A true copy of the purchase order or inquiry. Authorization will be ordinarily granted only to fill a particular order, not to provide a general price for all future sales.

(2) A letter from purchaser showing proposed use of the "Special" item and an explanation of why a standard item cannot be used.

(3) A letter from the Plywood and Veneer Distribution Section, Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., stating that authorization of a price on this "Special" item will not hinder production of more essential items.

Unless the price applied for is specifically disapproved by the Office of Price Administration within thirty days from receipt of the application, the manufacturer may assume that that price is his maximum price for that item under the particular order. If disapproval is made or revision called for after the thirty day period, the requested price shall nevertheless be that manufacturer's maximum price for that item for all shipments made on that order prior to his receipt of notice of disapproval or revision. Thereafter, of course, the price approved by the Office of Price Administration shall apply.

(c) Combination species, grades or sizes. Veneer sold in combination species, grades or sizes for which no maximum price has been established in this regulation, such as a mixed shipment of sweet gum and sycamore or a mixed grade such as "log run" or "aircraft rejects", may not be sold at above the maximum price for the lowest price species, grade or size actually included in the combination shipment. For example, the maximum price for "log run" veneer containing some reject back or No. 3 core grade is the price set for reject backs and No. 3 core grades in Tables 9, 9A, 19, 19A, 29 and 29A, for the zone in which it is manufactured and for the species and size. Of course, the quantities in the different species, grades and sizes can be quoted and invoiced, if graded and tallied separately, at the prices established for those species, grades and sizes in the appropriate table.

SEC. 4. Additions for transportation and crating. (a) Where practicable, the maximum delivered price shall be a price no higher than the maximum f. o. b. mill price plus the actual transportation charges paid to a common or contract carrier for transportation directly from the mill to the point of delivery required by the purchaser, except that pre-rail trucking cost must be absorbed by the seller. For shipment by private truck to destination, actual costs may be charged, but not to exceed the carload rail freight charge from seller's nearest rail shipping point to destination. It is permissible to quote and charge delivered prices based on rail rate times the estimated weight evened out to the nearest quarter dollar per M'BM. The estimated weight shall be the weight which has customarily been used for the particular item by the seller.

In any event, all invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description as to quantity, grade and governing specifications of the veneer to show whether the price charged is proper or not. The amount added for transportation must be shown separately in the invoice.

(b) For domestic shipment the seller may add to the maximum prices the following charges for crating veneer 1/8" thick and thicker:

	Per 1000 surface feet
1/4", 1/4" and 3/32"	$0.50
1/2", 5/16", 1/2" and 7/32"	.75
15/32", 1/4" and 9/32"	1.00
5/16", 11/32" and 3/8"	1.50

SEC. 5. What the invoice must contain. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description as to quantity, species, dimensional specifications and grade of veneer to show whether the price is proper or not. Any specification or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description and the "Special" application number and serial letter must be shown. The invoice must show separately the origin and destination of the shipment, the amount added for transportation, and any charge made for crating for veneer 1/8" thick and thicker.

SEC. 6. Prohibited practices. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-in agreements, trade understandings, changes in discount or credit practices, failure to allow customary cash discount below ceiling, and the like.

Specifically, a sale of veneer as a grade for which a maximum price is given in the price tables, but which does not in fact meet the standard specifications of such grade, is a violation of this regulation. See section 14 for standard specifications.

SEC. 7. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 8. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6 [1] for adjustment provisions on certain government contracts and subcontracts.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 9. Records. All sellers must keep copies of invoices or similar records which will show a complete description as to quantity, species, dimensional specifications and grade of the items of veneer sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale and the price including the application number and serial letter in the case of a "Special" price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for all purchases and sales of veneer covered by this regulation. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 10. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 11. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[3] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license, or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 12. Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[4] Any sale or delivery covered by this regulation is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5] The maximum prices for export sales of products covered by this regulation are governed by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

SEC. 13. Geographical applicability. This regulation applies in the 48 States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 14. Grades and specifications. All grades and specifications used in this regulation refer to, and have the meaning, given in National Hardwood Lumber Association Rules for the Measurement and Inspection of Veneers, issued January 1944, Signal Corps Specification No. 72-48, or Bureau of Ships Ad Interim Specification No. 39P15 (Int.). Specific reference is made to one or the other of these specifications in each of the price tables. Regardless of what it may be called, veneer which does not meet these exact specifications may not be priced under the price tables in this regulation, but must be priced under section 3 (b).

NHLA Rules may be obtained from the National Hardwood Lumber Association, 59 East Van Buren Street, Chicago, Illinois (25¢). Signal Corps Specification No. 72-48 may be obtained from the Philadelphia Signal Corps Procurement District, 5000 Wissahickon Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (no charge). Bureau of Ships Ad Interim Specification No. 39P15, (Int.) may be obtained from the Bureau of Ships, Navy Department, Washington, 25, D. C. (no charge).

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

SEC. 2. To what products, transactions and geographical areas this regulation applies.—(a) What products and transactions are covered by this regulation. This regulation applies to all sales, purchases and deliveries of furs and peltries, raw, dressed, or dressed and dyed, whether imported or domestic, with the following exceptions:

(b) What geographical areas are covered. This regulation applies to the continental United States, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

(c) Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export furs and peltries shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 3. Definitions. The definitions in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used in this regulation, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the definitions set forth in this section.

(a) Raw furs and peltries. The term "raw furs and peltries" means undressed or untanned fur skins or peltries, whether imported or domestic, which are commonly known as fur skins.

(b) Dressed or dressed and dyed furs and peltries. The term "dressed or dressed and dyed furs and peltries" means raw fur skins or peltries which have been processed with the hair on and made suitable for use in the manufacture of fur garments or fur trimmings.

(c) Base period. The term "base period" means the period from October 1, 1941 to April 30, 1942 inclusive.

(d) Highest price. The term "highest price" means the highest price at which the seller delivered, or, in the case of a sale through an auction company or broker, sold a kind of fur or peltry in a kind of sale during the base period.

(e) Kind of fur or peltry. The term "kind of fur or peltry" means each kind of fur or peltry listed in section 19, Appendix A. It also means every other kind recognized by trade usage as a general kind of fur or peltry, but only if such other kind is not listed in section 19 and is not included in any kind so listed. (For example, "Northern muskrat" is one "kind of fur or peltry", regardless of geographical origin and section, and therefore includes "Jersey" or "Black" muskrats; "Leopard" is a "kind of fur or peltry" and includes all leopards (etc.).

(f) Kind of sale. The term "kind of sale" means a sale in a bulk lot, graded and/or matched lot or matched bundle.

(1) Bulk lot. The term "bulk lot" means an ungraded lot of furs or peltries billed at an average price for all furs or peltries in the lot.

(2) Graded and/or matched lot. The term "graded and/or matched lot" means a lot of furs or peltries graded in accordance with the seller's customary practice, sold with a statement specifying the grades included in the lot and the number or percentage of skins of each grade, and billed at a separate price per skin for each grade in the lot or at an average price for all skins in the lot.

(3) Matched bundle. The term "matched bundle" means the number of dressed or dressed and dyed skins sufficient to make only one garment, matched and graded for use in a single garment and sold as a unit.

(4) Graded and/or matched. The terms "graded" and/or "matched" refer to the seller's customary practice of sorting skins based on such factors as (but not limited to) size, primeness, color, weight, origin, section, sex, luster, etc.

(g) Seller. The term "seller" means a person selling furs or peltries which he owns. The term shall also include any auction company, broker or agent who sells furs or peltries owned by a person not within the continental United States.

(j) Competitive sellers of the same class. "Competitive sellers of the same class" means sellers (1) of the same type (for example, collectors, importers, primary dealers, secondary dealers, etc.), (2) dealing in the same kinds of furs or peltries and making the same kinds of sales and (3) selling to the same type of purchaser (for example, garment manufacturers, trimming manufacturers, secondary dealers, etc.).

(k) General level of prices prevailing among competitive sellers of the same class means the prices or price range at or below which a representative group of competitive sellers of the same class delivered ninety (90) per cent of the total quantity delivered by them during the base period in a kind of sale of a kind of fur or peltry.

SEC. 4. Relation to other maximum price regulations. This regulation shall apply, and the General Maximum Price Regulation, Revised Supplementary Regulation 14 thereto, and the Maximum Import Price Regulation shall not apply, to all furs and peltries covered by this regulation, except that furs or peltries pelted outside the continental United States and purchased by an importer pursuant to a written contract entered into on or before April 24, 1944, may be sold and delivered under the General Maximum Price Regulation; Revised Supplementary Regulation 14 thereto or the Maximum Import Price Regulation up to and including September 30, 1944, Provided: That within 15 days from the effective date of this regulation a report is filed with the Consumer Goods Price Division of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., stating the quantity of furs and peltries on hand and the quantity to be received and attaching a copy of the contract of purchase showing:

(a) The date of the purchase,

(b) The kinds of furs and peltries purchased, the quantity and assortment, and

(c) The purchase price and all discounts and allowances.

SEC. 5. Pricing chart. (a) Pricing chart—(1) Who must file. On or after July 19, 1944, no seller who delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period any furs or peltries which he purchased from another person shall sell, offer for sale or deliver any fur or peltry unless he has previously received from the Office of Price Administration acknowledgment of the filing of his pricing chart. Examples of a pricing chart appear in section 20, Appendix B, of this regulation. Separate pricing charts shall be filed for raw furs and peltries and for dressed and dressed and dyed furs and peltries.

(2) Place of filing. Two copies of each pricing chart, signed by the seller, shall be filed on or before July 19, 1944 with the Office of Price Administration at the District Office having jurisdiction over the area in which the seller's main office is located. The seller shall retain a copy for his own use.

(3) Contents of pricing chart. The pricing chart shall contain the following:

(i) Name of seller and address of main office;

(ii) Type of seller (dealer, collector, importer, etc.);

(iii) A list of each separate kind of fur or peltry delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period in each kind of sale;

(iv) The highest price at which each kind of fur or peltry listed was delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period in each kind of sale;

(v) The exemption level price for each kind of raw fur or peltry listed for which an exemption level price is established in section 21, Appendix C, of this regulation;

(vi) The seller's total dollar sales volume for all furs and peltries for the calendar year 1943, or, if he keeps his books on a fiscal year basis, for his latest fiscal year;

(vii) The name and address of a purchaser to whom delivery was made at each price listed. Where the sale was made through an auction company or broker, state the name and address of the auction company or broker instead of the purchaser and precede the name by the symbol "(A)" for auction company or "(B)" for broker; and

(viii) The date of each delivery (or sale through an auction company or broker) listed.

(b) Persons who do not have records. If any person required to file a pricing chart does not have the necessary records to prepare such chart, he must obtain from his purchasers or consignees a record of the prices at which they received deliveries (or, in the case of auction companies or brokers, made sales) of his furs or peltries during the base period.

(c) Furnishing of records by purchasers or consignees. Any purchaser or consignee to whom furs or peltries were delivered during the base period by a person required to file a pricing chart must furnish to such person, within 7 days after receipt of written request by such person, duplicate invoices or a price list showing the prices paid for the furs or peltries delivered by such person (or sold by such person through an auction company or broker) during the base period.

SEC. 6. Maximum prices for furs and peltries delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period. (a) The maximum price for any kind of fur or peltry, whether raw, dressed or dressed and dyed, shall be the highest price at which the seller delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period the same kind of fur or peltry in the same kind of sale, except that the maximum prices for grades lower than the best grade of a kind of fur or peltry in the same kind of sale shall be in line with such highest price, making downward adjustments to reflect the customary differentials for such lower grades and for geographical origin or section, in accordance with the seller's established base period practice.

(b) A seller whose highest price for a kind of raw fur or peltry listed in section 21, Appendix C, is higher than the exemption level price there established may not sell a greater percentage of that kind of fur or peltry in the price range between the exemption level price and his highest price than the percentage delivered by him (or sold through an auction company or broker) in said price range during the base period.

SEC. 7. Adjustment of maximum prices determined under section 6—(a) Reductions. Any maximum price established under section 6 may be reduced by the Office of Price Administration if, and to the extent that, it is in excess of the general level of prices prevailing among competitive sellers of the same class during the base period for the same kind of sale of the same kind of fur or peltry.

(b) Increases. Any maximum price established under section 6 which is below the general level of prices prevailing among competitive sellers of the same class during the base period for the same kind of sale of the same kind of fur or peltry may be increased to such general level upon application filed in accordance with the provisions of section 10. However, no such application may be filed with respect to any raw fur or peltry listed in section 21, Appendix C of this regulation.

SEC. 8. Maximum prices for furs and peltries not delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period. The maximum price for a kind of fur or peltry or a kind of sale of a fur or peltry which was not delivered (or sold through an auction company or broker) during the base period will be established by the Office of Price Administration upon application filed by the seller in accordance with the provisions of section 10. However, no such application may be filed with respect to any raw fur or peltry listed in section 21, Appendix C, of this regulation.

SEC. 9. Exemption levels for specified raw furs and peltries. (a) Any seller of any kind of raw fur or peltry listed in section 21, Appendix C of this regulation, whose highest price for the kind of raw fur or peltry is less than the exemption level price established in said Appendix C, and any seller who has no highest price for the kind of raw fur or peltry, may take the exemption level price as his maximum price for that kind of raw fur or peltry.

SEC. 10. Applications for increases in maximum prices or establishment of maximum prices. Applications for increases in maximum prices or establishment of maximum prices shall be filed by mailing by registered mail, return receipt requested, two copies of the application, signed by the applicant, to the Office of Price Administration at the District Office having jurisdiction over the area in which the applicant's main office is located. Such application shall contain the following:

(a) Name of seller and address of main office;

(b) A statement of each kind of fur or peltry and each kind of sale for which applicant seeks a price or price increase;

(c) A statement of the price or prices requested for each kind of fur or peltry and each kind of sale listed in (b), above, with a statement showing how the applicant determined such requested prices;

(d) The names and addresses of applicant's most closely competitive sellers of the same class (five should be named, if possible);

(e) The highest price of each competitive seller listed in (d), above, for each kind of sale of each kind of fur or peltry; and

(f) The price at or below which each of the competitive sellers listed in (d), above, delivered ninety (90) per cent of the total quantity delivered by him during the base period in each kind of sale of a kind of fur or peltry listed in (b), above.

Upon return of the requested receipt to the applicant, or earlier written acknowledgment of the filing by the Office of Price Administration, he may sell, offer for sale or deliver at the prices requested, making downward adjustments to reflect customary differentials for lower grades, for geographical origin, and for section, in accordance with the seller's established base period practice, or, in the case of a seller who made no delivery (or sale through an auction company or broker) during the base period, in accordance with established trade practice.

SEC. 11. Approval, disapproval and revision of maximum prices. The Price Administrator, or any Regional Administrator or any State or District Director so authorized by his Regional Administrator, may at any time approve, disapprove or revise any maximum price reported, proposed or established under sections 6, 7 or 8 of this regulation so as to bring it into line with the level of maximum prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 12. Invoices—(a) Auction companies and brokers. Every auction company and broker shall, in connection with each sale or delivery of furs or peltries, furnish an invoice to the purchaser showing:

(1) The date of sale;

(2) The name and address of the auction company or broker and the purchaser;

(3) The shipping terms, if any;

(4) The identifying lot number and sample number (if different) for each lot sold (in the case of auction companies these must be as customarily set forth in the descriptive catalogue of the sale);

(5) The kind of fur or peltry, the kind of sale, the quantity and selling price and, in the case of sales of graded and/or matched lots or matched bundles, the grade prices or average prices, as the case may be (in the case of auction companies the grades must be as customarily set forth in the descriptive catalogue of the sale).

(b) All other sellers. Every seller, other than a hunter or trapper, shall, in connection with every sale of furs or peltries, other than sales made through auction companies or brokers, deliver to the purchaser an invoice showing:

(1) The date of sale;

(2) The name and address of the seller and the purchaser;

(3) The shipping terms, if any;

(4) The terms of sale;

(5) A description of the furs or peltries sold as follows:

(i) The seller's identifying lot, bundle or invoice number for each lot or bundle sold and (ii) the kind of fur or peltry, the kind of sale, the quantity and selling price and, in the case of sales of graded and/or matched lots or matched bundles, the grade prices or average prices, as the case may be.

SEC. 13. Records—(a) Current records. Every seller must keep a duplicate of the invoice delivered by him in connection with every sale, and every buyer, in the course of trade or business, must keep the invoices received by him in connection with every purchase for which a maximum price is established by this regulation. Every seller and every purchaser of furs or peltries must keep a record, either in the form of a duplicate invoice or otherwise, of each sale or purchase of furs or peltries, including the kind of fur or peltry, the kind of sale, the quantity and the price at which each kind of fur or peltry was purchased or sold (a seller or purchaser who sold or purchased through an auction company or broker must also state that fact in his record and state the name and address of the auction company or broker). In addition, every seller must record on either his retained duplicate of the invoice delivered in connection with every sale, or elsewhere in his records, the fact that he purchased the furs from a hunter or trapper, or, in the case of a purchase from another person, the name of that person or persons and the purchase invoice or other purchase record number or numbers covering such purchase by the seller.

(b) Auction companies. Every auction company which sells an original consignment at auction in separately graded lots (regardless of whether such lots are made exclusively from skins contained in that consignment, or whether skins from several consignments are made into a single lot) must maintain records of each such consignment which will:

(1) State the date of receipt of the consignment,

(2) State the number of skins contained in the consignment,

(3) State the name and address of the consignor,

(4) State the consignor's maximum price for the consignment,

(5) State whether such maximum price was determined under section 6, 7, 8 or 9 of this regulation,

(6) State the lot numbers of the graded lots which include skins from this consignment,

(7) State the number of skins from this consignment included in each lot listed in (6),

(8) State the selling price per skin for each graded lot listed in (6),

(9) State the name and address of the purchaser or purchasers, and

(10) Identify by lot number and sample number each sale to each purchaser.

For the purposes of this paragraph (b) each kind of fur or peltry included in an original consignment shall be considered a separate consignment.

(c) Base period records. Every seller must preserve the records required by § 1499.11 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, and such other records relating to purchases and deliveries during the base period as may be in his possession on the issue date of this regulation.

SEC. 14. Prohibitions. (a) No seller shall sell, offer for sale or deliver any furs or peltries at a price higher than the maximum prices established under this regulation.

(b) No seller shall change his customary discounts, allowances, or other price differentials, if the change would result in a higher net price.

(c) No seller shall make a sale of furs or peltries which is conditioned, directly or indirectly, on the purchase of any other commodity or service.

(d) No person shall, in the course of trade or business, buy or receive any fur or peltry which was sold in violation of this regulation. However, dealers purchasing furs from a hunter, trapper or farmer at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation shall not be deemed to have violated this regulation unless they know or have reason to believe that such purchases are subject to this regulation.

(e) No person shall, for the purpose of evading the price limitations set forth in this regulation, sell, purchase, deliver, contract, deal or otherwise operate with or through any other person under common control with, controlled by, controlling or otherwise affiliated with the seller. No person shall do any other act which, directly or indirectly, increases the consideration paid for any fur or peltry. Any practice which is a device to secure the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price is as much a violation as an outright raising of the maximum price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and all similar practices.

(f) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited by this section.

SEC. 15. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price regulations. A person may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 16. Enforcement. Any person who does any act, or fails to do any act, in violation of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement suits, suits for treble damages and proceedings for the suspension of license provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 17. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 541 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 [1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 18. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by the official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

ALASKA SEAL SKINS AND FOX PELTS

Maximum prices authorized under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, Second Revised Order No. 111. Sales by the Department of the Interior of the United States Government and other persons of dyed and dressed Alaska fur seal skins and raw or dressed blue and white Alaska fox pelts.

Revised Order No. 111 under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation is revised and amended to read as follows:

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register,[1] and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, it is ordered:

§ 1499.975 Approval of maximum prices for sales by the Department of the Interior of the United States Government and other persons of dyed and dressed Alaska fur seal skins and raw or dressed blue and white Alaska fox pelts. (a) On and after June 13, 1944, the maximum prices at which the Department of the Interior of the United States Government, or the Fouke Fur Company of St. Louis, Missouri, acting as its agent, may sell, deliver or offer for sale lots of dyed and dressed Alaska fur seal skins and raw or dressed blue and white Alaska fox pelts shall be the highest prices received by the Department of the Interior of the United States Government for the same or similar lots of skins or pelts sold by it at the auction sale conducted for its account by the Fouke Fur Company of St. Louis, Missouri, on April 20, 1942.

(b) Within 10 days after a maximum price for any such lot of skins or pelts has been determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this order, the Department of the Interior of the United States Government shall report such price to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

(c) On and after June 13, 1944, the maximum price at which any other person may sell, deliver or offer for sale any lot of skins or pelts priced under paragraph (a) of this order shall be the price at which said lot of skins or pelts was sold at the auction sale conducted for the account of the Department of the Interior of the United States Government by the Fouke Fur Company of St. Louis, Missouri plus 10% of such price, plus freight actually paid thereon.

(d) The Department of the Interior of the United States Government or the Fouke Fur Company of St. Louis, Missouri, acting as its agent, shall, in connection with each sale of skins or pelts priced under paragraph (a) of this order, deliver its customary invoice to the purchaser.

(e) Any other person selling any lot of skins or pelts priced under paragraph (a) of this order shall, in connection with each sale of such lot of skins or pelts deliver to the purchaser an invoice or similar document showing: (1) the date of sale, (2) the name and address of the seller and the purchaser, (3) the shipping terms, (4) the terms of sale and selling price of each skin or pelt, (5) a complete description of the furs sold, stating the color, size and grade of each lot of skins or pelts, (6) the lot number under which each lot of skins or pelts was sold and the price charged by the Department of the Interior of the United States Government or the Fouke Fur Company of St. Louis, Missouri, acting as its agent, and the date of such sale, and (7) the freight actually paid thereon.

(f) No person may sell Alaska seal skins in matched bundles who did not make such sales during the period October 1, 1941 to June 13, 1944, inclusive. Any person who sold matched bundles during this period may continue to do so at a volume not in excess of the percentage which his sales of matched bundles represented to his total sales of seal skins during the period.

(g) The average maximum price for any lot of Alaska seal skins sold in matched bundles shall be the price at which said lot was sold at the auction sale conducted for the account of the Department of the Interior of the United States Government by the Fouke Fur Company at St. Louis, Missouri plus 20% of such price, plus freight actually paid thereon, and the total sum received may not exceed the amount that would have been received had all the bundles been sold at the average maximum price for the entire bundled lot.

(h) Any person selling matched bundles who can establish that during the period October 1, 1941 to June 13, 1944 inclusive, he had a higher markup than 20% and that a 20% markup subjects him to substantial hardship may file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., an application for adjustment of his maximum price.

(i) As used in this Second Revised Order No. 111 a "matched bundle" means the number of dyed and dressed Alaska seal skins sufficient to make only one garment, matched and graded for use in a single garment and sold as a unit.

(j) Any person selling any matched bundle of seal skins priced under paragraph (g) of this order shall, in connection with each sale of such matched bundle deliver to the purchaser an invoice or similar document showing: (1) the date of sale, (2) name and address of the seller and purchaser, (3) the shipping terms, (4) the terms of sale and selling price of each bundle sold, (5) a description of each bundle sold, giving the number of skins in each bundle, (6) the freight actually paid thereon and (7) the average maximum price for the entire bundled lot from which each bundle was made.

(k) The maximum prices established by this Second Revised Order No. 111 shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(l) This order may be amended or revoked by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(m) This Second Revised Order No. 111 (§ 1499.975) shall become effective June 13, 1944.

[MPR 165,[1] Rev. Supp. Service Reg. 19, Amdt. 1]

OIL BURNER SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new § 1499.671 (a) (5) (iv) is added to read as follows:

(iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (iii) of this supplementary service regulation or any other regulation, the maximum charge for "annual overhauls" on oil burners performed by any person located in the Counties of Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Harford, or Howard, or in the City of Baltimore, Maryland, shall be not in excess of $4.00. Where annual overhauls include an Orsat or other instrument analysis of flue gases or products of combustion, an additional charge of not more than $1.00 may be made.

"Annual overhaul" refers to the service of vacuum cleaning an oil burner and boiler, cleaning the base of the chimney, and making such minor adjustments and corrections as are immediately necessary to promote efficient operation throughout a heating season.

The above charges for an annual overhaul may be made only once, with respect to an oil burner, during any one year.

Suppliers who have properly filed higher charges in accordance with the requirements of § 1499.108 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 for annual overhauls may retain such higher charges.

This Amendment No. 1 shall become effective June 19, 1944.

The following direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Regulation 3:

Preference ratings lower than AA-3 are not valid for the purchase of flat wick lamp burners, and persons receiving orders bearing such ratings may fill them as unrated orders.

It is the policy of the War Production Board that flat wick lamp burners not required to fill orders bearing preference ratings of AA-3 or higher be distributed equitably to wholesalers and retailers giving due regard to established trade connections and to the increased needs of certain areas caused by war conditions. If such distribution cannot be effected voluntarily, the War Production Board will issue specific directions for the distribution of these products.

Part 3175—Regulations Applicable to the Controlled Materials Plan

[CMP Reg. 2, Interpretation 3]

EFFECT OF REDUCTION IN CONSUMPTION RATE OF PERMITTED INVENTORIES

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 2:

(a) Paragraph (b) of CMP Regulation No. 2 prohibits the acceptance of delivery of an item of controlled material if a person's inventory will become, because of the delivery, or already is, in excess of the amount permitted by the regulation. Priorities Regulation No. 1, § 944.14, makes a similar restriction. If material is acquired within these restrictions, neither regulation prohibits the mere possession of an inventory if a change in circumstances makes it greater than the amount they permitted. For instance, if based upon current rate of production a manufacturer's permitted inventory of one item of steel is 100 tons and he has in inventory 60 tons, he may receive a further delivery of 40 tons. If after receiving the delivery of 40 tons his rate of consumption, because of contract cancellation or the like, is reduced drastically, the mere fact that he has an inventory of 100 tons, although his permitted inventory may be only 10 tons, is not a violation of the regulation. He may not, of course, accept any further deliveries of steel until his inventory has been reduced below 10 tons (except as provided in paragraphs (c) (2) and (c) (4) of CMP Regulation No. 2, relating to material already shipped and special items).

(b) Similarly, the regulation does not affect the liability of a customer for material in inventory when the customer cancels his contract. Such liability is controlled by the provisions of the contract between them and by contract law.

Issued this 14th day of June 1944.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

Part 1432—Rationing of Consumers' Durable Goods

[RO 9C]

NEW COOKING STOVES FOR PUERTO RICO

Preamble. The War Production Board has determined that the curtailment of the production of stoves as an aid to conservation of scarce material and manpower requires the establishing of a program to effect a fair distribution of the limited supply available for civilian use. The Puerto Rico District Office of the War Production Board after an extensive study has determined that in order to distribute cooking stoves in Puerto Rico, this equipment should be rationed by the Office of Price Administration.

Ration Order 9C establishes a program whereby the available gasoline, gas and kerosene cooking stoves will be fairly distributed among consumers. Eligibility standards which consumers have to meet to be entitled to a stove certificate have been established and a quota system is instituted under this program in order to balance supply and distribution.

The Army, Navy, and other exempt agencies will continue to obtain their stoves under the priority order system of the War Production Board. Similarly persons who need stoves in projects authorized by that Board will continue to follow the procedure now used. The stoves obtained by these users will not be charged to civilian supply quotas.

ARTICLE I—SCOPE

Section 1.1 Territorial limitations. This order shall apply to the Territory of Puerto Rico.

Sec. 1.2 Effect on other orders. This order shall not be construed to permit any act which would be in violation of any other order issued by the Office of Price Administration or the War Production Board.

Sec. 1.3 Stoves covered by this order. (a) This order covers new cooking stoves designed for use in the household, for installation on or above the floor, and for the use of kerosene, gasoline or gas as a fuel. The order does not cover any equipment which has been used more than six (6) months, nor does it apply to electric, charcoal or alcohol stoves, gas hot plates, gas laundry stoves, furnaces, water heaters, laundry stoves having built-in water jackets or coils, or wood-burning sheet metal stoves which are not equipped with grates or cast iron base or linings, or equipment specially designed for commercial, industrial, agricultural or institutional use.

Sec. 1.4 How stoves are rationed. (a) Stoves are rationed among eligible consumers through the issuance by boards of certificates on OPA Form PR-R-901. The eligibility requirements are given in section 2.3. A certificate may be used to buy or acquire only the type of stove shown on its face.

(b) The total number of certificates which a board may issue to consumers is limited by quotas set for that board during periods fixed by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) This order is not intended to limit or restrict the quantity of stoves obtainable by the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, War Shipping Administration or Maritime Commission of the United States (called exempt agencies in this order); or by agencies of the United States or other persons to the extent to which they acquire stoves for export to and consumption or use in any foreign country or territory or possession of the United States (other than the District of Columbia); or, by agencies of the United States or other persons to the extent to which they acquire stoves for installation in a project when such installation has been specifically authorized by the War Production Board by the issuance of an order in the series designated P-19, P-55 or P-110. Transfers to or for these agencies or persons are made under applicable priority orders of other agencies of the United States.

ARTICLE II—CONSUMERS

Sec. 2.1 Who is a consumer. (a) Any person who needs or has acquired a new cooking stove for any use is a consumer. The term consumer includes also: (1) a lessor of premises who needs or has acquired a new cooking stove for the use of a tenant occupying such premises, or who installs in such premises for the use of his tenant, a new cooking stove he holds for sale or other transfer; (2) a person who needs or has acquired a new cooking stove for installation in premises which he is offering for rent, or who installs in such premises a new stove he holds for sale or other transfer; and (3) any person who uses a new cooking stove which he holds for sale or other transfer, except that a dealer is not a consumer as to a stove he demonstrates or exhibits as part of the business of transferring stoves.

(b) However, an exempt agency or a person acquiring a new cooking stove for export or for installation in a project authorized by the War Production Board by the issuance of an order in the P-19, P-55, or P-110 series (unless the person to whom the War Production Board authorization was issued is relieved from the responsibility for installing a stove in that project by the National Housing Agency) that is, a person or agency specified in section 1.4 (c), is not a consumer within the meaning of this order.

Sec. 2.2 Consumer may not order a stove without a certificate. (a) No offer or order from a consumer for the purchase or acquisition of a new cooking stove may be accepted by any person unless and until the consumer gives up to that person a certificate for that type of stove. Nor may a new cooking stove be transferred to, or acquired by a consumer unless he gives up to the transferor a certificate for that type of stove.

SEC. 2.3 Eligibility requirements. (a) Any consumer who needs a new stove for cooking in essential living or working premises or in premises in which there is carried on an activity which contributes to the war effort or to the public welfare (or who needs a cooking stove for installation in premises which are rented or are being offered for rent as essential living space) is eligible for a certificate for any type of cooking stove, if he comes within at least one of the following classes:

(1) He has no equipment for that purpose; or

(2) He has for that purpose only equipment which is worn out or damaged and cannot be repaired within a reasonable time or at a reasonable cost; or

(3) He has only gas equipment which cannot be used because the War Production Board prohibits the use of the parts or materials needed to install such equipment or because such parts or materials are not available; or

(4) He has for that purpose only electric equipment and electricity for its operation is not available, or he has for that purpose only gas equipment and gas for its operation is not available, or he has for that purpose charcoal equipment and charcoal is not available; or

(5) He has for that purpose only gas equipment using liquified or bottled gas and the necessary materials are not available; or

(6) He has for that purpose only equipment the use of which is prohibited by the law of Puerto Rico.

The board must issue a separate certificate for each type of stove, and must indicate on the face of each certificate at the time it is issued, in addition to the other information required by the form, the type of stove which may be acquired. However, no board may issue a certificate for a gas cooking stove if gas service will not be available for its operation. Nor may a board issue a certificate for a stove if it will be used to acquire a stove for a project in which the installation of a stove of that type is specifically authorized by the War Production Board by the issuance of an order in the series designated P–19, P–55 or P–110 unless the National Housing Agency has relieved the person to whom the order was issued from the responsibility for installing a stove of that type in that project.

[Rev. S. O. 210]

ICING AND REICING OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES IN DESIGNATED SOUTHERN STATES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of June, A. D. 1944.

It appearing that there is a shortage of ice in certain areas and the establishment of the use of a modified refrigeration service known as half-stage icing for citrus fruit originating in Florida; and otherwise limiting refrigeration to three-fourths bunker capacity on cars of fruits and vegetables originating in Florida and on vegetables originating in Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Louisiana (east of Mississippi River), South Carolina, North Carolina, and Tennessee, will result in economy of motive power, manpower, and ice; the Commission is of the opinion that an emergency exists requiring immediate action: it is ordered, that:

Half-stage icing—(a) (1) Definition. The term half-stage icing as used herein means using only the upper halves of the bunkers of refrigerator cars for carrying ice, this being accomplished by setting the ice grates at a point approximately midway between the bottom and top of the bunkers.

(2) Furnishing refrigerator cars equipped for half-stage icing for loading with Florida citrus. When refrigerator cars equipped for half-stage icing are available at the point of origin when shipment is ordered to be initially iced after loading, and at the icing station where cars are to be initially iced when initial icing is ordered prior to loading, and the railroads can so furnish refrigerator cars equipped for half-stage icing without additional switching service in excess of that normally required for initial icing, all common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act operating in the State of Florida, in complying with a shipper's order for a refrigerator car, shall give priority to the furnishing of and shall furnish refrigerator cars equipped for half-stage icing for loading with citrus fruit originating in the State of Florida, and shall furnish refrigerator cars not equipped for half-stage icing only when cars so equipped are not available as specified in this paragraph.

(3) Carriers required to furnish half-stage icing service on refrigerator cars equipped for half-stage icing. No common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall permit, accord or authorize other than half-stage icing service on any refrigerator car equipped for half-stage icing, ordered for loading with, or loaded with citrus fruit originating in the State of Florida when available and furnished in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this regulation.

(b) Icing and reicing on fruits and vegetables restricted to three-fourths bunker capacity. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, on any refrigerator car loaded with fruits or vegetables originating in the State of Florida, or loaded with vegetables originating in the States of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Louisiana (east of the Mississippi River), South Carolina, North Carolina, or Tennessee, shall initially ice or reice, or allow or permit initial icing or reicing, with more ice than is necessary to bring the ice in each bunker up to, but not above, three-fourths of that bunker's capacity. This paragraph shall have no application on cars restricted to half-stage icing under the provisions of paragraphs (a) (2) and (3) of this regulation.

(c) Application. The provisions of this order shall apply only to shipments billed on and after the effective date of this order originating in the States listed in paragraph (b) of this section, except that when a shipment has been unloaded under a transit arrangement the provisions of this order shall apply such shipment if billed at the transit point on or after the effective date of this order.

(d) Tariff provisions suspended. The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, or charges insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended.

(e) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads, or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected thereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of any of the provisions therein.

(f) Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Director of the Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., June 13, 1944, and shall supersede Service Order No. 210 on the effective date hereof; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket G-552]

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 13, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on June 1, 1944, Southern Natural Gas Company, a Delaware Corporation having its principal place of business in Birmingham, Alabama, filed with the Federal Power Commission its application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize the construction and operation of the facilities hereinafter described.

The proposed construction consists of a 4½-inch O. D. gas pipe line approximately five miles in length, commencing at a point of connection with an existing pipe line belonging to Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company near its Wenonah sintering plant and extending to the Spaulding sintering plant of Republic Steel Corporation near Spaulding, Jefferson County, Alabama, together with appropriate metering and pressure regulating equipment, for direct sale of natural gas to Republic Steel Corporation for sintering of iron ore; installation of seven air-cooled mufflers to be installed on seven 1,300 horsepower gas compressors at its Perryville, Louisiana, compressor station; installation of two gas scrubbers to be installed at applicant's existing dehydration plant at Logansport, Louisiana; and appurtenant facilities consisting principally of meters, tap lines, valves, regulators, etc.

Applicant asserts that the facilities other than the pipe line whereby it proposes to transport, sell and deliver natural gas to the Republic Steel Corporation, which is engaged in war production, will provide an additional safety factor in order to assure continuity of applicant's present operations which include natural gas service to many industries engaged in war production.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 29th day of June, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70–896]

GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 12th day of June, A. D. 1944.

Declaration of dividends out of capital surplus. Declaration by registered holding company pursuant to section 12 (c) and Rule U–46 permitted to become effective with respect to the payment of dividends to prior preferred shareholders out of capital surplus where no prejudice to security holders or public is found.

Appearances: William W. Golub, for General Gas & Electric Corporation. David I. Bursten, for the Public Utilities Division of the Commission.

General Gas & Electric Corporation (hereinafter called Gengas), a registered holding company, which is a subsidiary of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation (hereinafter called Trustees), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration pursuant to section 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the act), in which it proposes to pay out of capital or unearned surplus the accumulated and unpaid dividends amounting to $5 per share on its $5 prior preferred stock, no par value, for the period from March 16, 1943, to March 15, 1944, and also a quarterly dividend on the same stock for the quarterly period ended June 15, 1944.

The entire issue outstanding is 60,000 shares, of which 27,889.1 shares are held by the Trustees, who have, by a letter dated May 26, 1944, waived their right to collect such quarterly dividends, until further order of the Commission. The number of shares in the hands of the public is 32,110.9 (of which 8.9 shares are held in script, and such script will not receive a dividend), so that $200,637.50 will be required to make the dividend payment.

After appropriate notice, a public hearing was held. No one appeared at the hearing to oppose the proposed dividend payment. Having considered the record therein, the Commission makes the following findings:

As at February 29, 1944, the assets of Gengas, per books, available for security holders totalled $28,290,978. The only securities of, or claims against, Gengas which, according to its books, are senior to the $5 Prior Preferred Stock, consist of certain obligations payable to the Trustees. These obligations, including interest thereon, aggregate $3,004,103.

The books of Gengas, as of February 29, 1944, reflect an earned surplus deficit of $3,673,883; the capital surplus is shown as $13,371,147.

Net income of Gengas for the twelve months ended February 29, 1944, amounted to $583,834. As at February 29, 1944, Gengas had cash on hand in the amount of $735,382 and United States Treasury Certificates costing $1,500,000. Since that date the company has received an additional $1,854,000 from the sale of its interest in Virgina Public Service Company (Virginia Public Service Company—S. E. C.—, Holding Company Act Release No. 5021 (April 29, 1944)).

A cash forecast for the eight months ending December 31, 1944, submitted by the company in connection with the filing, indicates that Gengas will be able to meet all its cash requirements, continue to maintain an adequate cash balance, and pursue its present dividend policy. The forecast contemplates that at the end of the period the cash balance will be $2,742,835.

This is the tenth time that Gengas has filed a declaration to pay a dividend on its publicly held Prior Preferred Stock out of capital surplus. We have on each occasion considered that the assets of Gengas were substantial in relation to the size of the proposed dividend, and that the Prior Preferred Stock is, by its terms, entitled to be paid dividend arrearages in full before dividends can be paid on the other preferred stocks. These same factors are equally cogent with regard to the present declaration.

We make no adverse findings under the applicable sections of the act and rules promulgated thereunder.

It is therefore ordered, That, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the said declaration, as amended, be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U–24 of the general rules and regulations.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS CO., ET AL.

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 12th day of June A. D. 1944.

In the matters of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, File No. 54-78; Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, applicant, File No. 54-40; Central Public Utility Corporation, Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, respondents, File No. 59-40; Christopher H. Coughlin, W. T. Crawford and Rawleigh Warner, voting trustees under voting trust agreement dated August 1, 1932, relating to common stock of Central Public Utility Corporation, applicants, File No. 54-53; Christopher H. Coughlin, W. T. Crawford and Rawleigh Warner, voting trustees under voting trust agreement dated August 1, 1932, relating to common stock of Central Public Utility Corporation, respondents, File No. 59-49.

Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of a plan for certain action designed to enable that company and certain of its subsidiary companies to comply with the provisions of section 11 (b) of said Act; the Commission having by order dated July 19, 1943 consolidated the proceedings upon said application (1) with certain proceedings theretofore instituted by the Commission pursuant to section 11 (b) of said Act with respect to said Consolidated Electric and Gas Company and Central Public Utility Corporation, also a registered holding company, (2) with certain other proceedings instituted by the Commission pursuant to said section 11 (b) with respect to Christopher H. Coughlin, W. T. Crawford, and Rawleigh Warner, Voting Trustees under a certain voting trust agreement dated August 1, 1932, relating to common stock of said Central Public Utility Corporation (said Trustees also being a registered holding company), (3) with proceedings upon an earlier application of said Consolidated Electric and Gas Company for approval of certain other action also designed to enable said Consolidated Electric and Gas Company to comply with said section 11 (b), and (4) with proceedings upon an application and declaration by said Trustees, above named, regarding the disposition of the common stock of Central Public Utility Corporation held by said Trustees and the Commission having by said order of July 19, 1943 set down said consolidated proceedings for hearing at the offices of the Commission in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., on August 2, 1943; and said hearing having been postponed by subsequent orders of the Commission until June 20, 1944; and

Consolidated Electric and Gas Company having requested that the hearing so directed to be held in said consolidated proceedings be further postponed for a period of not less than sixty days, stating in such request, among other things, that the company, since June 23, 1943, the date of the filing of its application for approval of the plan hereinabove first mentioned, has disposed of its interests in, or the assets of 17 of its domestic public utility subsidiary companies; that negotiations looking toward the sale of several additional subsidiaries are in progress and are expected to be completed in the near future; that declarations regarding the payment by three subsidiaries to Consolidated Electric and Gas Company of certain funds and the use of said funds by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company to retire a portion of its outstanding bonds through open market purchases are now pending before this Commission; that the postponement requested will afford Consolidated Electric and Gas Company a further period in which to complete additional divestments of domestic public utility subsidiary companies and to retire a substantial amount of its outstanding debt securities, which have been reduced from $31,433,500 principal amount as of December 31, 1943 to $23,160,000 as of May 31, 1944 (excluding $4,854,000 assumed bonds, funds for the retirement of which have been deposited with the Trustee of said bonds); that as a result of the transactions aforementioned, Consolidated Electric and Gas Company will be in a position to submit a substantially simplified plan for compliance with said section 11 (b) and that such plan, while simplifying the problems of the system, will require material revision of the plan for such compliance heretofore submitted to this Commission; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate under the circumstances that the hearing directed to be held herein on June 20, 1944, be further postponed;

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter previously scheduled for June 20, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, be and hereby is postponed to August 22, 1944, at the same hour and place and before the same trial examiner as heretofore designated.

It is further ordered, That the time within which any person other than parties to said consolidated proceedings desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in said proceedings shall file his request or application therefor with the Secretary of the Commission as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice be, and the same hereby is, extended to August 12, 1944.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 12th day of June 1944.

In the matter of The United Gas Improvement Company and Harold C. Payson, File No. 70-879; Manchester Gas Company, File No. 70-903.

Notice is hereby given that an amendment has been filed to a joint application or declaration heretofore filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The United Gas Improvement Company (U. G. I.), a registered holding company, and Harold C. Payson (Payson), and that an application or declaration has been filed pursuant to the Act by Manchester Gas Company (Manchester), a subsidiary of U. G. I.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 23, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said applications or declarations, which are on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

The original joint application-declaration of U. G. I. and Payson proposed the sale by U. G. I. and the purchase by Payson for $33,000 cash, of 840 shares of 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock ($100 par value) and $4,200 shares of common stock ($100 par value) of Manchester, said stock representing all of U. G. I.'s holdings of securities in Manchester.

A public hearing was held in respect of these matters, but prior to Commission action thereon, Payson assigned his purchase agreement with U. G. I. to Manchester for a cash consideration of $5,000. U. G. I. thereupon amended its pending filing and Manchester filed an application-declaration, pursuant to which it is now proposed that Manchester will buy and retire and U. G. I. will sell for $33,000 cash the shares of Manchester's preferred and common stock presently owned by U. G. I. In connection therewith, Payson has requested the withdrawal of his application-declaration.

In the matter of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, the Islands Gas and Electric Company, Compagnie D'Eclairage Electrique Des Villes De Port-Au-Prince Et du Cap Haitien, Compania Electrica de Santo Domingo, C. por A.; File No. 70-898.

Notice is hereby given that declarations or applications (or both) have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company, and the following subsidiary companies of said holding company, The Islands Gas and Electric Company ("Islands"), Compagnie D'Eclairage Electrique des Villes de Port-au-Prince et du Cap Haitien ("Haiti Company"), and Compania Electrica de Santo Domingo, C. por A. ("Santo Domingo Company").

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 20, 1944, at 5:30 p. m., e. w. t., request the Commission that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said documents, which are on file in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

All the securities of Islands are owned by Consolidated. Islands owns all of the securities of Haiti Company and Santo Domingo Company, including certain demand notes in the principal amount of $414,000 of Haiti Company and certain demand notes in the aggregate principal amount of $2,382,503 of Santo Domingo Company. It is proposed that, out of treasury assets, the Haiti Company pay sums not in excess of $100,000 in the aggregate and that the Santo Domingo Company pay sums not in excess of $500,000 in the aggregate to Consolidated in reduction of the principal owing on their respective notes, such payments to be made from time to time during the remainder of 1944. Said notes are pledged with the Trustee securing the Islands Ten Year 4% Secured Bonds, Series B, due March 1, 1953. Under the terms of said Indenture such payments of principal on pledged notes are required to be deposited with the Trustee under said Indenture and said Trustee will apply the funds to be received to the retirement of a like amount of Bonds of Islands. All of said Bonds of Islands outstanding in the principal amount of $2,143,500 are owned by Consolidated and are pledged under the lien of the Trust Indenture of Southern Cities Utilities Company (assumed by Consolidated) securing an issue of Thirty Year 5% First Lien and Collateral Trust Gold Bonds, due April 1, 1958. Under the terms of said Indenture, such payments of principal to retire pledged Bonds of Islands are required to be deposited with the Trustee under said Trust Indenture. In accordance with the terms of said Trust Indenture, Consolidated will apply such funds or a like amount to acquire outstanding bonds of Southern Cities Utilities Company by purchase in the open market and such purchased bonds will be surrendered to the Trustee for cancellation against the withdrawal of such deposited funds at the purchase cost of said Bonds, exclusive of accrued interest.

Consolidated now holds $300,000 in cash representing the unexpended balance of the Federal tax savings resulting from sales by subsidiary companies of their respective properties at amounts below the tax cost to them and the accural of such tax savings to Consolidated as a result of the amendment to the tax agreement between Consolidated and certain of its subsidiary companies which joined in the filing of consolidated Federal income and excess profits tax returns for 1943. Consolidated now proposes to use such tax savings funds in the amount of $300,000 to acquire outstanding Bonds of Consolidated or Southern Cities Utilities Company bonds through purchases in the open market, such bonds to be surrendered for cancellation by Consolidated to the Trustee under the Indenture securing said Bonds.

CHATTANOOGA MATTRESS CO.

Chattanooga Mattress Company, 426 Chestnut Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, a corporation, is engaged in the manufacture of mattresses, sofa bed suites and furniture. Between September 1, 1943 and November 19, 1943, the corporation processed, fabricated, worked on, assembled, or offered for sale 4,175 child's rockers of a pattern which had not been offered for sale by the corporation prior to March 15, 1943. These acts were in violation of General Limitation Order L-260. The corporation, through its officers, was familiar with the provisions of Order L-260, and its conduct constituted wilful violations thereof; these violations have diverted scarce materials and labor to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.561 Suspension Order No. S-561. (a) Chattanooga Mattress Company, its successors and assigns, shall not process, fabricate, or assemble any furniture as defined in Limitation Order L-260-a, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Chattanooga Mattress Company, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on June 14, 1944, and shall expire on September 14, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of June 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 933—COPPER

[Order M-9-c as Amended May 26, 1944, Amdt. 2]

Section 933.4 Conservation Order M-9-c is hereby amended by adding a new paragraph (f) (4) to read as follows:

(4) Research, developmental and experimental activities.[4] The provisions of this order shall not apply to the use of copper products or copper base alloy products to make experimental models or test runs, but only the minimum number of models or minimum size run needed to determine the suitability of the item for commercial production. Such models or materials shall not be distributed for the purpose of promoting sales or creating a consumer demand for such items, nor shall such items, if designed primarily for future civilian markets, be exhibited to the public. Research, developmental or experimental activities in connection with products or materials designed primarily for future civilian markets must be carried on without diverting any manpower, technical skill or facilities from activities connected with the war effort.

Issued this 15th day of June 1944.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing Form WPB-1477 with the War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M-9-c-1.

(3) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M-9-c-1.

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 15th day of June 1944.
